DEATHS.

In Tarbert, on Monday, deservedly regretted, George Lucas Hill, Esq. merchant, formerly of Charlotte's-quay, in this City, aged 82 years.
 Yesterday morning, at the Limerick District Asylum, aged 83, Miss Matilda Fitzgerald, who for many years conducted a most respectable board and lodging-house in Thomas-street, in this City.
 At his residence in Dublin, at the very advanced age of 93 years, Cornelius M'Loughlin, Esq.
 The infant son of Mrs. Bindon, Clare-street.
 At her apartments in the Villiers' Female National School, St. Munchin's parish, on the 23d inst. at the early age of 26, Miss Eliza Alfred. Selected for her important office from a number of candidates, on account of her very superior qualifications, this accomplished young woman entered on its duties with zeal and energy. Well versed in all a teacher ought to know—gifted with an amiable and patient, a calm and yet active temper—feeling the responsibility of the office with which she was entrusted—to train the young in the fear and love of God—she diligently and affectionately, with judgment and ability, altogether free from bigotry, but zealous for the glory of the One True God and His Eternal Son—pursued her daily work of instruction, having the approbation of the Trustees, and enjoying with their parents' gratitude her scholars' marked improvement.
 At his residence, Newtown Hill, Tramore, in the 85th year of his age, Edward Popham, Esq. brother of the late Admiral Sir Home Popham.
 The Rev. Richard Jones Hobson, Vicar-General for the dioceses of Waterford and Lismore.
