

and in great want of cloth-their shivering limbs, and avail of the education hers in consequence. The his wonted charity, clothed dren during the last week, eir limited means, clothed past year. They would clothing, remnants of cord, able object.

of Cork, assisted at the high-mass for the late Rt. chapel, and the encomium was eloquently pronounced y, P. P. Shiarone.

church, Cork, Cloyne, and bishops, an extent of episco-Bishop in the Protestant ens, curate of Clogher, left d Dumb Institution, Dublin.

ate meeting of the Catholics ened by B. O. Cogan, Esq.

at the court house, but adthe object of the meeting was man and the English bishops eir hierarchy, and to express tholics of Sligo at the letter Dr. Browne, R C Bishop of resolution and address, which, ously.

meetings are to be held on St.
Ireland, for the purpose of an Catholic University fund.

Queenstown, received this st of the late Mr. J. Kinnears.

rs. Wiseman, mother of the r name was Xaviera Strange, r Strange, Esq. of Aylwarsa county Kilkenny. By an m," taken at the "Black st or or-2d of Charles, it Strange died in January, r at Dunkitt and other pos-nd daughters, Richard, Peter, and Margaret. This Edward cestor of Mrs. Wiseman and ew, of Barmeath. The branch y, settled in Spain, was long d mercantile houses of Lon-L. Strange, of Cadiz, was not than the eminent house of eville.

of William F. Nagle, Esq., n, received the black veil at , Cork, on Thursday last. cent de Paul, conference of s. from Mr. Thos. Wright, of the Bishop of Tuam, to the Rectory of Dromard, Killala, vacant by the death of the Rev. Mr. Potter.

On Friday, W. N. Barron, Esq., Assistant Barrister, visited the Male and Female Church Education schools of Birr, where he examined the children, and reported favourably of their progress.

Archdeacon Maunsell acknowledges to have received from a benevolent Clergyman of Trinity College, Dublin, £20, his annual bounty to the poor of Limerick. He also acknowledges to have received £5 from the Rev. Joseph Gabbett, half-year's bequest of the late Daniel Gabbett, Esq. to the poor of St.
Michael's parish.

The Rev. Godfrey Massey acknowledges £1 from Mrs. Henville, for the Protestant Orphans; and £1 from Anonymous for Adelaide school.

R. B. Corneille thankfully acknowledges from Henry Maunsell, Esq. the sum of Ten Pounds, being his additional subscription, towards re-building St. John's Church; from James M'Mahon, Esq. George-street, £3, and Rev. John Jebb, £1, for same purpose.

Mr. Maxwell, the Irish Novelist, author of "Wild sports of the West" and "Story of my life" died a few days ago near Edinburgh, in retirement; he was formerly in the army of the Peninsula, and after the peace took orders and held the Rectory of Balla, diocese of Tuam. He was a man of great versatility, talent, infinite wit and lively humour.

The Limerick Steeple ~~was~~ meeting opens the day before the meeting of Parliament. The articles appear in our advertising columns.

Grisi's operatic engagement in Ireland commences in Dublin the 10th February.

The Black Friar transport, arrived at Kingstown has taken 200 female convicts on board for Van Dieman's land.

Joseph Ewart, mate of a collier, and Ellen Madden, a girl of light fame, were drowned at Belfast on on Tuesday night.

The screw steamer Nautilus, laden with flour, from Dunkirk for Liverpool, was totally lost off the Skerries on the 14th. She took the course between the Skerries and main, and grounded on the sunken rock, the Platters. The second mate with eight of the crew, took to the long boat, but she was capsized, and all were lost. The commander and others succeeded in reaching the Skerries.

The income of the National Assurance Company last half year was £18,566, being a profit of £6,252, of which £5,000; will go to Mr. Hutton, for his recent loss by fire.

A young man named James Galligan was accidentally killed at Loughgur on Monday, while taking a gun out of a boat in the lake for Lord Guilamore, and the contents of which entered his abdomen.

James Joseph Fynn, Esq., is appointed Consul for the Queen of Spain at the port of Galway.

The Board of Ordnance into the Military barracks

Colours Sergeants

Marines, received six each, at Chatham this

The "New York L

military brigades of ments to visit Liver next. They contemp

One of Collins' magn to England and back

Acting Constable J

by the Inspector Gen

Sub Constables M

keale, have arreste

Carroll with a quant

ing in their possessio

Prisoners are now

Cork by the Great S

so low a rate as one-

The entire of the p

Harvey, Mardye, O

wall in Grenville Pl

The neighbourhood of robbers, who have

They visited the Pos ter-a parcel containi stamps, for the reco offered a reward.

Church Education so

desks, but the school

Christmas they got l visited Mrs. Brereto tity of tea, sugar, an

In the Cork annu

members, holding fo year. The capital o

tember, 1850, to £55

Monday morning

the town of Cross greatest confusion b

Deel to an alarming

which fell among th water rose at the to winter floods, inund and flowing over the Wednesday last a

off Pope's-quay, Co