DEATHS.

This morning, at her house, Mallow-street, in an advanced age, Mrs. Brady, relict of Henry Brady, Esq. of Raheen House, county Clare—deeply regretted.

At Pegshoro', to the deep regret of his amiable family and friends, George Bradshaw, Esq. Coroner of the co. Tipperary, formerly Captain 5th D. Guards.

On the 30th March, at Upper Hartstonge-street, after a short but painful illness, to the inexpressible grief of her family, Lois, the youngest and beloved daughter of Thomas Usher, Esq. R.N. aged 11½ years.

At his house, on the 30th ultimo, after a few days illness,
 Mr. John Cleland, Confectioner, Shannon-street, deeply regretted by his family and a large circle of acquaintances. His integrity as a man was conspicuous in every act of a well-spent life; while the sincerity of his friendship harmonized with a natural urbanity of manner, and kindness of feeling, rarely found in such happy communion.

Suddenly, in his carriage, to the deep affliction of his family, John Brown, Esq. Mountjoy-square, formerly Inspector of Stamps in Limerick.

At his residence, in Shannon-street, Margaret, wife of Mr.
 Patrick Fitzgerald, accountant.

 has left a large family to deplore her loss.

At Nenagh, the only child of Color Sergeant Robert Watts, Depot 6th Regt.

At Carlow, Alexander Harrison, Esq. County Surveyor, of typhus fever, caught in the discharge of his duties.

At Clonoulty, Tipperary, aged 106 years. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy mother of the Rev. Edward O'Shaughnessy, P.P. of Drangan.

Captain M. P. B. Grey, late of Glamore, county Longford.

Mrs. Margaret Geale, Abbey-street.

Suddenly, Mr. James Lennon, of Armagh.

At New Ross, Mr. George H. Irwin, Primitive Wesleyan Methodist Preacher.

At Castleblakeuey, Mr. John Woods, shopkeeper.

At Rathgar, Frances Mary Jane, eldest daughter of the late
 P. W. C. Lipyatte, Esq. 24th Regt.

 Esq. Inspector General of Taxes in Ireland.

At Temora, Booterstown, Richard Purdy, Esq.

Fanny, daughter of Mr. George Farrill, of Wentworthplace, Dublin.

Mary Caroline Richardo, daughter of Thomas W. Reeves, Esq. Solicitor, Upper Gloucester-street.

At the residence of her father, Upper Fitzwilliam-street, Margaret, wife of Mr. John Lloyd Blood.

James Shaw Beers, Esq. M.D. of Ballymoney, Antrim.

At Prince Thorpe Convent, Warwickshire, of fever, in her 17th year, Nora Mary, eldest daughter of John Primrose, Esq. of Hillgrove, county Kerry.

At Richmond, Surrey, Mrs. Elizabeth French, widow of the late George French, Esq. in her 91st year.

At Clifton, Robert Uniacke, Esq. of Woodhouse, county Waterford.

At his seat, Durdans, aged 77, Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart.
 of Normantown-park, Rutland, and of Durdans, Surrey.

At Greenlance, Pennicuick, N.B. Geraldine Rosalinda Ellen, daughter of Capt. Bristow.

Major Bennett, late 1st Royals.

At her apartments in Hampton-court Palace, Charlotte Thoroton, daughter of the late Thomas Thoroton, Esq. of Sereveton Hall, Nottinghamshire.

At the residence of her son-in-law, the Rev. Thos. England, North Lew Rectory, Devon, Jane, relict of the late Richard Mugeridge, Esq. of Kingston, Surrey.

At Southall, Major W. P. Neale, late of the 16th Lancers.

At Notting-hill-terrace, Catherine, relict of Capt. Sir George Mount Keith, Bart. Royal Navy.

In Grosvenor-square, Mary, widow of Col. Gore Langton, of Newton-park, Somerset.

Captain Dickens, formerly 90th Light Infantry.

TO THE FREEHOLDERS
 In the Baronies of Coonagh, Clanwilliam, Ownceybeg, and Pubblebrien.
 GENTLEMEN,
 THE Office of Coroner being now vacant in the above District, I beg leave to offer myself as a Candidate for that important trust.
 Habits of public business, and thorough knowledge of the country, and a personal acquaintance with the great majority of the Freeholders of the above Baro-nies, give me, I conceive, a just claim on your suffrages.
 Should I be the object of your choice, you may rely upon my devoting all my energies to the faithful, honest, and conscientious discharge of the various duties which that Office would impose upon me.
 I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
 Your obedient servant,
 THOMAS COSTELLO.
