

... scene.
 credibly informed that sinking, and coffins proved, the ends had been which he received from the ference to the matter, been communicated with in ordering summonses concerned, and fixed Mon-investigation of the case.
 penalty of £100 is in-
 , unless with permission
 against Thomas Nunan, forks from the house of Honan, of Broad-street, ynn, with a knife, was to the injured lad,) or formations were ordered all dressed female, who ns, for shop-lifting at z Co., George's-st. A she was in company, arged. A quantity of ound with the female Constable Nash; Packet handkerchief from ed to a month's im-eupied two hours with wo Russian sailors of
 he master Capt. Largee,
 a case, and costs;
 om 10s to £1, for have of spirituous liquors ns were ordered against ailway, Mr. Power and to remain open, near ce.

ing man, was found
 n Tuesday.
 plared a four per cent.
 ll, in Wexford, was by order of the Com-own, for £3,300; Mr.
 T. Howlett, for £600.
 orth will sing at the l inst.
 es are at a premium
 te for this day's pub-

Lieut.-Colonel Gore Browne, O.B. to Harriet Louisa Campbell, daughter of James Campbell, of Craigie.
 Benjamin Lancaster, Esq. of Chester Terrace, Regent's-park, to Rosamira, daughter of the Rev. Henry Bellairs, Rector of Bedworth.
 At Paris, George Hyde, Esq. to Maria, daughter of Major-General Wilson.
 At Somerset East, Cape of Good Hope, Robert Paxton, son of the late Rev. Charles Church, to Mary Ann, eldest daughter of Charles Cooper, Esq. F.R.C.S.
 At Crumlin Church, John, eldest son of Sir Henry Floyd, Bart. of Powys, Devonshire, to Thomasine Harriett, eldest daughter of the Rt. Hon. Frederick Shaw, of Kinnage House, county of Dublin.

DEATHS.

At Narraghmore Rectory, county Kildare, in his 83d year, the Venerable John Torrens, D.D. for 32 years Archdeacon of Dublin, and for 37 years Rector of the parish of Narraghmore.
 At Brooklodge, Youghal, Martha, relict of the late Thomas Oliver, Esq. of Wellington Place, Cork.
 At Cappoquin, the Rev. John Walsh, Parish Priest.
 At Newbirmingham, in the 86th year of his age, Laurence Cashen, Esq. for several years Postmaster in that town.
 At Custom-house Place, Mary, wife of Mr. Edward Macken, Printer.
 In Mary-street, Mrs. Wall.
 On the 11th June, at Slafarquhar, Stirlingshire, in her 33rd year, Margaret, the beloved wife of Mr. Robert Goodwin, late of this City.
 In Clonmel, Anastatia, daughter of Mr. Decourcy Rae, aged 18 years.
 Miss Mary Sarah Barker, daughter of the late Arthur Barker, Esq. of Waterford.
 In Wexford, Mr. Edward Murphy, of her Majesty's Customs.
 At North Richmond-street, Dublin, Thomas, eldest son of Barry Collins, Esq.
 In Upper Leeson-street, Rev. Wm. Stackhouse, jun. late Curate of St. Luke's Church, London, eldest son of Jonathan Stackhouse, Esq.
 At Holywood Rath, Mary, relict of the late Major Thompson, aged 84.
 In Fitzwilliam-street, the daughter of Mr. Wm. Benn.
 At Cambridge, from suffocation by swallowing a button, Alexander, son of the Rev. Alexander Crummell.
 At his residence, Herne-hill, Richard Hotham Pigeon, Esq.
 Treasurer of Christ's Hospital.
 In Edinburgh, Sir John Graham Dalryell, of Binns, Linlithgowshire, Bart.
 At Bayswater, Anne, wife of Thos. Lechmere Marriott, Esq.
 At Fulham, Surgeon Rowland, late of the West India mail steam service.
 Mr. Arthur Langhorne, clerk to Messrs. Puget, Bainbridge, and Co., St. Paul's Churchyard, occasioned by an accident on the Brighton and Lewes Railway.
 At Swaffham, Norfolk, Lieut.-Colonel Charles Day.
 At the Grove, Walton-on-Thames, Sarah, relict of the late Walter Barratt, Esq. of Brighton.
 At Leamington, Margaret Elizabeth, eldest daughter of John Dalrymple, Esq. M.P.
 At Guildford-street, Thomas Chawner, Esq. late of Addle-stone, Surrey, in his 77th year.
 At Chelsea, the Rev. John F. Robinson, M.A. Fellow and late Mathematical Lecturer of St. Peter's College, Cambridge.
 At Catrine House, Ayrshire, Colonel Matthew Stewart, son of the late Dugald Stewart, Esq.
 At Nice, Joseph Travers, Esq.
 On the 8th inst. aged 82 years, Capt. Robert Cook, of the Royal Hospital, Kilmalham, formerly of the 29th Foot.
 On the 10th, in Ellen-street, Mary Jane, youngest daughter of Mr. Edmond Rutledge.

all which Lives rene rent of £2
 on the fall
 Lease. T reserved to in the Lot.
 Lot No. 2—Portion of 1r 18p. E
 Lot No. 3—Remainder
 65a Or 36p
 Lot No. 4—Bracklone,
 Rental £26
 All which lands are s charge of £110 15s 5d ritable purposes, to be
 No. 1.
 For Rentals, with Ma particulars, apply at the 14, Henrietta-street, Dub RINGTON, Bart., SON, a Ely-place, Dublin, or to
 JAMES M
 96, Ge
 June 7.

NOTICE
TO SHIP OWNERS
EMIGRATION
Kilrush
COUNTY
THE Guardians of the Emigrate between 30
 the Workhouse to Upper
 are desirous of receiving p
 and others, willing to con from the Quay of Kilrush
 or any other port Tenders to state the cos Adults from Children, and to be strictly in accordanc lations. The vessel to be registered Tonnage to be s
 The Funds necessary for posal of the Guardians.
 Tenders to be sent by P Emigration" and address to be received on or before period the vessel engaged, Passengers: not later than
 By
EDWARD JAM
 Board Room, 9th June,