

ush Chapel on Tuesday night was robbed of sticks and altar cloths, but the depredators in carrying the Chapel clock out through one window, and which they left in the aisle.

Erson, clerk in the general post office, is sent to take charge of the post office at Loughrea, at day.

Henry Willett, an unlicensed passenger broker, aged with forging the name of Mr. William C. or, merchant, of Waterford.

ert C. Hickson, Esq. Fermoy, Kerry, has 42 of potatoes growing in his demesne.

ere are 960 prisoners in Clonmel gaol, 100 of stand for trial at the next quarter sessions for k-on-Suir.

ere are more paupers in the Limerick workhouse than the two union workhouses of Dublin.

meeting of the Rathkeale union guardians yesterday Sir Vere De Vere, Bart. chairman, it was found necessary to take another auxiliary for workhouse accommodation. Thomas H. Royse, jun. Esq. is one of the most efficient and useful members of the board of guardians, and well deserving a vote of thanks from the leagues.

Newcastle guardians have applied to the Poor-law Commissioners, for a grant of £6,800 out of the rate in aid fund; and applied to those electoral divisions of the union, which are not the most necessitous! Mr. Yeilding, a member of the board, entered his protest against such a appropriation.

The number of paupers in Ennis workhouse and gaol is increased to 5000.

Michael O'Connell has resigned as guardian of the Ennis union, on being elected its solicitor.

Mrs. D. and M. Keane, have served writs on the guardians for interest on the debts discharged by the treasury advance. The union has workhouse accommodation for 3450 paupers.

A man named M'Cormack, after being admitted to the Ennis workhouse on Sunday night, was found dead in a day morning. A verdict of died from the effects of destitution was returned.

A young man, Michael Lillis, labourer, fell into a well near Pery-square on Wednesday night, and died a few hours after of the injuries.

A stable of Timothy O'Brien, Esq. Corbally, was violently entered on Wednesday night by some rascals, who cut up a set of new harness.

They fractured the brass rings and mountings. This occurred in the vicinity of the Police station.

Five men were arrested in Cork, this week, by the police on shipboard for America, and who had absconded with money from their employers in Wicklow, Wexford, and Carlow.

A piece of cloth, stolen from Mr. Nilan, shopkeeper, was found in the pawn office of Mr. Mackay, in Cork, and is now in custody of the police.

The price of first quality Butter is further reduced to 68s and 70s per cwt.

The Derby at Epsom on Wednesday was won by the white horse on the betting list, Sir J. Hawley's Regent, and the second in the race was also seen on the same list.

The Limerick and Limerick Railway traffic for week ending Saturday last—Passengers, parcels, &c, 2667 8s 6d and cattle, 1017 3s 3d. Total, 3685 1s 4d.

At Brompton, Capt. M. Andrew, 78th, to Emily, daughter of J. Cammilleri, Esq. B.N.

DEATHS.

At Farney Castle, the residence of her son, Major William Armstrong, in her 84th year, Sophia, relict of Major Thomas Armstrong, of the 8th Regiment, and sister of the late General Sir John Ormsby Vandeleur, G.C.B.

Yesterday, the infant daughter of Thomas M. Osborne, Esq. of this City.

William Talbot, Esq. of Mount Talbot, Westmeath, D.L. At Shanagolden, on Sunday last, Mrs. O'Brien, relict of Mr. Patrick O'Brien.

At Cook-street, Cork, Joseph W. Austen, Esq. M.D. At his residence, Blarney, Furlong Smith, Esq.

At the Rectory, Moneymore, James Hewitt, Esq. eldest son of the Hon. and Rev. J. P. Hewitt, at the age of 28.

In Newry, aged eighteen years, Mary Elizabeth, second daughter of Major Macqueen, K.H. Barrack Master.

At Bailstown, near Cashel, at the age of 80 years, Mr. Thos. Maher, father of the Rev. Pierce Maher, R. C. Pastor of Harrisburg, United States.

At his residence, Old Market Place, Cork, Mr. Samuel Anglin, sen.

At Kilmacduan, county Clare, Honora, wife of Mr. Patrick Breen, Assistant County Surveyor.

At Eyre-square, Galway, Mr. Patrick Forde, proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, well known as a steeple-chase rider.—Suddenly, while attending the funeral of Mr. P. Forde, Mr. John Newel, of Galway, hackney coach proprietor.

At Ballyhale, county Kilkenny, Mr. John Carroll, aged 80 years; and his daughter, Mrs. Patrick Murphy.

At Slanemore, near Mullingar, Maria, daughter of Mr. Henry M'Dermott, of Boyle, county Roscommon.

At Kilkenny, Emanuel Murray Fitzpatrick, Esq. At Kilkenny, Emanuel Murray Fitzpatrick, Esq.

At Monkstown Avenue, Anne, wife of Mr. Mathew Law. Anne, widow of Michael Lowry, Esq. brewer, of Dublin.

At her residence, Berkeley-street, Mrs. J. Black. On the 20th inst. at her seat in Surrey, the Dowager Lady Arden, in her 83d year.

In Portman-street, Portman-square, Frederick Gainforth Smith, grandson of the late Edward Innes, Esq. of Corgrey Lodge, county Down.

At Eppingham-place, Eliza Mary, the wife of R. Bidwell Edwards, Esq. K.H. late Major 3d Light Dragoons.

At Canterbury, Helen, daughter of Major Bridge, 58th Depot.

At Rainhill, the wife of Lieut. M'Loughlin, of the 2d West India Regiment.

At Elm-bank House, near London, Joseph Rogerson, Esq. proprietor of the Mark-lane Express.

At Teignmouth, Edward Dering, son of Doctor Walker.

At Sudbury, Suffolk, the Rev. Henry W. Wilkinson, M.A. 44 years perpetual curate of St. Peter and St. Gregory, Sudbury, and vicar of Walton and Felixew, Suffolk.

The Venerable William Vickers, M.A. Archdeacon of Salop, diocese of Hereford. By his death the rectory of Chetton-cum-Deuxhill, Shropshire, worth £900 per annum, is vacant.

At Eign House, near Hereford, Commander (retired) James Harvey Price.

At King's College, Old Aberdeen, John Tulloch, Esq. LL.D. for 40 years Professor of Mathematics in that University.

At her residence in Manchester-square, Miss Catherine Charlotte Eades, in the 80th year of her age.

At Milton-next-Sittingbourne, Kent, John Hinds, Esq. one of the coroners for the county.

Mr. Charles Mott, the auditor for the South Lancashire poor law district.

William Brook Rhodes, Esq. Huddersfield.

At Maryfield, Edinburgh, at an advanced age, Mrs. Hawley, widow of the late Richard Maddock Hawley, Esq. M.D. Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh.

Dr. Edward Clarke Baker, of Walcot Terrace.

Emily Rosetta Binstead, twin daughter of W. W. Bond, Esq. Paymaster 4th King's Own Regiment.

Georgina, wife of James Anderson, Esq. Lessee of the Theatre Royal, Drury-lane.

At Greenwich, Mr. John Errington, in his 75th year.

At Plymouth, Anna, wife of Lieut. Stockdale, R.N.

At New York, Thomas Day, Esq. late of Liverpool.

At St. George's, Bermuda, C. Maitland, Esq. 42nd Royal Highlanders, son of T. Maitland, Esq. of Poghie.

At sea, on board the Bucephalus, Captain James Robertson, 9th Madras N.I., Assistant Commissary General, son of the late Lieut.-Colonel David Robertson Macdonald.

At Foochowfoo, in China, William Connor, Esq. Vice Consul at that place.

Anna Maria, relict of late Thomas Kane, Esq. Dublin.

At Crawfordsburn, Frederick S. Crawford, son of W. S. Crawford, Esq. M.P.

Rev. James Hodgins, Independent chapel, Belfast.

Pickle

A supply of delicious flavoured Pickle. Genuine.

Es

Noti

In the Matter

of ROBERT

O'Brien's

County of

Ex

ARTHUR S

All parties

having claim

notice of suc

Dated this

EDWARD

the order, 13

Con

THE BOA

Asylum

that Institu

day of

for One Year

The usual

will not be b

character of the Tender.

Sealed Pro

on or before

contractors v

No Ten let

above day.

May 24.

THE BOA

compet

School and F

and superint

16 years of a

The Salary

Apartments

the other W

Written a

can be lodge

the 5th June

Proposals fo

May 24.