

in John Hamilton, as maker. The general issue, and relied on was drawn for the accommodation of other parties, and that he never considered.

In the year 1845, Mrs. Joseph Limerick, having a bill for the National Bank of Rathkeale, to take it up, she applied to the man intimate friend, to join her in a promissory note for £47. to be paid. The defendant accordingly the plaintiff subsequently paid. The plaintiff alleged that the note as a security to him on the part of who, in fact, was the person for the plaintiff—£47 damages,

QUEEN'S BENCH.

M.P. v. Mahon and others.

and that the lessor of the defendant the renewal of the lease, which the CONDENTS.—The letter of J. O. M., next.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 25.

titles bill passed through committee of Commons on Friday night, one upon amendment by Mr. to strike the act, so as to interfere with the Catholic Church in spiritualities. It is announced that Lord John Russell will attempt the charitable bequests' portion of the Ecclesiastical bill. Amendment on the preamble was carried by a majority of nine, and the bill having passed the committee, is to be reported on was not divided in minorities against the Ecclesiastical titles prevention bill. The following are the names of the members: M. J. Blake, Lord Castlereagh, C. J. Corbally, T. V. Dawson, J. T. Devlin, J. Goold, O. D. J. Grace, J. Greene, J. Higgins, Sir R. Howard, R. Keating, Lawless, O'Gorman Mahon, W. T. Archer, W. Monsell, G. H. Moore, F. S. Reynolds, Sir T. O'Brien, John O'Connell, R. M. O'Ferrall, A. O'Flaherty, J. Power, Col. Rawdon, J. Reynolds, J. Heir, F. Scully, J. P. Somers, J. H. O'Connell, R. J. Tennent.

dispense with their day police.

The Ballingarry estate of George Thomas De Massy a minor, in this county, was put up for sale yesterday in the Encumbered Estates Court, and the sale is adjourned for want of bidders.

On Friday the property of John Spottswood, Esq., in the barony of Iveragh, was brought to the hammer, and went for less than half its value. The first lot, the best grazing pasture in Iveragh, was knocked down to Mr. John Leahy for £1500, and who refused £1500 for his bargain before he left the court. The second lot—a valuable one—was bought by the Petitioners, Messrs. Lindsay, for £1200.

The estate of Edward Gilman of Rock-house, Cork, was sold in that city yesterday to Mr. E. Finn, for £1710; J. Lane, £310; T. Fitton, £210; and T. Beamish, £580.

The Limerick Literary Society will close its session for the present year on Friday evening next.

Mr. Robert Ferguson, of this city, got honorable testimonials for physiology, chemistry, botany, and French, at Queen's College, Cork.

Monday night several bonfires were lighted in and about the city, to celebrate the advent of Midsummer, while the Clare and Tipperary hills exhibited the usual illumination from "subshaws," or blazing wisps of straw and furze, carried upon poles.

A gentleman at Castle-Connell has a splendid field of wheat, in full ear, standing near six feet high, and which will be ready to cut the last week of July.

John Ryan, of Scarteen, Esq., has a field of eleven acres of flax at Kilfeely, growing in beautiful condition, and delightful to behold.

Friday night last, the fields of John Healy, and John Hinchy, respectable farmers, at Clondrina, were entered upon by lawless prowlers, who cut the tail hair off their cattle, and rifled the fowls' nests.

A fine little girl, 7 years old, daughter of a widow named M'Mahon, residing in Boherbuoy, was accidentally killed on Saturday, having clung to the hind shaft of a car upon which a large barrel of water was being conveyed, when the vehicle inclined backwards, overturned the water barrel, and which crushed the child to death.

At Ballycoree, near O'Brien's Bridge, a poor blind boy of the name of Burke drank from a bottle of vitriol, and died in excruciating agony on Saturday night. Verdict of the inquest accidental death.

In connection with Gort an incident threatening unpleasant consequences occurred. Mr. B——t, a young gentleman well known in Gort, made some observation rather disparaging to Mr. M. O'B——, a young gentleman of this County, who, being afterwards informed of it, demanded an apology, which was refused. An insult of a very provoking nature was then deliberately offered to Mr. B——t, and thus the matter rests for the present.—Clare Journal.

as James Archer. "I gave the book more from his pocket."

Bench—Where

Archer—I am Mr. Fitzpatrick to woman to bring I might give them ted to circulate t

Constable Sha school, and here

Archer—No m

Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Mr. Hogan—C

I suppose you ar

In reply to Dr

son Kennedy, an did not know any

Mr. Barron—

ness—I am from

Dr. Gibson—

Limerick to dist

no one knows yo

It is enough to b gion to adopt suc

persons of your c

remand this wom

write to the Rev.

Mr. Hogan (T

Prisoner—Wit

convart me (laug

from this man, w

The case was t

At the City P

was fined 5s. fo

workhouse cloth whipped; Mary

watch, was rema

5s., or 14 days i