

gratuity of £15
 ne of the 'crack'
 making arrange-
 nd Paris in June 00 rank and file.
 s to convey them
 ce, is promoted
 k of Constable.
 Waters, of Rath
 ley and Michael workhouse cloth-
 ain in the county
 ernal Railway at le!
 the house of Mr.
 buried behind a
 natable Crowley.
 nfeated by a gang
 ny depredations.
 from the coun-
 worth of postage
 e Postmaster has broke into the d forced open the en opened since same night. they carried off a quan-
 poultry yard.
 ociety only nine
 died in the past
 mounted in Sep-several houses in a state of the
 ing of the river
 torrents of rain mountains. The er than the usual
 w situated houses,
 veral shops.
 Hill Grove-lane,
 down by a wall
 ntaneous death
 ase. The unfortugingleman of the rvant maid.
 , a governess in a
 eloped with a herd
 e was living. It is family, possessed of

ing Institut on, Warrington, to Ellen Eliza, daughter of the late William Collard, Esq. of the Bank of England.
 At St. Jo n's, New Brunswick, W. MacLaughlan, Esq. barrister-at-la, to Sarah Catherine Elizabeth, daughter of the late Captain T. W. French, barrackmaster.
 At Melbörne, Australia, on the 16th September, Joseph Hall, Esq. to Ellen, eldest daughter of Burton Bindon, Esq.
 late of Clodney and Curranrue, county Clare.
 At Guernsey, Herbert Taylor M'Crea, Esq. 94th Regt. son of the late Major Robert M'Crea, to Elizabeth Dabree, only daughter of the late John Carey, Esq. of Castle Carey.

DEATHS.

At Stephen's-green, Dublin, William Hobbs, of the city of Waterford, Esq.
 At Mountpleasant-square, Marcella Georgina, daughter of John W. Bradshaw, Solicitor, and grand-daughter of the late Edward Eagle, of Holles-street, Staff Surgeon.
 In Nelson-street, Florinda Mary, eldest daughter of the late Rev. George Lambart, of Globe Hill, Ardee.
 At Harbour Row, Queenstown, Capt. Thomas O. J. Fox.
 At Hill View Cottage, St. Luke's Place, Annie, daughter of the late Alexander Moore, of Cork, aged 21 years.
 At Ballynakeigh, in the 98th year of his age, Mr. John Hennessy.
 In Liverpool, Ann, second daughter of Mr. John Hurst, traveller, late of Limerick.
 At Ballinrobe, Sarah, wife of Mr. William Gallaher, O.B.
 At her residence in Cathedral-square, Waterford, in her 84th year, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. John Parker.
 Jane, wife of Mr. Robert Morrow, Rockville, Ballyjamesduff.
 At Fennisagg Glebe, county Kilkenny, Miss Routh Blount, aged 84.
 At Kilbricken, county Kilkenny, Christopher, son of Edward Hunt, Esq.
 At Donaghmore, county Tyrone, of locked-jaw, Surgeon
 Daniel M' Mullen.
 In Dungarvan, Catherine, wife of Color-Serjeant F. Molony, 55th Regiment.
 In his 22d year, Robert Massie, son of Lieut.-Col. Hort, late 81st Regt. and formerly Deputy Adjutant-General in the Windward and Leeward Command.
 At Stepney, Middlesex, Thomas Clark, Esq. Assistant-Commissary-General, in his 68th year.
 At Calehill, Kent, Edward Darrell, Esq. aged 76.
 Miss Cholmley, of Worthing House, Worthing, Sussex.
 At Rowley, near Stafford, the Rev. William Keen, in the 27th year of his age.
 At Brighton, Constantia, relict of Alexander Campbell,
 Major, Royal Artillery.
 At Deane Hall, Gloucestershire, J. Pyrke, Esq. a Deputy
 Lieutenant, aged 76.
 Mr. James Harfield, for the last twenty years connected with the literary department of the Morning Chronicle.
 At Hampstead, Robert Wray, Esq. one of the benchers of the Middle Temple, in his 73d year.
 At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Peter Burrowes, Esq. for many years
 Chief Clerk of the Insolvent Court, Ireland.
 At Madras, the Rev. John Legh, Fellow of King's College, Cambridge, son of William Legh, Esq. of Windsor.
 At Ballygran, county Limerick, on the 9th inst. after a long illness, the Rev. James O'Flanagan, aged 50 years. His remains were interred in the parish chapel of Ballygran, which he had built.
 At the Presentation Convent, George's-hill, Sister Mary Magdalen Lynch, aged 92 years, and 55 years a professed nun.
 At Temple-hill, Margaret, wife of Robert Gray, Esq. of Dublin.
 At Clare-street, Frances, the youngest daughter of the late Stephen Collins, Esq. in the 14th year of her age.
 At Colaba-place, Commercial-road, Captain N. Gibson.
 At Fenham-hall, Northumberland, Colonel Robert Bell, in his 74th year.

TO B
THE Perpetual Pres
 most eligibly situated a P...d's Stall in a
 There is most excell
 Land attached thereto.
 The Title Rent Charg
 paid by respectable L Incumbent is verging on
ALSO, T
 The Fee of the Estate
 Apply to GEORGE V
 place, Limerick.

To be Let, or t
 And immediat
THE WIND MILL
 few minutes walk of feet working order, and Apply to Mr. ROBER
 Limerick.

LIMERIC
THE Guardians of th
T WEDNESDAY, the 29th J
TIN-PLA
 at a salary of £12 per will be required to super ing of the Tins required instruct the Boys placed Applications, in the h
 to be lodged with me u
 named day.

Jan. 18.

NEWCAS
THE Guardians of T Wednesday next, t
 a Contractor for supply
 months with best Eg
 Wheat, at per— ton.
 der proposals for the er
 house premises, accordi
 to be seen with me.
 Tenders to be left, w
 Tuesday, the 21st inst.
 will have to enter into
 will be determined by t
 By ord

Jan. 18.