

own improvement measure calculated to having but very ill we have not had erous cisuses, and we presentatives to use coming into a law ess the enactments that the City of ts operations."

the Borough Club, n having been made rwarded a copy of wing letter:—

19th March, '51. eemed favour of the ills which I infer —the Medical Cha- e one of this ses- nderstand the provi- pt that the board aw Commissioners all most gladly co- , rational, and in faithfully,

JOHN O'BRIEN." said that at that committee of the to its provisions, the sanitary con- at of public mar- agan's clause was Corporation, and

M'Mahon advoca-

and Mr. W. L. dment:— ure that may be s and cities in Ire- l economic in de- under the controul he lighting, clean- measure that may to that effect."

chier, Mr. Cullen, and several others the motion of Mr. , that resolution d a committee ap- rs of the Corpora-of proceeding to the United States, the Mayor and Magistrates, after a distinct acknowledgment of his useful public services, unanimously signed in court a testimonial to that effect, and of which Mason is well deserving, having on every occasion evinced the utmost zeal, alacrity, and discernment in the discharge of his duties in the Borough of Limerick.

Tuesday morning, Head Constable Kean and party, of Shanagolden, arrested John Maher, Catherine Moore, jun. and Catherine Moore, sen. charged with stealing clothes and potatoes, the property of Con-Nolan, of Shanid. The parties were committed for trial at Rathkeale quarter sessions.

The out offices of Thomas Prosser, Esq. South hill, near this city, were burglariously entered on Wednesday night, and robbed of poultry and clothes in wash. Constable Riedy has come upon the lair of the depredators, and found some of the property.

A shot was fired at Mr. Leopold Keane, of Cappoquin house, second son of Sir Richard Keane, as he was returning on Wednesday night from Major Alcock's, Richmond, with Mrs. Keane, where they had dined. Thanks to Providence the attempt proved abortive.

Dr. Murphy yesterday held an inquest at Thomondgate, on the body of Michael Quane, aged 11 years, who died, as supposed, from eating a portion of griddle cake, baked from deleterious foreign flour, purchased at the shop of a man named on George's-quay. It appeared soda had been mixed in the bread, but no evidence was adduced to show that the soda did not contain a poisonous substance, and the inquiry was adjourned 'till Monday.

Lord Huntingdon presided at the festive dinner to the Marquess of Waterford by his sporting friends, given at Dobbyn's hotel, in that city.

We understand that the Connaught Bar, having taken into consideration, a letter which was published in a Galway paper by Mr. E. Macdonnell, one of their body, reflecting on Mr. Charles J. O'Donel, another member, referring to a dispute between those gentlemen at the last Galway Assizes, adopted the following: Resolved unanimously—"That our attention being called to a letter addressed to the Galway Mercury newspaper, we consider Mr. Charles J. O'Donel has not forfeited, in any degree, the claims of a gentleman, or lost in any respect the high esteem of his brethren of the Connaught Bar." (Signed) GEORGE FRENCH, chairman.

Lord Drogheda's Westmeath won a sweepstake of £5 each, £25 added, at Whitfield races, Kilkenny, on Wednesday last. Lord Waterford's Hero won a sweepstake of £5 each, £20 added, and Lord James Butler's Freebooter the Welter race.

balance against the guard- ber of paupers admitted dur- charged 206; died 40; remain- average weekly cost of each pau- ters were read threatening law- very of debts due contractors, cations were made by others fo- A family of the Quane's, ten i Thomondgate, having this morn- dle bread, baked of deleterio- chased in a shop on Lockquay, ill; one child since died, and dangerous state.

Four young pickpockets, dete- this day sentenced to two month- to be well whipped.

Rob the Ranter, of this port- on the 26th April, and was m- 30th same month, in four days- is the shortest passage on record-

The American barque Elisha from this port with 190 passeng- York, last month, after a passa-

AMERI

FOR QUEEN

To sail on or about (Wind and Weather)

The Magnificent Coppered
American Packet

G L I D

WILLIAM HARRISON, Comm-Tons

This splendd Ship, having bee- her Owners for the Passenger tra- inspection, to be one of the finest- rick this season; both as regards- decks, thoroughly ventilated, Commander so well known in the- his kindness to his former passeng- the public from their deserved- will be an abundant supply of wh- pure water, and medicine laid on- the voyage, according to act of p-

Early application is necessary

T. F. MULCA

Ship and Commission Agent, 3, Limerick;

J. Kennelly & Co., Tralee; T. G.
Gallagher, Tarbert.