On Tuesday, John Cox, Esq. coroner, held an inquest at the police barrack, of Knockaderry, on the remains of Constable O'Hara, of that station, who retired to bed on the previous night in apparent good health. He had been on duty in Limerick the week of the election. When going to bed he took up some coals on a pan for the purpose of heating the room, there being no fire-place. Verdict—death by suffocation. On Thursday last, Mr. Cox, held an inquest on the body of William Dunforth, who was killed by a fall from his horse on his return from the market at Newcastle to his residence at Meenoline—Verdict according.
