

standing, by means of a
would cost 6s 8d twice
Cork, would any man 13s 4d ?
e witness-box, if rightly sarin any man's resent-angry with very small
in triumph; you had
capable of any amount ing men to something
moment of excitement,
your satisfaction that a
smell of strong spirits,
after-dinnerish, and pet
it is rather curious that paper and that sent me t altogether agree; nei-
ry important particulars
good quarter.
Cork-ward. Having
and graphic eloquence,
Kennedy.
it was that the trial at
ne government poor law
acht with them the day
would have added such a ough 1, fer one, believe ld not have served you.
rt of attention to judges ay be implicated by their
-even with a Whig comgilant and honest. The endence, and had a just them; the majority of ning up of the judge.—
triumph you had so per-
in every way your supe-d been that, being a real you as one, at least by proved so clear, or, if court of law; had you mean militia colonels—eliberated upon it? In-hat, in your prosecution ourt in this matter, you almost forget what you ou say it of me. The departure from your own

volent acts of his distinguished brother. The late Earl filled many important and honorable offices; as Governor General of Bombay some years ago, he was presented with a service of plate by the East India Directors, as a token of his valuable services. He was Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the county Limerick, Knight of St. Patrick, and Chairman of several Boards connected with the city and county of Limerick.

Lord and Lady Clarina and family arrived at Elm Park on Saturday, from London where his Lordship was attending his parliamentary duties.

The Rt. Hon. the Earl of Limerick, accompanied by his eldest son, Viscount Glentworth, arrived here this day, from the Gresham hotel, Dublin.

W. Gould, Esq. M.P. left this day to attend the Transatlantic meeting in Dublin on to-morrow.

The Marquis of Londonderry and family have arrived at Mount Stewart.

Count de Salis has arrived at Tanderagee.

The Mayor of Limerick returned from a visit to London on Sunday.

The representative of Huddersfield, on Monday, transmitted to Collector Trevor, of this port, a begging letter from a Mrs. Davis of Lucan, authenticated by the Collector and a Mr. Hamilton, M.P. County Limerick—both signatures are fraudulently signed.

Mr. Sergeant Howley has returned to Dublin, after concluding the laborious duties of Judge of Assize for the Munster circuit. His Lordship gave general satisfaction to all parties—few Judges having ever excelled him in dignity, deportment, legal knowledge, and urbanity of manner.

Edward Curling, Esq. agent of the Devon property, arrived at the Castle, Newcastle, on Sunday evening from London.

John Ryan, broker, of Nicholas-st. while in a state of intoxication fell into the river at Howley's-quay on Sunday night, and was drowned.

16,000 quarters of foreign corn were imported into Limerick last week.

Mr. James Nash, director of the Irish Fishery, Waterford, died quite suddenly on Saturday.

Prolific—A sheep belonging to George Furnell, Esq. which had this year two lambs, yeaned another on Saturday,

States. In order to carry rooms were erected with e

The metropolitan excursive train on Sunday, to the and on arrival proceeded to respective places of Worcester.

The Cork and Bandon a month, and the different Directors and the agents amicably arranged.

A young lad named Goddard bathing near the North evening

A canon ball of large diameter eaten with rust, but very covered in the ruins of the

At the Newcastle Butter Limerick buyers purchased highest price given was 20

Lahinch races, which were well attended. For the first won by Mr. Brindley's W won by Mr. M'Millen's M

Miss Caroline O'Grady, Paris, has just composed are much admired.

The following estates are Boyle, Waller Carew, John Nicholas Henry Mahon, M'Dermott, Catherine P. Reade, Francis Sullivan, White.

The son of Col. M'Douglass on the 19th ult.

The 54th landed at Queen's

An officer of high rank, at Jamaica, was arrested on a warrant issued against him for committing a rape on a girl. There having been a meeting yesterday, at which magistrates were present, no investigation could be entered in consequence allowed to being his surety—to appear the charge against him for