DEATHS.

In Henry-street, on Monday, 4th inst. at an advanced age, Anne, relict of the late Richard Alexander O. Lee, Esq. 12th Lancers, and sister to the late Richard Power, Esq. of Monroe, county Tipperary. She departed this life after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian resignation, trusting thro' the merits of her Saviour to sleep in the bosom of her Lord.

Yesterday, at the residence of her son-in-law, George W. Evans, Esq. Richmond Terrace, Mary, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Dawson, of this City.—A lady of genuine benevolence, and amiable in the relations of domestic life.

At his residence, Harriestown, Queen's County, M. H. Drought, Esq. universally regretted.

At Bandon, William E. Beasley.

At Nile-street, Cork, in her 86th year, Mrs. Noonan.

At Derry, county Kerry, John B. Kitson, Esq.

At his residence, Rock-hill, Thomas Shadwell, Esq. eldest son of the late Thomas Shadwell, Esq. M.D. of Loughrea.

At Durrow, Queen's County, Elizabeth, wife of William Delany, Esq.

On Sunday last, in Tralee, at an advanced age, Mr. James Boyce, Agricultural Steward.

John French, only child of Francis L. Eager, Esq. of Tuam.

At Prospect Hill, Galway, Kate, wife of Mr. Edward Browne. Of scarletina, George and Emily, the children of S. Rose, Esq. Excise Officer, Tuam.

At his residence, Mannin House, Joseph Beytagh, Esq.

Miss Catherine Blake.

At Wexford, Susan, wife of Mr. James Jones.

Mrs. Dee, daughter of the late Mr. Michael O'Brien, of Waterford.

At Burren Mills, Carlow, Mr. Robert Browne.

At Carlow, of water on the brain, St. Leger La Touche, son of Percival Stuart, Esq.

At Crofton Terrace, Kingstown, Mary Louisa, eldest child of John Stanley Howard, Esq. 44th Regiment.

In Dublin, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Mr. O'Connor, of the Dublin Packet.

At Bodeen House, Howth, Catherine, relict of the late James M'Kenny, Esq. aged 70 years.

At Castledawson, Samuel David Crawford, Esq.

At Bray, John Walter M'Laine, of Harold's-cross.

At his residence, Henry-street, Mr. Robert Strahan.

At Lower Baggot-street, the residence of her son-in-law, the Rev. John Finlayson, Bannet, relict of the late Duncan Fraser, Esq. Argyll-street, London.

Mr. Patrick Balfe, formerly of Brusselstown, county Meath, and late of Dundalk.

At Tolentina, in the Convent of St. Nicholas, the Most Rev. Philip Angelucci, General of the Order of Saint Augustine.

At Forham St. Martin, the Rev. John Cartwright, in his 82d year.

At Stangate-street, London, Mr. Arnold Augustus Weis-becker, son of Mr. Augustus Weisbecker, musical professor. This young gentleman, if spared by Divine Providence to his disconsolate parents, would be an ornament to the musical world, which had already recognised in him proofs of undoubted talent. While on a visit with a friend in London, and after having accepted advantageous invitations to commence a professional career elsewhere, he was accidentally met by some of the great stars there, who with the liberality which is characteristic of true genius, induced him to stay in London, produced pupils for him, and patronised his early compositions, which elicited the admiration of the best judges in the metropolis. It has pleased God, at the early age of 18, to snatch him from these brilliant prospects.

On the 1st inst. in Surrey-square, Mr. Henry Bevington.

At Liverpool, Lieut.-Colonel Joseph T. Pidgeon, late 71st Light Infantry.

At Houghton, Devon, Mary, widow of Captain Conry, 49th Regiment.

At Richmond-hill, Surrey, William Price, Esq. of Craven-st., Strand.

Mr. W. H. Farley, of the Golden Lion Inn, Plymouth.

In Edinburgh, Mr. Galbraith, mathematician.

At Stonehouse, Miss Margaret Luscombe, daughter of the late Matthew Luscombe, Esq.

On the voyage to New York, Cornelius Keogh, Esq. eldest son of Colonel Keogh, of Geevah, county Sligo.

Daniel P. Macnamara, Clerk in Charge of the Ceylon, depot ship, at Malta.

At St. Petersburg, Sir James Wylie, son of the first baronet of the name, for many years first physician to the Emperor of Russia.
