

Company grants Assurances for any sum as low as £10, and will receive premiums if desired, by monthly instalments.

SICKNESS ASSURANCE.

Monthly Premiums to Assure during Sickness the following sums weekly, with Medical Attendance and Medicine.

Age next Birth-day.	7s.		10s. 6d.		14s.		21s.		28s.
	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.
20	1	4	1	9½	2	2½	3	1	3	11
25	1	5	1	11	2	5	3	5	4	5
30	1	6½	2	1	2	7½	3	9	4	11
35	1	8½	2	5	3	0	4	4	5	8
40	1	10½	2	9	3	6	5	0	6	7
45	2	2	3	2	4	1	5	11	7	11
50	2	7	3	10	5	0	7	4	9	5

Prospectuses, Forms of Proposal, and every information and assistance will be readily supplied on application to the Actuary, 32, Great Coram-street, Russell-square, or to the

AGENT FOR LIMERICK,
JOHN BASSETT,
2, RUTLAND-STREET.

R. R. GELSTON, ESQ., M.D., GEORGE'S-ST., Medical Referee.
JOHN ALLEN, Esq. late R. N., George's-street, Medical Attendant.

Place.	Agent.
Dublin	Wm. Dunne, Esq. 3, Molesworth-st.
Cork	J. Franklin, Esq. 40, South Mall.
Tralee	James R. Eagar, Esq. 3, Church-st.
Armagh	W. Barkerley, Esq., Solicitor.
Londonderry	W. Thompson, Esq., the Strand.

From £5,000 to £50,000 a-year

MAY be realised by either sex, whether employed or unemployed, by comparatively trifling outlays, so certainly as to render failure absolutely impossible; also by mere fractional outlays proportionately smaller incomes may be as certainly realised. These lucrative undertakings involve neither partnership nor risk, do not subject those embarking to any employment neither could any objection be raised against by the death of this most excellent lady, who was the tender parent, the sincere friend, and the constant benefactor of the destitute orphan, whose steps she guided in the paths of religion, charity and peace. We can safely say, her death indeed to Limerick is a public loss. Formed and educated to move with ecolat in the first private circles, Mrs. O'Reilly's personal accomplishments were sure to attract admiration; but how greatly enhanced were these natural gifts by the pure lustre of her virtues and the endearing amiability of her manners. The placid expression of her countenance was singularly engaging, and the features literally beamed with gentleness, innocence, and love, the mild radiance of which at once prepossessed all beholders. Regardless of the flattery and fascination which court a beautiful woman in fashionable assemblies, of the happier though less brilliant scenes of domestic life, Mrs. O'Reilly forsook without regret, at an early period, those peculiar characteristics of her station, and devoted time, health, and fortune to the benefit of the poor, to the instruction of those little children whom God has especially committed to the care of those who love Him, and hope to inherit with them His eternal kingdom. Religion alone can afford consolation to her aged and venerable mother, now indeed stricken by the death of her beloved and most excellent daughter. Mrs. O'Reilly has left one son, the Rev. Dr. O'Reilly, Professor of Maynooth College, and now at Rome. The chief mourners at her funeral were Mr. J. J. Bagot, of Castle Bagot, D.L., Mr. Dease, Major Gavin, and Captain Gavin. All the Chapel bells kept tolling as the mournful procession passed along.

At Mitchelstown, on the 22nd inst. Mrs. Fraser, relict of George Fraser, Esq. formerly Captain in the 54th Regt., and sister to George Dartnell, of this City, Esq.

This morning, after a short illness, in Denmark-street, Mr. Thomas Watson, an old and respectable inhabitant, formerly of Arthur's-quay.

At Pallaskenry, on Friday last, Mr. John Fitzgerald, late of George's-street, in this City—a young gentleman universally regretted by his family and friends.

At South Mall, Cork, Charlotte, wife of Samuel Hobart Esq. M.D.

At Mallow, James Valentine, son of Jas. F. Plowman, Esq. At an advanced age, Lieut.-Colonel Whelan, of Clonmore Lodge, county Carlow.

Anne, wife of Michael Kelly, Esq. Mirehill, county Galway.

At Clonmel, Mr. Timothy Cashin, an old inhabitant.

At Tullamore, Anthony Molloy, Esq. J.P.

Mary, eldest daughter of the late Roger Trumble, Esq. of Oldrock, county Sligo.

At Albany House, Rathgar, the residence of her son-in-law, John W. Switzer, Mary Anne, relict of the late Robert Walker J.P. Spring Valley, county Dublin.

At Herbert Lodge, Sidney Parade, the infant daughter of John T. Hamerton, Esq.

Louisa, daughter of Mr. Richard Spear, College-green.

At Rus-in-Stoke, Kingstown, James Wentworth Kearny, Esq. late barrack-master at Armagh.

At Cavan, at the house of his brother, Arthur Richard (Ensign 3d West India Regiment), son of Arthur Thompson, Esq. Willoughby-place, Enniskillen.

At Hibernia Place, Holywood, Joseph Sherrard, late of New

Nicholas-street, Limerick

Emigratio

PERSONS desirous of stable employment in a opportunity of realising the engagements through the has been especially comm Government to carry out a gration from Europe to facilities and advantages than to any emigrants.

Domestic servants, male classes of labourers can, b contracts here, secure fo on landing in Peru not on employment, and Artizans, great demand there, are al out engagements.

A comfortable passage, to the Government scale emigrants and their familie per adult of which the Per 30 dollars, or nearly two each person over 14 years The same proportion of th advanced for those who do repayment of it will be re instalments out of their fu

As these advantages w those who cannot produce monials as to respectabilit tritious habits, it is requeste

Rate of wages offered an sent on application post pa & Co., Tower Chambers, L

MUTUAL

AND INVESTM

32, Great Coram-street,

TRU

Thomas Atkins

John Chamber

Richard Marsh