

... he was all
 was for the pay he was pted him to cient faith in r salvation."
 e Chapel of ration which ed man will ve of himself whether the ce be made
 Mr. Meehan
 ARCHER.
 r.
 3th, 1850.
 2d inst., two Muleahy, of ly requested
 if he did he at present—etter of the would make y would sufwhat he was thing but a self and son,
 at the purest
 his conduct be better to ment. Con-return to a so contrary
 die a Pro-ed to their
 t was no use
 with him."
 NNORS.
 antage of a swept every local com-inhabitants o make the rial town in ners, whose to office on hursday, the
 the highest

... Royal Irish Fusiliers, only son of James Baillie, Esq. of Ringdufferin, county Down, to Jemima, eldest daughter of the late William Carleton, Captain of the 36th Regt. N.I.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning last, Maria, the beloved wife of James Shannon, Esq. M.D. Physician to the Ennystimon union.
 At the age of 75 years, Timothy Moriarty, Esq. of Ballentarnmin House, Dingle, co. Kerry.
 At Charleville, Mary Anne, daughter of the late Richard Maguire, Esq.
 At Howley's-quay, Mrs. Margaret Burns, spirit retailer.
 At Skibbereen, Richard Coppinger, Esq.
 At Clover-hill, Mallow, Mary, wife of Daniel Buckley, Esq.
 In Cork, Mr. John Carroll, T.C.
 At Wynnfield-parade, Rathmines, James Moore, Esq. formerly High Sheriff for Dublin city.
 At Leeson-street, in her 70th year, Anne, wife of the late Peter Burrowes, Esq. K.C.
 At Peasfield-terrace, Blackrock, Harriett, wife of Richard Connery, Esq.
 At Ranelagh, Emily, wife of J. Foster, Esq. of New Park, Kilkenny.
 At his residence, Bushfield-avenue, Donnybrook, Henry Davers, Esq.
 At Janeville, Merrion, Alexander Carson, eldest son of Mr.
 Wm. Tough, of the Broadstone.
 At Richmond-street, Mountjoy-square, the infant daughter of Mrs. C. W. Carruthers.
 At Munster-house Asylum, Arthur Molony, Esq.
 At Prospect House, county Fermanagh, Alexander Maguire, Esq. J.P., aged 90 years.
 At Turvey, of diarrhoea, at the house of his brother-in-law, M'Court, Esq. Francis Mullaly, second son of the late Michael Mullaly, Esq. of Great Britain-street.
 At Ellenbrook, county Antrim, of apoplexy, aged 64 years, John Redmond, Esq.
 At Coal-island House, co. Tyrone, Isabella, wife of George Willecks, Esq.
 At Dover, aged 80 years; Sir Joshua Colles Meredyth, Bart.
 Greenhills, county Kildare.
 At Babraham, Cambridgeshire, the Hon. Mrs. Adeone, widow of Henry John Adeone, Esq. and daughter of Lord Stanley, of Alderley.
 At Druids-lodge, Plasnewydd, Anglesey, John Sanderson,
 Esq. aged 85.
 At Camberwell, aged 88, Mary, relict of the late Rev. J.
 Adams, Rector of St. Paul's, Cray, Kent.
 Of apoplexy, at her residence in Kentish-town, Susan, daughter of the late William Prichard, Esq. of Goos, Holyhead, and sister of Robert Hayley Judd, Esq. Captain R.N.
 At Harpur-street, Red Lion-square, Mrs. Shaw, widow of the late John Shaw, Esq. of Wighton, and mother of the late Lieut. John Shaw, who was assassinated in the Affghan war.
 At Bonchurch, Marion Johanna Lilia, youngest daughter of the Rev. James White.
 Aged 74, Sir John P. Milbanke, Bart.
 At his residence, Craven-place, Kentish-town, John Wingfield, Esq. in the 77th year of his age.
 Maria, wife of John William Lidgard, Esq. Leigham House, Breatham.
 At Scarborough, in his 67th year, Thomas Tindal, Esq. of Walsby, younger brother of the late Sir Nicholas Conyngham Tindal, formerly Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.
 Hannah Elizabeth, eldest daughter of G. Brown, Esq. formerly member of Council at Bombay.
 At Dinan, France, John Schoales, Esq. Q.C.
 At Homburg, aged 55, Louisa, relict of John Crampton, late of Dublin, Esq.
 In New York, Mary Elizabeth Wheeler, wife of Henry G.
 Wheeler, and daughter of the late John Clough, Esq. United States Navy, aged 34 years.
 Suddenly, at Mercara, on his way to join his Regt. Captain J. Armstrong, of the 5th Madras Native Infantry, youngest son of the late Elliott Armstrong, Esq. of the co. Roscommon.

Sett Telescope Tables, Morocco Leather, Carpet, Chair and Table, 2 Pair Snuffers and Tray, two Pair Salvers, one do., Tom mounted, and but slightly Wines, Rummors, Tum Cream Ewer, Pickle Plate and Evening China, Dinner Lots of Delph, Jam Crock sticks, Tea Trays, very ele do., a few Dozen of Port Sherry; small quantity of and about 38 Bottles of d

THE SLEEPING APARTM
 with State and French B of the purest description, Basin Stands, Services of ders, Carpetting, Rugs, W Horses, Servants' Bedstea Hall Clock, Globe, Tarpaful Articles of Kitchen utensils.

SALE AT JOHN
 As this Sale is totally and effects must be removed

AME

FOR NE
 Now in Port, the PLA.
 Coppered and Copper Fa
DAVID BORROW
 Will Sail for New York, (ting), on the 15

IT is not necessary to p superior advantages to sage in this Vessel; she Decks, and good ventilatio
 tance in a Passenger Ship.
 laid in for the Voyage, co Rice, Tea, Sugar, Pork, a ment. Early application i WILLIAM
 At his Office, Wellesley McQuincy, Ennis, or to Shannon-street; Mathe

