in law, Capt. Arthur Lowe, to be Flag Captain.

The Revenue Police, under Lieut. Irwin, Borriso-leigh, with Mr. D'Alton, Inland Revenue Officer, Nenagh, proceeded to Castle Willington, where they discovered an unlicensed kiln, a hand mill, with utensils used in illicit practice; also a copper still and malts, which they seized.

A child found dead on the King's Island bank about a fortnight since, was removed to the dead house to the rere of Barrington's Hospital, where an inquest was held by Dr. Enright, the Coroner. Ever since the body remains unburied for want of a coffin.

Ellen Burns, a young woman, fell out of a window, 3 stories high, in the Irish town on Monday, and was severely injured. She was at once removed to Barrington's hospital, where another female was treated last week for an exactly similar accident from another part of the town.

A man of the name of Fitzpatrick was crushed to death at the Midland great western bridge, Lough Athlie, on Saturday.

John Cox, Esq. Coroner, held an inquest at Abbey-feale, on the body of a poor woman named Catherine Roache an idiot, who was found dead in a field at Dromtrasna O'Brien. The Jury returned a verdict that the deceased came by her death from starvation and exposure to the cold.

John Keays, Esq. connected with the Provincial Bank for the last five years, has been promoted to a situation in the Cork Branch.

A poor young man, name unknown, was found dead in an orchard field near Adare, on Monday, evidently the victim of starvation, from the testimony of Dr.
Worrall at the inquest.

At a meeting of the Committees of the Limerick Agricultural and Flax Society on Monday, Robert Maxwell, Esq., in the chair, it was resolved—"That Mr. Francis W. Russell be requested to present the memorial to the Lord Lieutenant in favour of the appropriation of the county Limerick reproductive fund of £4,355 to establish a Model Farm in this vicinity." A discussion arose as to the propriety of incorporating this Society with the Royal Flax Society of Ireland, and of securing one of the practical instructors from that society, by subscribing £10 to their funds, as prescribed by their rules. Several objected on the grounds of the expense, when Mr. F. W. Russell intimated that Messrs. John Norris Bussell & Sons would subscribe £10 for that purpose, and it was then
