

...I expect, be easily the fair continues for a nday) is set off as the are allowed into a limipark for exhibition, rk in the evening, and ge lots on that day, the e regular sheep fair day, Fair Green, whilst Wed-Thursday and Friday for the fair closes with a s of stock, generally of old from the previous w day" that the Park
k whatever is admitted, ltogether held on the n uninlosed common, xtends itself, and the
of the surrounding point. The eligibility the chief points to working out of this uccess will depend on a qualifications. All the a greatly neglected in ion and convenience of oubt that the farming ly from the total negts to the attendance of and facilities of modern ry to the success of any lable at Limerick if only not likely they will be e, of the usual kind, on ir, will supply ample of the land, and, when a handsome surplus to e purpose that would ement of the objects necessary, there could e, in raising a sufficient ne to purchase the land,
other useful purposes,
n short, there appears nterfere with the sucesirable in the present
rests; and as its sug-with general approval mmercial communities stern and southern disquires to be carried out mmensurate with the ned, and the wide disardless of individual can the general and confer on all interests ccured.

DIIN LONG, C.E.

James Carroll, Esq. Sheriff of the county of Oxford, Canada.
James Wallace, Esq. Pay-Master-Serjeant 20th Regiment, to Eliza Scott, of Montreal.

At the Cathedral, Montreal, by the Rev. Gerald De Courcy O'Grady, Mr. William Flanigan to Miss Rose M'ullen.

At Kingston, Frederick, son of the late Sir John Henry Seale, Bart. of Mount Boon, Devonshire, to Harriet, daughter of James A. Harvey, Esq. Ordnance Storekeeper, Kingston.

DEATHS.

On Monday, at Ballina, near Killaloe, Michael Diegan, Esq.
an extensive landholder and skilful agriculturist, who provided for many years constant employment to the industrious farm labourers, and was esteemed for his upright and honorable conduct in all the transactions of life. In the social and family circle he was deservedly endeared to his friends and relatives.

At Rahon Glebe, King's County, Letitia, daughter of Rev.
John Vignoles Brabazon.

On Sunday, of rapid consumption, at the house of her brother, Heytesbury-street, Dublin, Maria, eldest daughter of the late Jeremiah Hall, Esq. of this City.

At his residence, Gardiner's-place, William Hanna, Esq.
Barrister-at-Law.

At Ballythomas, Cork, Robert Crofts Bullen, Esq.

At Coolafora, county Cork, Mr. Philip Walsh, father to the Rev. Thomas Walsh, of Cloyne.

In Ballinasloe, Mr. George D. W. Hyatt.

At Tullydonnell, aged 79, Mary, relict of Mr. F. Campbell, and mother of Rev. John Campbell, of Upper Greggan.

At Kilkenny, Mrs. Sarah Rowley, aged 78.

At Broadway, Wexford, Thomas Elwood Lindsey, Esq. M.D.

Mary, relict of Patrick Murphy, late of Wellington-quay, Dublin, aged 74 years.

James Brown, Esq. of Donacloney, Waringstown.

At Trenamadin, near Gortin, Mr. Wm. Ballantine, at the age of 86 years.

John Johnston, Esq. manager of the Monaghan branch of the Belfast bank.

At Ballyshannon, aged 99 years, Richard Tighe, Esq.

At Ccotehill, Michael M'Nally, Esq. formerly Surgeon in the Royal Navy.

Eliza, wife of Mr. Wm. M'Watters, bookseller, Armagh.

At Strabane, William, only son of the late Samuel Phillips, Esq. Surgeon R.N.

At Ballymore Eustace, aged 74, Mary, widow of the late Christopher Dromgoole, Esq.

At Port Glasgow, in the 73d year of his age, Mr. Duncan William Cummings, master gunner at Greencastle Fort, co.
Donegal, for 22 years.

Lt.-Col. the Hon. Ed. Cadogan, brother of Earl Cadogan.

George Dance, Esq. late of War-office.

At Elgin, the Rev. John Buchan.

In London, Major-General Sir W. Morrisson, K.C.B., M.P. for Kinross; Doctor Shelletto.

At Bristol, aged 77, Mary Baynes, of the Society of Friends.

At Reading, John Clancy, Esq.; the widow of Col. Glass, Artillery.

At Hurstperpoint, Sussex, Henry Francis, son of Henry Pitcher Boyce, Esq. and the late Lady Amelia Sophia Boyce.

Mary, wife of the Rev. Thomas Palmer Hutton, Incumbent of Lingfield, Surrey.

At Exeter, John White Abbott, Esq. of Fordlands, in the 87th year of his age.

Mrs. Eleanor Lovell, of the post-office, Hampstead.

At Neuaddfaur, Carmarthenshire, Elizabeth Jane Campbell,
the wife of William D. H. C. Davys, Esq.

Georgina Craven Louisa, daughter of Lieut-Colonel J. F. S.
Clarke, late of the Royal Scots Greys.

At Paris, David Turnbull, Esq. of her Majesty's Mixed Commission, Jamaica.

At Halifax, N.S., Dr. Hoffman, Surgeon-General to the Nova Scotia Militia.

At New Orleans, Capt. Wm. Joyce.

At Woodstock, Canada, Mr. James Egan, for several years a Sergeant in the Royal Sappers and Miners.

In Montreal, Mrs. Eliza Lingard, a native of the county Fermagh, Ireland.

John Kerwin, Tavern
leaping from a wharf at Que There are eleven passenge Montreal and Quebec this No passenger vessel from Quebec to the 3d May inst.
Flour has fallen 35 cents consequence of the vast i from France to the United Jenny Lind had reached to sing on the 7th inst. Th Paul's, Pttsburgh, was cons

The following appeared in The House of Commons night without going into cor tical titles prevention bill.

Valentine Browne, Esq. o D. L. of Kerry, in room of Browne, resigned.

Petitions to Parliament in Improvement of towns in Ir 26th clause, are in course o bitants and rate payers of St

There was a dish of new day, which sold for 3s.

In Johnston v. Lloyd, late there was a non suit yesterda

At the Police Court this d solved to apply to the Lord al of the license of such ve this city as continue to stor depot, Court-brack, contrary Lt.-Col. Inglis, 32d, has a sister, in this city.

Hartigan's Horse

NOTICE

HARTIGAN begs most blemen, Gentlemen, O Garrisons, and the public in great Monthly Sale, now the will be held on Saturday, the parties having Weight carry Carriage Horses, Short Legge and Ladies' Nags, and Hor intending them for this Sale particulars at once, as the E the 31st instant. No Horse v

Auction, that does not appear Horses for Private Sale w Friday previous.

MICHA

P.S.—The Sale of Carriages will take place at 11 o'clock, hour, previous to the Horse S