TO THE EDITOR
Of the Limerick Chronicle.
 SIR,
 IT has been before stated that I have discovered the true Area of the Circle, and I now wish to promulgate, that it is to the Square of the Diameter as 11
 to 14.
 Any further information required I shall be happy to afford, on application to me in Limerick.
 I am, Sir,
 Your obedient servant,
 G. R. FITZ-GERALD.

Hartigan's Horse Repository,
 NOTICE.
 HARTIGAN begs most respectfully to inform Noblemen, Gentlemen, and the Public in general,
 that he will attend the forthcoming BALLINASLOE HORSE FAIR, for the sole purpose of buying and selling on Commission only.
 Therefore, any person having Horses, and intending them for sale at this Fair, will find it their interest to give HARTIGAN the conveyance of sale. From his connexion with the principal dealers in the three kingdoms, he confidently asserts, that he will be able to realize a much larger price than can be obtained by any other person as Salesman in the same line.
 Gentlemen in want of Hunters, Chargers, or Carriage Horses, and purpose being supplied from the above Fair, can have his services for procuring same.
 In consequence of HARTIGAN having to attend this Fair, the next Great Monthly Sale of Horses at his Repository, will not come off until SATURDAY, the 12th of OCTOBER.
 The entry for this sale closes on the 8th October.
 MICHAEL HARTIGAN, Auctioneer.
 N. B.—No Horse shall be offered for sale that is not specified in Catalogue.
