

rt of last impression) :
Commissioner of Cus
ected visit to the Long n house, on a tour of t, this day, John Hare month, and to be
ocket at Higginson's,
ered against Michael
pp, Attyfin, of clothes,
Gleeson, Austin Quin-
Connors for robbing earing apparel; James arkhouse, and Michael
rs. Crilly's, Corbally.
ng in Clare-street, to n Carroll, picking Mrs.
& Cannock's establish-ate assault on a young

s. Ryan, who keeps a oy was dipping some e her door, when she nife, and cut him on passer was taken to
d the wound dressed,
The woman will be
on Monday.

slaughter against the near Brampton, for strong in mistake for fortunate clergyman is

n ejection tried at has obtained a con-

ay, Mr. Watts' Mar-
of 100 guineas, Lord
sweepstakes of 10l.
Phillippe the Selling
he 100 guinea plate
ford's Coranna the 2d
nson's Duchanduras,

PROMOTING
g the Jews.
be held DV on FRI-o'clock p.m., in the r Glentworth-street.
ar of Maghera, and
and Mr. N. Kron-
to the Society, will

April 30.

Tipperary.

SHALL

from the Proprietor residence) to Sell by uction.

of the Town of Tip-
rick and Waterford
2th of May, all the
ent.

ALL, Auctioneer,
rge-street.

daughter of Thomas Graham, Esq, Herts.

DEATHS.

At his residence, Eastwell, Galway, John Usher, Esq. J.P.
The Rev. John Hornibrook, son of Mr. Thomas Varian, Midleton.

At St. Augustine's, Brunswick-street, Cork, in his 36th year,
the Rev. James O'Driscoll.

In Moate, co. Westmeath, Thomas Browne Naghten, Esq.
At Union Hall, Cork, Sarah Maria, the wife of James Barry, Esq.

At the house of his brother-in-law, George Crawford Feath, Esq. Nile-street, David Nicholas Bates, Esq. R.N. aged 21 years, of her Majesty's late steam vessel Flamer.

At Loughrea, George Plampkin Macklin, Esq.
At Clonmel, Mrs. William Wright, Main-street.

At the residence of her mother, Blackhall-street, Dublin,
Margaret, youngest daughter of the late Robert Holmes, Esq.
Collector of Excise at Sligo, and niece of Major-General John Hare, C.B. deceased, late Governor of Grahamstown, Cape of Good Hope.

Rev. John Byrne, P.P. of Newbridge, county Wicklow.
At Galway, the wife of Mr. Bryan Clogherly, ship carpenter.

At Greenwood, near Mount Talbot, of fever, Wm. Madden, Esq. brother of the Very Rev. Mr. Madden, V.G. of the diocese of Elphin.

At his residence, Anketell Grove, county Monaghan, William Anketell, Esq.

At the residence of his aunt, Rathgar Avenue, Owen O'Callaghan, son of Owen O'Callaghan Tegart, Esq. of Rathmines.

At Upper Baggot-street, Mrs. Ross Dallon, relict of Mr.
Stephen Dallon.

At Northumberland-place, Kingstown, Mary Jane, child of James Curran, Esq.

In Upper Baggot-street, Benjamin Burge, Esq. aged 81.

At Richmond-hill, Rathmines, Wm. Matthias Glissan, Esq.
At Lower Rutland-street, Mr. Wm. Doonan.

At Ballymoney, aged 20 years, Anna Maria, daughter of James Boyle, Esq. Manager, Ulster Bank.

Miss O'Hanlon, of Barrack-street, Armagh.
At Dundalk, Alex. Graham, Esq. corn merchant.

At Errigle Glebe, Anghnacloy, Sophia, daughter of Rev.
Francis Hurst, aged 18.

At Pettigo, John Caldwell Given, Esq.
At Ballyrairie, near Letterkenny, John, son of Rev. Andrew Spratt, aged 18 years.

At Wilmington, Kent, Mary, relict of the Rev. Henry Trimmer, some time Rector of Chapel Izod, Ireland.

In London, on the 27th inst. Bridget, wife of Mr. Michael Wade, late of this City, after a lingering illness, which she bore with Christian resignation.

At Bath, Anna, wife of the Hon. Colonel J. Browne, of that city, in the 77th year of her age.

At Ashby Lodge, Northamptonshire, Susannah, relict of the late George Henry Arnold, Esq.

The Rev. Thomas Ashley, Rector of Great Shefford, Berks.
At the Rectory House, Bridport, in the 75th year of his age,
the Rev. Robert Broadley.

At Nottingham Park, Mr. Nathan Hurst, in his 72d year.
Thomas H. Hooper, Esq. of Marsham Cottage, Maidstone, aged 84, late Storekeeper of the Ordnance Department.

At Stoke Newington, Ann, widow of the late John Jacob, Esq. aged 85.

At Clifton, Bristol, Lady Thornbrough, relict of Sir Edward Thornbrough, R.G.C. Vice Admiral of England.

At Totnes, Mr. A. Pike, storekeeper at the Royal William Victualling yard.

At Grove House, Hornsea, near Hull, the Rev. John Jones, father of the Revs. T. B. and H. Jones, Wesleyan ministers.

In Stonehouse, Lieut. Ross Connor.

In Plymouth, Mr. John Pascoe, coal merchant.

At the Vicarage of Great Torrington, Ann Buckland, widow of the late Rev. Charles Buckland, of Axminster, aged 75.

At Headingley, near Leeds, aged 77, Thomas Tatham, a member of the Society of Friends, and of the firm of Titley, Tathams, and Walker, flax spinners.

At Peckham, Jessica Adelaide, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Baddeley, R.E. aged 13 years.

Aged 86, Joseph Moore, of the Crescent, Birmingham, the founder of the musical festivals in that town.

Mr. Thomas Haswell, Governor of the City Gaol, Chester.
Near Sydney, New South Wales, Henry Charles, son of Colonel Kussel, Royal Artillery.

At Demerara, Eliza, wife of William Bertie Wolseley, Esq.
Government Secretary of British Guiana.

At Barbadoes, Rebecca Charity, wife of Assistant Commissary General Swain.

At Southampton, Mrs. Holmes, sister of the late Rev. Chancellor Holmes, of Cashel.

Great Exhibition of the Industry of their productions will be interm
from other parts of the Empire, i while the French, Belgian, or Ge will, from their isolation, attract at cially, from the Public Press, Irish receive its due share of separate des

The backward state of the catalog crease the difficulty of discriminati
may, for some time after the openi
tion, be deprived of her fair share o

Acting on these considerations, t

THE DAILY EXPRESS
Have determined on presenting their
an Original and Elaborate Acc Contributions to the great cong written exclusively for

THE DAILY EXPRESS
by Gentlemen of Scientific Att
specially for the purpose.

The Proprietors of THE DAILY
that on an occasion of such vital industrial interests of Ireland, a Me paper, avowedly devoted to the adv
interests, ought to provide its reader possible intelligence, have made a which their Journal is placed in the able to publish this descriptive tabl ducts of Ireland's Industrial and Inve Contemporaneously with the London papers,

thus anticipating, by four-and-twenty dinary means of communication.

As it is expected that the mass of ceed the ordinary limits of THE DA
the Proprietors propose to publish, the morning after the opening of the
her Majesty, a Supplement, to be cal

The Express Exhibition Sup
which it will be their care to make complete as the state of the arran
Crystal Palace will permit.

This will be followed up by a serie criticism and comparison, written for determining the true position of Ire nations famed for the inventive and i

Exhibitors residing in Ireland are requested to send any necessary or de tion as to their productions, to the Editor of the Daily Exp

28, Parliament-street,
Dublin.

Exhibitors temporarily resident in requested to forward any such informa
to the Editor and marked "Exhib London Office of

THE DAILY EXPRESS
21, Catherine-street, Strand,

Advertisements for the EXPRESS EXHIBITION NI
or the succeeding Exhibition Number Subscriptions, to be sent to the Office,
28, Parliament-street, Dub

TO
MESSRS. GEORGE AND JOHN G
Proprietors.

All other communications to be ad
Editor.