

...will be the last meeting ight to mention it will not reside, as other arrange-ty of my bestowing as much have done for the past year.
 are very onerous, and out guardians, I think it right take a turn at the duties.
 ome year of it, and all I sor may be more fortunate.
 ne me in placing me in this my sincere thanks, as also ll times received from you.
 f the board of guardians of een served with a writ, at acting as contractor.

arryman, was burned to n last night.
 t was found in a dyke at y.
 this week at 10d per lb—
 n Limerick 1s 9d per lb—

potatoes from Carriga holt is day with 3750 stone,

Exhibition. re and Port- eans.

HANE

the PORTABLE FURNITURE which he has made up for now to be seen for a few days on to London.
 which embrace many novel
 w SELLING CABINET,
 ture of a Drawing-room,
 ction,
 STREET.

March 26.

re Assurance any.

ERT, MANCHESTER,
 d 1824.
 Lion Stealing.
 re Assurance Office that with the insured annually.
 Policies. Losses by fire made good.
 e in the hands of the resumes on Annual Policies days after the same are oid, and of no effect.
 cies to be addressed to
 BERT SPRING,
 Secretary.

AGENT,
RIFFIN,
 -street,

A W S O N,
 -street. March 26.

Moore, Lisdarn, near Cavan.

DEATHS.

On Monday night, in Ennis, of scarletina, John Crowe, Esq. J.P. late Captain in the 93d Highlanders, leaving a disconsolate wife and nine children to deplore the loss of a most affectionate husband and parent. He was an excellent son, good landlord, a sincere friend, and his premature death is a source of deep affliction to his many friends.

This morning, at the house of her son, Mr. Joseph Bodkin Kennedy, William-st., after a protracted illness, and to the inexpressible grief of her family, Anne, widow of Joseph Kennedy, Esq. M.D. formerly of Shanagolden, in this County. A devoted wife and affectionate parent, and a kind friend, she lived a life of mingled virtue and usefulness, and died the death of the righteous. May she rest in peace.

On Saturday, at Roche's-street, very much regretted, Mrs. Ryan, relict of the late Pat Ryan, Esq. Provision Merchant, and daughter of the late J. Lynch, Esq. of Kilmore.

At his father's, in William-street, deeply lamented, John Wallis, Esq. Engineer—a talented young gentleman.

Yesterday, at Barrington's Hospital, Mr. John Farrelly, of the Constabulary at Corbally station—a young man of most excellent conduct and character, and much regretted by all who were acquainted with him.

At Wind-mill-street, Mrs. Mary Fitzmaurice, aged 108 years! In Ballingarry, on the 20th instant, Mr. Michael O'Donnell, late of the Excise—much regretted by his numerous friends.

At Calais, Mrs. Flin, widow of Captain Flin, R.N., and daughter of the late Christopher Meade, Esq. of this City.

At St. John's, Newfoundland, on the 23rd of January last, after being only three months married, Captain Chambers, of the Royal Newfoundland Company, son-in-law to Major Bindon, late of the same Regiment, (of this City.)

At Ashton Grove, county Cork, Thomas John Cleary, Esq.

At Killaloe, in advanced age, Mrs. Mackay.

The Rev. Thomas FitzGerald, P.P. of Abbeydorny, Kerry.

At the residence of H. Comerford, Esq. J.P. Galway, Henry, son of Francis Blake Foster, Esq.

At Kilrush workhouse, Martin Haren, formerly a respectable farmer.

Sunday evening, at his residence, Belmont, Cork, George John Hodder, Esq. solicitor.

At Clarence Terrace, Cork, William Allen Furlong, Esq.

At Cullinagh, John Samuel Jago, Esq. of Kilronan, Cork.

At his residence, Kilkerran House, county Cork, at a very advanced age, Michael Gallwey, Esq.

At Galway, Mr. Henry Flynn, clothes broker.

Miss Maria Peterson, for many years teacher in the most respectable families in Dublin.

At his country residence, Brighton Terrace, Monkstown, Doctor John Gaghan, of Upper Sackville-street.

At Killiney, Mary, wife of Mr. James Sheridan.

Elizabeth, wife of Mr. John Smyth, Drumcondra Terrace.

At his residence, Harrington-street, Anthony Bunting, Esq. aged 86.

At Upper Dominick-street, Miss Mary Brislan.

At Borris, William D. Hagarty, Esq. son of the late Capt. Hagarty, of Kilcoltrim House, county Carlow.

At Stewartstown, Tyrone, the Rev. M. O'Toole, B.O.C.

At Sligo, Banny, daughter of George Leech, Esq.

Mr. John Heatly, of Woodbank, Wicklow.

At Ballyhenry, near Portaferry, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. Thomas Leonard, and daughter of the late George Jennings, Esq. of Mount Jennings, county Mayo.

John Dunville, Esq. an eminent merchant of Belfast.

Captain W. Caldwell, of Derry.

At Crossmaglen, Louis Anderson, son of Gordon Holmes, Esq. Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.

At Richmond Lodge, John Dunville, Esq. one of the oldest and most respectable merchants of Belfast.

Mr. Sergeant Ludlow, Commissioner of Bankrupts for Bristol.

At Circus, Greenwich, Miss Catherine Goodson.

At Clarendon Villas, Notting-hill, Emma, relict of the late Rev. Samuel Greame Marsh, Vicar of Manuden, Essex.

Thomas Moss, Esq. of Leonard-place, Kensington.

On the 18th inst. at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Crichton, Crayford Rectory, Kent, Udney Charles Forster, infant son of the Rev. Udney J. T. Allen.

Deputy Medical Inspector Dr. James Allan, of Haslar Hospital.

In York, Mrs. Wilde, of the Theatre.

At Edinburgh, Captain Charles Hope Reid, R.N. of Grangehill, Ayrshire, aged 76.

In Mulgrave-street, on Friday, of fever, Mr. Edmond Molony, late of Dunkip, in this County—much regretted.

In Catherine-street, in advanced years, at the residence of his son, Mr. Richard Ginnane.

At Mallow, the widow of Edward Lysaght, Esq.

In Cork, Richard Thorpe, Esq.

In Waterford, Mrs. Richard Wilson.

At Fairbrook, Rathmines, Anna Eliza, wife of John A. Denis, Esq.

Chimney and Pier Glasses, I China Bowls, China dinner W gold), Plated Ware of high Musical Chimney Clock, Carved Piano Forte, Feather Beds, and valuable property, removed fro convenience of sale, at Bern
 No. 8, THOMAS-STREET, on W 2nd prox. and following day.

JOHN BERNAL will have the
 on the above days, an extensiv rare, and useful articles, most of w ged for view, prior to sale, and w follows:—

On Wednesday, April 2d—Draw and Dining-room Furniture and and Kidderminster Carpets, Crimso ries, Bronze Fenders, Fire Irons, la 50 x 40, neat small size do., long Crimson and Gold China, morning
 Chimney Ornaments, Door Mats, Pianoforte Stool, Carriage Clock,
 Clock, rich China Bowls, superb D
 Chain, 2 Diamond Rings, 2 Gentle Dressing Cases, Ivory-hafted dinne lery, handsome fitted case of do. Pa some Inlaid do. Plated Candlesticks Bread Basket, Branch Candlesticks

And on Thursday, April 3d—and German Bedsteads, rich da Hangings, Window Curtains, Feath
 Pillows, Hair Mattresses, Blankets and Servants' Bedsteads, Maho Dressing Tables, Basin Stands,
 Ware, and China, Dressing Glass
 Painted Presses, Basin Stand, Dress side and Stair Carpet, Rods, Tarpau Lamp, Sundry Delf, a large quan
 Utensils and Kitchen Furniture.

Sale each day at 12 o'clock.

JOHN BERNAL, Au
 23,

Mr. B. respectfully announces t these rooms care has been taken fo tion of ladies.

AMERICA

NOW IN PORT

For New York

"HOPEWELL"

660 Tons Burthen, Captain DIXON.

"WONDR"

600 Tons Burthen, Capt. HUNTER.

THE above ships are all First Cla

manders will afford every acco

Passengers during the voyage. Cabin on moderate terms, and found at the

A comfortable Second Cabin can be sum over the Steerage fare.

Berths can be engaged by those country by enclosing a deposit to the not less than 10s each. Provisions to each Passenger in accordance with ment.

For further information apply to

RYAN, BROTHERS &

American Consulate Office, Howley's

Or to their Agents, M'Namara
 Joseph Brennan, Kilrush.