

of a collector who was board of Guardians, with pay the arrear claimed.
in Caherciveen union!

yesterday were sold 3
for £300, £70; 2,
The purchasers were
Mr. John Moore.

nel, is elected a town

Donegal, have taken in-Lieut. M'Dermott's re-at assault upon James is fully one third short crop. A blight has throughout the four provins will yield good crops

Oats are selling in Gals 9d, and the latter at of some very luxuriant length, which was grown erick, who have six acres refer to. The specimen at the next meeting of the Whig.

the Royal Agricultural eld in the province of selected by the Council.
ed with splendid hake,

hy and Patrick Sullivan
ty of the law at Monrder of an aged Welch s, near Newport. The Roman Catholics, were ts upon the drop by the ersuasion, to whom, on admitted the justice of execution at Monmouth also an Irishman, and a the murder of his sweet-about two years since.
andy is now imported

LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

ion, amongst the persons Liverpool to Kingstown" own, my name appears.
s not on board her, nor ool or Kingstown" these lient servant,

WILLIAM BURGESS.

At Three Rivers, Edward, eldest son of Lieut.-Col. Wilgress, of Lachine, to Elizabeth, daughter of Isaac Gouveigneur Ogden, Esq. Sheriff of the district, late Captain of the 56th Regt.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at the Lock-quay, Thomas Kidd, Esq. at an advanced age, formerly an extensive soap and candle manufacturer, and, in every relation of life, a strictly honest, moral man.

In Clare-street, on Monday, Catherine, the beloved wife of Mr. James W. Hickey, leaving six children to mourn her loss.
She was a fond wife and an excellent mother. She died rejoicing in the prospect of glory, trusting implicitly in the atoning blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

On Sunday last, at his residence, Thomas-street, aged 88 years, the Rev. Daniel O'Sullivan, for many years Parish Priest of Glin and Loughil.

George Daunt Hungerford, Esq. aged 19 years.

Frances, daughter of Thomas Hayes, Esq. Crosshaven House.

At Prospect Hill, Yeughal, Mary Harriett, wife of S. Kildahl, Esq.

Beauchamp B. Newton, Esq. of Rathwade, High Sheriff of Carlow.

At Newcastle, co. Limerick, the wife of Mr. James Magee, Agricultural Instructor on the Devon property.

At Kilcullen, the residence of his brother, James Lynch, Esq.

At Ballinagh, of consumption, John J. Brady, Esq.

At Brookside Cottage, Olontarf, Hugh Chambers, Esq.

At his residence, Mountpleasant-square, Andrew Nugent, Esq. late Collector of Customs for Skibbereen.

At his father's house, Dancan-street, Cork, Mr. John Joseph Buckley, at the early age of nineteen.

At Westport, the Rev. John Morris, P.P. of Ballinrobe.

At Ryefield, Castlecomer, Thomas Reecks, Esq. Solicitor.

At Monkstown House, of fever, Emily, second daughter of B.
S. Kirwan, Esq.

William Graham, Esq. of Lisburn.

Maria Jane Garnett Heskins, daughter of John Hoskyns, Esq. M.D. of Morehampton-terrace, near Donnybrook.

Mr. James Scott Walker, formerly of the Liverpool Mercury.

At Tunbridge Wells, George Richard Robinson, Esq. M.P.
for Poole, and late Chairman of Lloyd's.

At Brompton, Johanna Catherina, the wife of Capt. George Richardson.

Jane, daughter of Thomas Brown, Esq. of Liverpool.

At Bathampton, aged 84, George Edward Allen, Esq. many years a deputy lieutenant of the county of Somerset.

In Liverpool, Thomas Dodd, aged 80, author of the "Connoisseurs' Repertory."

Sir Charles Blois, Bart. of Cockfield Hall, Suffolk, aged 80.

In London, Sir Charles Vincent Loraine, Bart.

At Stowe, near Coventry, the Rev. John Brown, M.A. Senior Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge.

At Nunlands, Berwickshire, Amelia, daughter of the Hon.
Robert Dalzell.

Miss Hughes, of Cheltenham, aged 81.

The Hon. Catherine Perceval, daughter of the late Lord Arden, in her 63d year.

At Eden, Aberdeenshire, near Banff, Douglas Ainslie, Esq. of Cairnbank, Berwickshire, in his 80th year.

John William Gray, Esq. of Cold-harbour House, near Tonbridge, Kent.

At Frome, the Rev. Daniel Trotman, formerly of Tewkesbury, aged 77.

At Paris, Major Henry Robert Thurlow.

At New Orleans, Mr. John Hartigan, a native of Limerick.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Charlotte, wife of John Renshaw, Esq. of Highbury Park.

At Charleston, South Carolina, John, son of the late Richard Halahan, Esq. M.D. B.N. of Passage West.

At Jamaica, William Morphy, Esq. second son of the late John Morphy, Esq. of Mount Prospect, Killarney.

At Windsor, New South Wales, Robert Johnston, Esq. son of the late Captain Johnston, of Eden-quay.

Suddenly, at Hong Kong, on board the Amazon, Assistant-Surgeon James Gallagher.

At Ceylon, while bathing, the Rev. Charles Greenwood.

Off Rio, at sea, on board H. M. S. Cormorant, of yellow fever, Montague Mark Bertie, of H. M. S. Southampton, son of the Hon. and Rev. Frederic Bertie, aged 19.

At Ceylon, Emily Fraser, wife of George Fraser, Esq.

First Class
Second Class
Third Class

On SUNDAY, 8th will take place from same fares and on sat

There will be a Spe

DUBLIN and Back,

First Class
Second Class
Third Class

(By order)

Limerick Station,

Cap

A U

Of Household Furnit
tresses, Glass, Chi Clock, Barometer,

M

HAS been honore

KENNEDY, P.L.

Auction, at his resic

MONDAY, the 2d S

Household Furniture

vation, and consists

Tables, set of Dining

Sofa, Ottoman, Easy

Tables, 12 Drawing

sels and Kidderminst

ders, Fire Irons, Has

Prints, Chimney Orn

Sideboards, Plate Bu

Parlour Chairs, Dar

and Ornaments, 6 S

Tables, Morning and

Divine Service, Des

Glass, Decanters, Tu

Carafes, Sugar Bowl

and Glasses, Dessert Toast Rack, Card an Branches, handsome 8 Day Clock (a first-parencies, Stair Carp German, and Iron and Palliasses, P best Curled Hair M
terpanes, Dressing
Glasses, Commode,
Wing Wardrobes, C
Secretary, Pier Glas
Sofa do., Bed-room
Tables, Drainers, I
Dish Covers, Culina

7, Thomas and 32