In consequence of the encrease of pauper applicants for admission to the workhouse, the guardians of this union will henceforward meet every Saturday for the exclusive discharge of that duty, it being highly essential that the chargeability should be alone placed against the electoral divisions to which they may belong. The relieving officer and city guardians ought to be on the alert to prevent imposition and protext the rate payers.
