

of all Jesuits and Monks in the respective year under the Roman Catholic relief act, purpose of being laid before Parliament. Tuam Town Commissioners not approving MacHale's claim upon them for £140 for el, adjourned the consideration of it to a day. Rev. Dr. Cahill is to give a course of lectures philosophical for the Christian Brothers schools. Annis magistrates fined Pat Geraghty 5s. for aff the locks of a prostitute at the request of a the town. Rev. N. M'Evoy, P.P. of Kells, has received a of a horse, gig, and harness from his flock. eters of Mercy gratefully acknowledge 10s. Anonymous Friend.

atcappole, Mrs. Crowe, Mrs. Mahon, Mrs. d Mrs. Kean, give a grand ball at the new use Ennis, to-morrow evening, to which all the les in the county are invited. Lambert, of London, and Mrs. O'Halloran, en the Philosophical buildings in this city e factory. We suppose, now that the Cor- intend to surrender the Commercial Build- central establishment will be converted into rooms, as they are well adapted for public ments, soirees, &c linree, Carlow, William Hatchell, a servant v. W. King, was accidentally shot by the ex- f a gun, whilst firing at birds. y last the price of Irish butter advanced 3s. he price of first quality being now so high Cork.

ck Hunt meet on Friday at Stonehall; 11 at ridge; 14 Kilpeacon Cross; 18 Castle Town speculators will be ruined this month as ers of tobacco.

m Abraham, of this city, has published a ition of his most interesting and valuable titled "Green Crops—a guide to the young rom 30 years practical experience." Mr. in a spirit of pure philanthropy and patri- ust circulated 3000 copies gratis by post, d the surrounding counties. We shall take opportunity of selection from this excellent um, for the benefit of our agricultural friends. geoncy of the Donegal Infirmary will be n the 27th inst. by the Governors, to whom e Commissioners owe a considerable sum.

vey, Professor of Trinity College, is engaged at the Lurgan literary society. R ANDERSON—This celebrated and match ard," whose fame has been recorded thro' s the most accomplished Magician extant, s "Temple of curiosities" at the Theatre Monday evening, when a respectable au- roused his first performance in Limerick. nding and wonderful feats of necromancy or gone through by the accomplished Pro- almost incredible, and called forth the xpression of approbation and applause.— son made his second appearance last night, ouse was again filled by a delighted audi- the excellent brass band engaged by him, he orchestra, and performed several enliven- We are gratified to perceive that he will unrivalled entertainments for ten nights on the last evening will give a 20 guinea he best original conundrum invented for n.

informed that Mr. Joy, in his anxiety to very first dramatic and vocal talent known e, in the person of the admirable Grisi, en- be Limerick the , with Sims Reeves, and atic performers, has incurred an amount almost incredible, and which will oblige e the ordinary prices of admission to a efficient, we hope, to protect him, at least y a speculation, that would deter any other r the Provinces, and therefore we most ish him the success and patronage he so from an enlightened public. During the last of Grisi in St. Petersburg, independent ving a larger sum than ever before, even to ic artiste, the presents of jewellery made to Imperial court, and Nobility, were valued sum of 7,000 guineas.

At Highgate, the Rev. Edward Spencer Phelps, M.A.S. Britannia, to Mary Margaret, daughter of the late Daniel Mackinlay, Esq. of Buenos Ayres.

DEATHS.

On the 1st inst. after a short illness, Diana, the beloved wife of Thomas Gabbett, Esq. of Corbally House, Limerick, and daughter of the late Major Creagh, of Carrigerry, co. Clare. At his house, in Cecil-street, Dr. James Parker.

On Monday last, at the Union Workhouse, aged 57 years, sincerely and deservedly regretted, Naomi, the beloved wife of Mr. John Simpson, Manager of the Lunatic department of that establishment. Mrs. Simpson discharged the arduous duties of Matron to the Lunatic Asylum attached to the late House of Industry, North Strand, for 25 years, and also Matron to the Union Workhouse in a similar capacity since its opening—now ten years. During the entire period her humane and mild method of treating this afflicted class of persons, was such as to give general satisfaction to the governors, guardians, and physicians of both institutions, and to the relatives and friends of those whose lot it was to be placed under her care.

Yesterday morning, at his house, in Francis-street, after a protracted illness, to the deep regret of his family and friends, Mr. Michael Clanchy, for many years Staff Serjeant of the East India Company's Service, and Superintendent of their Recruiting in this garrison.

Yesterday, at Newtown, in this County, aged 90 years, Mr. John O'Brien, a respectable farmer.

At Dingle, Jane, wife of Robert Stack, Esq. late of Cork, and sister to Eugene Finnerty Hussey, Esq. M.D. late of the Madras establishment.

Yesterday, Caroline, wife of Edward Russell, of the Society of Friends, Cork.

Of apoplexy, James Cuffe, Esq. of Creagh, D.L. and J.P. for the county Mayo, and senior magistrate of the county Galway.

At Ballinasloe, of paralysis, Catherine, aged 66, wife of Major Freer.

At Abbeyleland, county Galway, Jane, only daughter of the Rev. David Seymour.

At Kilbarron, county Clare, the residence of her brother, Miss Ellen M'Grath.

In Carrick-on-Suir, Charles Fennessy, Esq.

In Kilrush, of scarletina, Ellen and James, children of Mr. James Quin.

The Rev. Mr. O'Grady, P.P. of Knock, county Mayo.

At Lakelands, the residence of her nephew, O'Donovan Becher, Esq., Miss Eliza Becher.

Catherine, wife of Myles Linnhan, Esq. Mount Nagle.

At Castle-street, Nenagh, Mrs. William Jones.

Suddenly, Mr. Nathaniel Weir, Solicitor, and clerk to the magistrates of Newry—a gentleman universally regretted by his townsmen.

At Herbert-street, Ellen, relict of the Rev. Matthew Moore, Tipperary.

At Rahobeth, South Circular-road, Andrew, son of the late Richard Milliken, Esq. of Grafton-street.

Of apoplexy, W. F. Richey, Esq. M.D. son of the late Wm. Richey, Esq. of Dublin.

At his residence, Cork-street, William Ord, Esq. aged 61.

In Ardee, aged 76 years, Nathaniel Milling, Esq.

Suddenly, at Strabane, Mr. Neal Doherty, innkeeper.

At Grange-bank, Morning-side, near Edinburgh, Alexander Russell, Esq. late manager of the Dungannon branch of the Provincial Bank of Ireland.

At Cambridge-square, London, Anna Maria, daughter of Lieut.-General Sir Augustus De Butts, Royal Engineers.

At the residence of the Earl of Warwick, in Carlton-gardens, Sarah Elizabeth Countess Brooke and Widdow, only daughter of the late and sister of the present Earl of Mexborough.

At Torquay, Frances Maria Louisa, daughter of Sir Wm. Horne, of Upper Harley-street.

At Beauchamp, near Gloucester, Captain the Hon. Henry Howard.

At Chelsea, Jane, wife of Captain W. H. Hadfield, 3d Light Dragoons.

At the residence of her brother-in-law, Wm. Marshall, Esq. Oswald-place, Leven, Amelia, daughter of the late Captain John Jackson, of the 4th Regiment of Foot.

At Blackheath Hill, Kent, Mrs. Anne Lawrie, widow of Peter Lawrie, Esq. of Ernespie, in the stewardry of Kircudbright, in the 90th year of her age.

Charlotte Emily, wife of the Rev. G. Domville Wheeler.

At Portman-square, Margaret, widow of the late John Raymond Barker, Esq. of Fairford Park, Gloucestershire.

At Bodmin, Cornwall, Captain A. Peter, Royal Artillery.

Suddenly, at Middleton Hall, Warwickshire, in the 69th year of his age, Sir Francis Lawley, Bart.

At New York, on his way to Cuba, James Prebel Wormeley Esq. only son of Rear Admiral Ralph Randolph Wormeley.

At Allipore, at the advanced age of 85, Mr. P. O'Hanlon, formerly a magistrate of Calcutta.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Field Marshal—Thomas Grosvenor, Col. 65 F.
General—Sir J Willoughby Gordon, Bart. G.C.B., G.C.H. Col. 23 F., Qua.-Ma.-Gen.
Lieut.-Colonel—Cruttenden, ret. full pay R Art.
Majors—Dalzell, ret. full pay 16 F; Raynes, ret. full pay R Art.; Sandford, E I Co. S.
Captains—Trelawney, Gr. Gds.; Lord Robert Tylour, 49 F; M'Carthy, ret. f p 2 Vet. Bn.; D M'Dougall, h p 21 F; Edwards, h p 65 F; T D Kelly, Unatt.; Cumberlege, do.; Baron Bischoffhausen, h p For. Corps of Waggons.
Lieutenants—Clemison, 21 F; Coventry, ret. full pay 4 Vet. Bn.; Blagg, h p 25 F; Saper, h p 55 F; Hockings, h p 92 F.
Sub-Lieutenants and Ensign—Sir Charles Blois, Bart. ret. f p Horse Gren. Gds.; Marq. of Hastings, 52 F.
Paymasters—Mackintosh, 6 F; P Grant, h p 55 F.
Adjutant—Capt. Howe, North Down Mil.
Assistant Commissary General—Walker.
Deputy Inspector General—Calvert, h p.
Physician—Hume, h p Staff.
Surgeons—Fishbourne, Staff; Squair, h p 8 Dr.
Assistant Surgeon—Poest, h p 5 Vet Bn.
Chaplains—Rev. T Collyer, late 25 Dr.; Rev. T. Carey, late Staff.
Veterinary Surgeon—Huer, h p 1 Dr. K G L.

form a Fund for the relief of aged and infirm Shareholders, and Members Assured for Life, Widows and Orphans.

TRUSTEES.
J Chambers, Esq. M D, J Moseley, Esq. B C
F A Knight, Esq. M A, Rev. Charles Owen,
R Marshall, Esq. M A, F C Skey, Esq. F R
DIRECTORS.
Charles P. Best, Esq. Richd. Marshall, Esq.
George R. Denison, Esq. James Murray, Esq.
Thomas Gilbert, Esq. Rev. Charles Owen,
Actuary and Managing Director.
George R. Denison, Esq.

THIS is essentially a MUTUAL Assurance Society. Four-Fifths of the entire Profits being annually divided amongst those members who have paid Annual Premiums, and as soon as the shares are off the whole surplus profits will be so applied. The Society grants Assurances, Annuities, Endowments of every kind, and for any sum from to £5,000; also Assurances against death by Rail accident; and Guarantee Assurances for the fidelity of persons in places of trust, and offers the following

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES TO ASSURERS:—
No charge for Stamp Duty on Policies.
Policies indisputable except in cases of actual fraud.
No Entrance Fee, nor appearance before the Board required.
Diseased and Declined lives assured at equitable and moderate rates.
Premiums may be paid quarterly if desired, or may remain unpaid by paying interest thereon.
Annual Premiums to assure £100 at death will pay profits.

ANNUAL PREMIUMS TO ASSURE £100 AT DEATH

Age.	With Profits.	Without Profits.	Age.	With Profits.	Without Profits.
15	1 10 10	1 7 10	45	3 12 3	3 5
20	1 15 0	1 11 6	50	4 7 8	3 19
25	2 0 1	1 16 1	55	5 9 11	4 19
30	2 6 2	2 1 7	60	6 19 0	6 5
35	2 13 0	2 7 0	65	8 17 6	7 19
40	3 1 2	2 15 2	70	11 10 6	10 7

OPERATIVES BRANCH—In this Department the Company grants Assurances for any sum as low as £10, and will receive premiums if desired, by monthly instalments. Assurances are also granted for any sum from to £2 2s. per week during sickness, together with Medical attendance and Medicine. Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and every information and assistance will be readily supplied on application to the Actuary, 32, Great Coram-street, Russell-square, or to the AGENT FOR LIMERICK,
JOHN BASSETT,
2, RUTLAND-STREET.
R. R. GELSTON, ESQ., M.D., GEORGE'S-SQUARE,
Medical Referee.

Rathkeale Union.
THE Guardians of Rathkeale Union will, on FRIDAY, the 14th of February, 1851, proceed to a meeting at point
A MAN COOK, to superintend the Kitchen and Cooking Apparatus at a salary of £6 a-year, with Rations and Apartments, and A Schoolmaster,
at a salary of £30 a-year, with Rations and Apartments.
The person who will be appointed to the office of Schoolmaster must understand the system of teaching as prescribed by the National Board of Education, and it will be required that he shall be recommended either by that Board or by one of the District Inspectors of National Schools.
Security will be required in two solvent persons to the sum of £50, for the due and faithful performance of the several duties.
Sealed proposals for the above offices will be received by me up to 10 o'clock on the above day, when candidates are requested to be in attendance.
By order of the Board,
MICHAEL FITZGIBBON,
Clerk of the Union.
Board room, Rathkeale workhouse, Feb. 5.