On the 27th inst. in Henry-street, Mr. Abraham Boothe Dunlop, late of the City Constabulary. Cut off in the prime of life by the fell destroyer, consumption, he has left to his truly bereaved family, the only abiding solace to the widow and the orphan, the satisfactory evidence of a well-grounded trust in the merits of a crucified Redeemer. In all the relations of life he ever acted the part of a Christian, and long and deeply will his loss be deplored and his memory revered, by all who tested his friendship.

Yesterday, at Garryowen, Mr. Michael Meade, Mason, on whose life large sums were insured by several companies.

In Nenagh, Mrs. Gill, wife of Mr. Peter Gill.

After severe suffering, the Rev. James Mookler, one of the Vicars Choral of the Cathedral of Lismore, and Rector of Kilronan, county Waterford, which is in the gift of the Duke of Devonshire.
