

S.
 eriod of unexampled
 which has left a sad ery, it is gratifying to ergy, and to witness
 ra. In several dis-
 have been formed for manufacture, and the suits. Such laudable stimulate exertion, to o foster habits of self-
 to advance individual wealth. Examples
 d it is justly expected ninent lead in a move-
 course is worthy of a
 its natural position,
 e arteries of its noble
 l emporium for Irish
 th the Western world.
 business in which a
 is one to which the
 rustomed, that is the ltural, and for which vantages. The rich-
 ling counties is pro-
 or the growth of Flax.
 cultivation of wheat
 the improved process
 be produced and sup-
 convenient market is t is required to erect
 diciously selected site, mbines every improved
 ed on a scale of suitable lements for working
 he spot, and there is Steam, as the moving
 erate cost, owing to
 resource it affords, inexhaustible. In the
 perience instructors
 d, or the North, where brought to perfection.
 ipline and train our ations, instituting an ol, with a progressive een adopted both at success, the results far anticipations. At the xhibits a sound and
 been more active and fits. The rate payers benefits to be derived
 e reduced expenditure
 ead of the youthful

The Shandon, steam-packet, on voyage from Crinan canal to Oban, struck upon a sunken rock, on Friday, when the passengers, including Lord Gough, who showed great nerve and presence of mind, were taken off by boats from the shore, and landed in safety.

The convict Pate, who was sentenced to transportation, for assaulting her Majesty, is on board a convict ship, lying in Portland Roads, en route to a penal settlement.

The Lord Advocate of Scotland is on a visit to the Earl of Clare at Mountshannon.

Chief Justice Blackburne is on a visit with Judge Jackson at Sutton.

General Sir Edward Blakeney had the garrison of Dublin yesterday in the Park at a sham battle.

Patrick Diugenan, Esq. is appointed a magistrate of the county Roscommon.

Mr. Evans, upholsterer, drove a small locomotive vehicle through the streets this day, propelled by himself, without the aid of quadruped or steam power. The pace was four miles an hour.

Mr. Heath, Supervisor of Inland Revenue, is ordered from Lahinch to Wexford.

Three loads of new Oats at market this day sold for 7³/₄d per stone. No new wheat is yet come in.

In market this day 105 loads of potatoes, looking well. Price—first quality 5d, second, 4d per stone.

A Kerry heifer was exhibited for sale this day, by Mr. Patrick Lyddy, weighing 4¹/₂ cwt., with 9 stone of interior tallow, fed for John Croker, Esq., Ballinagarde.

John Elligott, a labourer, was drowned this afternoon at the rere of the Canal mills, where he went to bathe. The body was found in a few minutes after, and removed to Barrington's hospital, where the usual restoratives were applied by Dr. Brodie, and Mr. Cavanagh, house apothecary, but unhappily without success.

The Rev. H. Sadleir, nephew of the Provost, is reported for the Deanery of Waterford.

The equestrian and acrobatic performances of Pablo Fanque's Troupe, at the Limerick Circus, continue to attract large audiences every night; and the feats, enlivened by humorous dialogue, afford the utmost gratification.

FARM TO LET,

FOR Six Months, subject to redemption, that part of the Lands of CLOUGHNADROMIN, containing 140 Acres Irish plantation measure, situated

MR. J. F.
Miniature

ANIMAL

NO. 6, C

SPECIMENS can be
 WALLACE'S Estab
 or, Mr. MARSHALL'S C
 As Mr. FITZPATRICK
 an early call is solicited

Daguerreo

PROFESS

BEGS leave to appri
 and its vicinity, t
 completed, in aid of wh Photographic operation Pr. B. regrets not to the beginning, but bei
 the light of which was a likeness to his satisfac
 who had their likeness
 was completed, may r
 happy to change it for any additional charge.

Terms for a complete
 Case, 7s. 6d. and up acc

Groupes beautifully
 for each additional pers

Miniatures to any siz
 and Daguerreotype cop

Time of operation fro
 seen in the Dressing Ro lishment.

Private entrance in,
 BLUNDELL'S Watch, C

John James, lessee of Lloyd and other

a.

The casual Ejecto

tion, the Town and La
 and Gurtmanoher, com
 taining by common es
 with 18 Acres of Bog same more or less, sit Barony of Pubblebrien within Three Miles of

Application to THOM
 Rathkeale; or THOMAS
 enham-st. Limerick.