the Rev. J. D. Meenan, F.R.S. acknowledges with many thanks £5 from Viscount Southwell, through P. O'Reilly, Esq., and 10s each from Reuben Harvey Tethunter and Stephen O'Donnell, Esqrs. towards the roofing of the chapel of Kilfenny.

The Sisters of Charity, Cork, have received from the executor of the late James Daly, Esq. £100, be-quathed by him for St. Mary Magdalen's Asylum; also £100 for charitable purposes in the city of Cork, and £100 for the community of the Sisters of Charity.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul Conference of St. Michael gratefully acknowledge £1 from Anonymous, per Mr. Casey, and 5s. from a Friend, per John Ellard, Esq.

Bridget M'Inerney, of old Clars-st. was killed on Saturday night in a quarrel with another female named Margaret M'Carthy, who struck her on the head with a tongue. At the inquest before Dr. Earright, coroner, on Monday, the verdict was that she died of erysipelas, the result of the injury. M'Carthy has absconded.

A married woman, named Anne Osborne, of John's square, was found drowned in the canal on Monday, by Constable Nash, City Police.

Judy Kennedy, of Clarina, wife to a carpenter in the employ of the Rev. Richard Dickson, Vermont, on Saturday, accidentally pushed against a loaded gun which her husband had laid out of his hand, when the charge exploded and shattered the poor woman's leg so badly, that amputation was found necessary, and which Dr. Wilkinson performed at the County Infirmary on Monday morning. The sufferer being in the advanced stage of pregnancy, it is feared she will not survive the effects of the injury.

Monday night, after the establishment had been closed, the shop of Mr. D. Cullen, William-street, was secretly entered by one of the windows from the rear, and a large sum of money, with a valuable gold watch, &c., taken out of the office desk, which was forced open. Sub Constable Doyle having searched the premises, discovered Michael Hickey, servant to Mr.
Cullen, concealed on one of the lobbies, and who subsequently confessed his guilt! The prisoner was yesterday committed for trial.

The widow of the late Capt. W. Raymond to her tenantry, in the neighbourhood of Ballybunnion, has not only allowed all the poor rates for the last year, but is forgiving, in some instances, four gales rent due.

Mr. George Corrigan, miller, was drowned on Tuesday at Markethill, Armagh.

The Secretaryship to the Grand Jury of Sligo is vacant by the death of Robert Christian, Esq.

Third class carriages are to be put on the Cork, and Passage Railway.

At the half-yearly meeting of the Mining Company of Ireland on Thursday, only £300 was available for dividend, and of course none was made.

From the 1st of February all the pathways in Cork are to be swept by contract.
