

one, has been re-address, accom-vice.

appointed Francis
for the Consistorial of the late George appointed Curate of f Sodor and Man held ss, BA, of Trinity into the order of

g secretary, Protes
acknowledges the re
m the Rev. W. Tar-
er Rev. W. Maunselly acknowledges £2.
Summerville, and $1
tum for the Blind;
ant Orphan Society,
r.

On Wednesday last
at Fethard, co. Tippe-J. Breakey to the regation of that place.
co. Down, preached M'Cance explained
ation, after which the offered up the ordikey was set apart for laying on of the hands
C. M'Cullagh then mpressive charge to

ome has been restored
as consecrated Arch-Rev. Dr. Monaghan
at Trinidad.

the Papal aggression
rish Roman Catholic
for the Roman Catho-

ick R. C. association
Dawson in the chair,
l and religious liberty
Neill suggested an ag-Catholics of the United Industrial Exhibition.

appointed Postmaster
ed port collector at and Mr. Partridge is there.

undertaken the stu-
St. Lawrence near that,
,200 feet from bank to he Montreal bank, tried ent of £1200, was ac-other clerk implicated,

Robert T. Ellis, Esq. to Elizabeth Mary, daughter of James Hawkins, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Blackrock, Dublin, aged 77 years, Rose, daughter of the late John Ferrar, Esq. of this City.
At his father's house, in Thomond-gate, Joseph, the beloved son of Daniel Cullen, Esq.
At Bandon, Hannah, sister of the late Captain Creker, of Inishannon.
At William-street, Anne, eldest daughter of the late Mr.
W. Banton, of Amigan, in this County, aged 15 years.
At Kildare-street, Dublin, on Sunday, Peter, Count D'Alton, of Grennanstown House, county Tipperary, D.L. aged 75 years. Count D'Alton was a Count of the Holy Roman Empire, and had served with distinction in the Austrian service in the years 1792 and '93. His father was shot at Dunkirk in 1758, while in the command of the Austrian troops, and covering the retreat of the late Duke of York. Count D'Alton was married in December, 1795, to Rosalie, daughter of Nicholas, thirteenth Baron Trimblestown, who died in 1815. The Count has left two sons and one daughter. Edward, his eldest son, now inherits the title and estate of the family.
At Woodbank, county Wicklow, aged 76 years, Mr. John Emerson Heatly.
Of rapid decline, Daniel Acheson, son of the Rev. Daniel Flynn, Harcourt-street.
At his residence, Glenfarne Hall, Fermanagh, N. Loftus
Tottenham, Esq.
At Loughrea, Elizabeth, relict of the late and mother of the present Henry Cloren, Esq. M.D.
At Summerhill South, Cork, Mr. John Savage Duggan, aged 81 years.
In Westport, Mr. John Mulloy, merchant.
Hannah, relict of Thomas Harlow, of Youghal, Esq.
At Macroom, the wife of Michael O'Sullivan, Esq.
At Belfast, Doctor M'Burney.
At Lurgan, Joseph Miller, Esq. M.D.
Rev. J. Donaldson, Presbyterian Minister.
James Kelly, Esq. of Annahean, county Monaghan.
At Cardymore, near Greyabbey, Margaret, daughter of the Rev. H. Wilson, Vicar of Ballywalter.
At his residence, Corporation-street, Belfast, Dr. William Beaumont.
At Prospect House, Tanderagee, Mr. Francis Saunderson.
At Henry-place, Stockwell, London, Commissary-General Wood, to the deep regret of a large circle of friends and acquaintances. During the famine of '46 and '47, Commissary Wood was stationed in Galway, and from his humanity and kindness, endeared himself to all.
At Budeigh Salterton, Devon, Owen Lindsey, Esq. M.D.
Staff Surgeon, a native of Mayo.
At Dunlee, Anne, the wife of General Sir William Chalmers
C.B. K.C.H. of Glenlicht, Perthshire.
At Woolwich-common, Major-General John Boteler Parker, C.B. late of the Royal Artillery, and Lieutenant-Governor of the Royal Military Academy.
In London, Mrs. Quayle, sister of Sir J. Tobin, who died a fortnight ago.
At Upper Baker-street, Regent's Park, Marianne, the wife of Major Mulkern, and daughter of the late Major-General Sir William Toone, K.C.H. Bengal Army.
At Gwailodygarth, Glamorganshire, Mary, relict of the late George Overton, Esq. of Llanthelley-house, Breconsire.
In her 88th year, Mrs. Elizabeth Roy, of Bentinck-street, Manchester-square.
At the Tower of London, Caroline, wife of Captain Robert Ramsay, Assistant Military Auditor General, Calcutta.
At Upper Gloucester-place, Regent's Park, Frances, widow of the late W. Grenfell, Esq. aged 81.
At Camden-road, Mr. B. Leadbeater, the well known naturalist.
At Southampton, Mr. George Wansey, Chief Clerk of the County Courts of Hampshire.
In Dean-st., Southwark, Mr. Robert Pettigrew, of Woolwich, late of Westport.
On the Island of Scilly, on his passage from India, J. Anderton, Esq. M.D. Assistant Surgeon, 22nd Regt.
At Van Dieman's Land, the Rev. Nicholas Cogan.
At Surat, Edward Bloss Stirton, only son of Major E. P.
Lynch, R.L.S. Bombay Army.
At Bombay, James Pitcairn Knowles, 5th Bombay Native
Infantry, son of the late James Knowles, Esq.
At Chapel-street, Mr. Nicholas Beahan, aged 70.
At Plymouth, Dr. James Bryson.
Anne, wife of Edward Miller, Esq. late 33d Regt.

is in exceeding good order nearly as
IN THE DR
superb grand square Piano great sweetness, by Broad Mahogany case, 6½ Octave
Brussels Carpet, Cabinet, Marble Top Cabinet, large backed Easy Chairs, 6 Anti 6 Cane Chairs, Mahogany embroidered; Hearth Rug and Backgammon Box, in wood; Chimney Ornament
Birds, Old China.

As immediate possession coming Tenant, all must moved in one day.—Terms
JAMES M
96

March 29.

Notice to B
WANTED immediate BOAT, with every rying Building Stones on must be equal to a Burden in good working order.

Parties having such to in writing, every particu
where to be seen.
Address Mr. BEARD, P

County

To b
THE House, Offices, DOON, situate with Broadford, (a daily post miles of Limerick.

The Demesne contains of prime Grazing and Fi contains one Acre, enclose stocked with the choicest beautifully situate on the l

The House and Offices for the immediate receipt Application to Sir H Doonass House; or to George-street, Limerick.

To b

From the 25th March Ins
be ag
THE Dwelling House,
of PARTEEN. Th
for a large Family, comp
Bed Rooms, 2 Kitchens
Coach Houses, Stabling, Apartments overhead, all in Garden.

The Garden is large, co
with a Pond in the Centre
the Salmon Weir, within rick, and exempt from Bor
Apply to George Glost