

At Barbados, J. Hardy Tubby, Esq. Deputy Assistant Commissary General, to Eliza, widow of Joshua B. Nurse, Esq,

DEATHS.

On Sunday, in Cecil-street, William Raynes, Esq. son of Colonel Raynes, of the Royal Artillery.—A young gentleman sincerely lamented.

On the 7th inst. at Bird-hill House, Anne, relict of the late Robert Going, Esq. aged 75 years,

On Monday morning, at Lahinch, after a short illness, of inflammation in the intestines, the Rev. Mortimer Murrane, P.P. of Castlemahon and Mahoonah, in this County, and formerly Curate of St. Michael's, in this City. The public charities of Limerick were for several years indebted to his eloquent advocacy of their claims from the pulpit, and the acknowledged celebrity of the preacher was not less conspicuous on those occasions than his willingness to devote himself upon every call to the promotion of universal benevolence and genuine religion. The Rev. gentleman was called in the strength of manhood and the vigour of his age, from the flock whose faithful shepherd he has been for three years. His remains were interred this day at Meelick Church.

At Burton Hill, county Clare, on Saturday last, Prudence, wife of Edward Hodges Goggin, Esq. to the poignant grief of her fondly attached husband and bereaved children, to whom she is an irreparable loss, and by whom her many virtues will long be remembered with religious affection.

At his house in Bedford-row, yesterday morning, after a short illness, Mr. Thomas Seymour, Cabinet-maker and Upholsterer, to the profound grief of his wife and children.

On Sunday, at the Convent, Peter's Cell, Mary Aloysius Pearson, of the Sisterhood of Mercy.

On Sunday last, at his residence in Henry-street, Mr. Wm. O'Farrell, formerly an extensive architect and builder in this City.

On Tuesday, 2d inst. Mrs. Walter Dennehy, of Fermoy, sister to the late Doctor Carroll, of this City.

Mr. Nicholas Smyth, Sword Bearer to the Corporation of Limerick.

In Mary-street, Mrs. Anne Sweeny.

At the Rectory, Middleton, Charlotte Deborah, daughter of the Rev. Francis Jones.

At Bandon, Mr. William Baldwin.

On Saturday last, at the mansion of the noble earl, Quivy-lodge, near Belturbet, the Countess of Lanesborough.

On the 4th of October, at his residence, Harlech, Roebuck, William Lewis, Esq. an extensive land agent,

At Kilcreene House, Kilkenny, the residence of her son-in-law, Edmond Smithwick, Esq. Bridget, relict of the late Michael Williams, Esq. of Clonmel, and daughter of John Fanning, Esq. Waterford.

At Shankhill, near Bray, at the residence of his brother, Stephen Murphy, Esq. M.D., the Rev. Joseph Murphy, O.S.F.

At his residence, Sarah-place, Island-bridge, James M'Corrick, Esq. aged 74 years.

At Sandwith-place, Mr. John Reilly.

At Phibsborough, Mr. Thomas Clarkson, of Maynooth.

At Mount Batten, Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Captain H. Sullivan.

At Michael's-grove, Brompton, Elizabeth, wife of Eneas MacDonnell, Esq.

At Sidecup, aged 78, Thomas H. Plasket, Esq. of Sidecup-place, Footscray, Kent, late chief clerk of the Secretary of State's office for the Home Department.

Mr. Robert Grubb, of Dalston.

At Woodcote, John, eldest son of Mr. and Lady Louisa Cotes.

At Wincheap, Canterbury, Stephen Pym, Esq. formerly of Eastchurch, Isle of Sheppey, in his 79th year.

At Ashby St. Ledgers, Northamptonshire, Lady Senhouse, aged 80.

At Chevet Park, Wakefield, Sir William Pilkington, Bart. in his 75th year.
