

we see that the consumption of y has again reached a high point, athew and emigration. The fol-ntities consumed during the last 76 gallons; 1847, 6,037,383 do; ; 1849, 6,973,333 do; 1850, selling in Limerick at 2d per lb. s of Potatoes whose stalks bed crisped after a harsh frost, on y have sincetha; fully recovered lly aspect. The visitation was and not disease. The same any fields where the plants were ey are recovering fast, and will tle or no injury.

meeting is to be held on the the 12th July. supply of young stock at the fair ursday, when two years old sold ; strippers scarce, £7 to £9. large numbers, but not much from 2Is. to 32s. out of the from £10 to £12.

market on Tuesday, the quanual to 270 firkins, at a decline 40s per firkin.
Indian corn and 600 sacks of into Waterford last week.

steamer, from New York, is n the 27th June inst.
a labourer, was crushed to death tion, Galway, on Tuesday night. are getting out watering carts nd the police to clear the streets before the expected arrival of s, by steamer from New York. said to be one of the fastest s to the Chagres line; she is Blethem, has 80 rooms, and modation for 200 persons.

s placing a steamer on Lough ect inland communication will y to within a few miles of Case of near 60 miles.

tes, on appeal from Judge Keae Court, condemned the alleged Henry, in 1847, bequeathing to 0, and £500 to seduced females ! Probate is granted under of 1841, in favor of her only the amount of £18,000.

were crossing the river Suir, boat upset and a young man as drowned.

churchyard, and witnessed the scene.

Mr. O'Donnell said he was credibly informed that where the foundations were sinking, and coffins protruded, instead of being removed, the ends had been actually sawed off!

Mr. Ellard read a letter which he received from the Ecclesiastical Board, in reference to the matter, stating Mr. Corneille had been communicated with on the subject.

The Bench were unanimous in ordering summonses to issue against all parties concerned, and fixed Monday, at eleven o'clock, for investigation of the case.

[Under the Anatomy act, a penalty of £100 is incurred for disintering a corpse, unless with permission of the Commissioner General.]

Informations were ordered against Thomas Nunan, for stealing silver knives and forks from the house of Rev. Arthur Edwards; Mary Honan, of Broad-street, for stabbing a boy, named Glynn, with a knife, was fined £4 and costs (one-third to the injured lad,) or two months imprisonment; informations were ordered against Mary M'Quaide, a well dressed female, who held a fine child in her arms, for shop-lifting at the establishment of Arnott & Co., George's-st. A man named Coyle, with whom she was in company, was also brought up, but discharged. A quantity of silks, and other goods, were found with the female prisoner, who was arrested by Constable Nash; Patrick Cooney, for stealing a pocket handkerchief from Rev. Mr. Moore, was sentenced to a month's imprisonment; the Court was occupied two hours with a case of assault, brought by two Russian sailors of the ship Victoria, of Stetton, v. the master Capt. Largee, who was fined 5s. in each case, and costs; six spirit retailers were fined from 10s to £1, for having their shops open for the sale of spirituous liquors on the sabbath day; informations were ordered against the Waterford and Limerick Railway, Mr. Power and J. Mullins, for allowing a sewer to remain open, near the terminus, which is a nuisance.

Patrick Molony, a poor working man, was found dead in a drain at Drombana, on Tuesday.

The Bank of Ireland has declared a four per cent. dividend payable 1st July.

The estate of Victor O'Farrell, in Wexford, was sold at New Ross on Tuesday, by order of the Commissioners, in lots to Mr. T. Brown, for £3,300; Mr.
M. Walsh, for £4,650, and Mr. T. Howlett, for £600.

Miss Dalby and Miss Rainforth will sing at the Cork ancient concerts on the 23d inst.

The Galway gas company shares are at a premium of £30.

Several Advertisements, too late for this day's publication, shall appear in our next.

West Dingle.
Lieut.-Colonel bell, daughter of Benjamin Lanc
to Rosamira, dau Bedworth.
At Paris, Geor
General Wilson.
At Somerset E of the late Rev. C of Charles Cooper
At Crumlin Chu
Bart. of Powys, daughter of the House, county of

At Narraghmore
the Venerable Joh
Dublin, and for 37
At Brooklodge, Oliver, Esq. of We
At Cappoquin, t
At Newbirmingh
Cashen, Esq. for s
At Custom-house Printer.

In Mary-street,
On the 11th June year, Margaret, th of this City.

In Clonmel, An aged 18 years.

Miss Mary Sara
Barker, Esq. of W In Wexford, Mr.
toms.

At North Richm
Barry Collins, Esq.

In Upper Leeson
Curate of St. Luke's

Stackhouse, Esq.

At Hollywood Rat
son, aged 84.

In Fitzwilliam-str
At Cambridge, fr

Alexander, son of th At his residence, I

Treasurer of Christ'
In Edinburgh, Si

gowshire, Bart.

At Bayswater, An

At Fulham, Surge
steam service.

Mr. Arthur Langh and Co., St. Paul's C

the Brighton and Le

At Swaffham, Nor

At the Grove, Wa

Walter Barratt, Esq

At Leamington, M

Dalrymple, Esq. M.

At Guildford-stree

stone, Surrey, in his

At Chelsea, the Re

late Mathematical Le

At Catriue House,

of the late Dugald St

At Nice, Joseph T

On the 8th inst. ag

Reval Hospital, Kiln

On the 10th, in Ell

of Mr. Edmond Rut