DEATHS.

On the 7th inst. at Kilfrush, the seat of her grandson, Joseph Gubbins, Esq. 28th Regiment, in this County, at a very advanced age, Mrs. Gubbins, relict of George Stamer Gubbins, Esq. In all the relations in private life few exceeded this lamented lady, either as a dear relative or a kind friend. Her charities were only bounded by her means to relieve the poor. Her piety was sincere and fervent. Mrs. Gubbins did not long survive her beloved son, the late Joseph Gubbins, Esq. D.L.

On Sunday morning, after a short illness, at Albert Villa, near this City, in the 21st year of his age, to the inexpressible grief of his devotedly attached parents, William Frederick, second son of William Finch, Esq. of Kilcoleman, county Tipperary. His end was peace, and his sorrowing friends find their only consolation in the hope that he has entered on a blessed eternity, through the merits of that Saviour who endured the sharpness of death that He might open the kingdom of Heaven to all believers. His remains were interred yesterday in the family vault at Nenagh.

On Saturday, at his residence, Pegaboro', county Tipperary, after a long and protracted illness of some months suffering, borne with true Christian patience and resignation, in his 77th year, George Bennett Bradshaw, Esq. formerly Captain in the 5th Dragoon Guards, and High Constable and Coroner for the Clanwilliam Barony for upwards of 25 years. He died universally beloved, respected, and regretted, for his highly honourable, upright, generous, and unselfish character, intelligent mind, and kind, benevolent heart. His death is truly felt as a public loss, and his memory will be long revered in his native county.

At Kingstown, Cornelius, eldest son of the late John O'Keeffe, Esq. of Limesick.

On Saturday night last, of fever, the Rev. William Bourne, Rector of Rathcoormac.

Richard Purdy, Esq. founder and secretary of the Mining Company of Ireland, and one of the Dublin agents of the Royal Exchange Assurance Company.

To be Let,

The House and Demesne Lands of Slevoir.

SITUATE on the Banks of the River Shannon, in the county Tipperary, in a most healthful and pleasant situation for the residence of a Gentleman's Family.

The House consists of 6 Bed Rooms, 3 Dressing Rooms, a large Drawing Room, Parlour, and Study, and other convenient Apartments; Out Offices, and Stabling for 15 Horses, part of which was lately built; a large Turf House, Garden, and Orchard.

From 30 to 200 Irish Acres of Land, in a high state of cultivation, may be had with the House.

SLEVOIR is distant 4 miles from Portumna, on the opposite banks of the river Shannon; 4 from Borisokaue, and 2 from Carrigahorig, where there is a Post office. The landscape is beautiful. The Steam Packet Company's boats ply daily along the river, between Limerick and Dublin. The river abounds with fish and wild fowl. Those who are fond of yachting, hunting, or shooting, would find it a most desirable residence.

John Hough, steward at Slevoir, will show the House and Premises.
