The flax growers in this district naturally would feel alarmed at the discouraging letter of Lord Ormonde, and the unfavourable result of his flax crop in Kilkenny. The estimate and calculations of his lordship are not, however, free from error, and his isolated failure will not deter Irish enterprise from giving flax cultivation a fair trial, for entire success must not be expected in the first season. In this City purchasing is confined to Messrs. Russell, the price per ton for flax straw, with seed, being from £2 10s. to £3 15s.; last year it brought £5.

Agricultural Exhibition

THE Annual Cattle Show and Agricultural Exhibition will be held in Limerick, at the Corn Market, on THURSDAY, the 16th of OCTOBER next.

Parties intending to exhibit should give notice to the Secretary, stating name and residence, with list of the animals, &c., intended for the Exhibition, on or before SATURDAY, the 4th October.

It is particularly requested that no persons will enter Cattle, &c., for the Show, which they are not fully determined on sending.

Forms of notice for entry of stock, cattle, &c. to be exhibited, are now ready, and can be had on application to the Secretary.

For conditions, list of Prizes, and all other information relative to the Show, application to be made to
