

at his senior colleague was not present, have been better able to do justice to the conferred. He thanked them for the voyage made down the river that day—(hear) were nearly in the 19th century, there amongst them who never saw the Shannon before (cheers). He hoped ships would be not so much of business as in going down to Foynes to see steamers riding safe in that mag-locked harbour so well adapted receive them (cheers). He trusted verdid river of their ancient and re-may be selected as the packet station, not cause but that of merit (applause), and, would soon arrive when they would be wn to meet one of the noble transat-breasting the waters of the Shannon He felt exceedingly happy in being s occasion—in meeting so many friends, acquaintance of so many whom he r public spirit and their enterprise, and the exertions that were making in advancement of Ireland (cheers.) Watson, as the friend of Mr. John apologised for his absence, and said it to the members of the Chamber of Packet station committee and citizens, and learned member had taken an active part in enforcing the claims of the k on the government and Transatlantic commissioners (hear). He attended tations to Dublin and London, and s ready and willing to attend to the constituency when required (hear). said he should propose a toast which at oversight to let pass. It was the Chamber of Commerce (hear). To energy they were indebted for what ard in connexion with this important had read the statements put forward antic Packet station committee and ammerce, which were irresistible, rea-mentative.

ht, Esq. returned thanks, and said it tary of the Chamber of Commerce, master, and Mr. Long (hear,) they or the productions referred to by Mr. s the assistance thus afforded that

On Charles Marshall, late Chief Justice of Ceylon, to Mary, widow of the late John Cox, Esq. of Hyde Park-street.
 At Paris, Charles Marsh Lee, of Salisbury, to Helen, daughter of the late Sir John Chetwode, Bart. M.P. Chetwode, Bucks.
 In Montreal, William Brewster, Esq. to Annie, daughter of James Haldane, Esq.
 At London, Canada, Captain Burrowes, R.A. to Jane, daughter of Rev. J. Croyn.
 At Calcutta, Charles Henry St. John O'Neill, Esq. son of the late Edmund O'Neill, Esq. of Ture House, co. Donegal, to Marianne, daughter of the late Lieut. J. Macdonnell, of the Bengal Horse Artillery.

DEATHS.

In Taylor-street, Mr. Richard Ryan, for many years the first coach and herald painter in this City.
 At the Barns, county Meath, Peter Ralfe, Esq.
 At Ballintemple, Cork, William F. O'Keefe, Esq.
 At the Prairie, near Skull, Anne, daughter of the late Redmond Uniacke, of Old Court, county Cork, Esq.
 Martha, relict of the late Nicholas George Seymour, Esq. aged 82 years.
 At Fairfield, county Wexford, aged 90 years, Meyley Fitzhenry, Esq.
 At Nootka Lodge, Carlingford, Hugh Moore, Esq. J.P.
 At Runnemede, county Dublin, Dorothea, wife of John Mayne, Esq. and daughter of the late Hon. Judge Mayne.
 Henry Sadlier Bruere, Esq. late Major in 43d Light Infantry, in his 42d year.
 At Ashmount, Clare, Samuel Whinrey Dickinson, Esq.
 In Wexford, Mary, eldest daughter of James Redmond, Esq.
 At Cardenton House, near Athy, Mrs. Telford, relict of Richard Telford, Esq. of Moate, county Westmeath.
 At Montpelier Hill, Dublin, W. F. Hort, Esq. R.N. Chief Officer of the Coast Guard, Enchantress Station, Rye, Sussex.
 Mr. Patrick Victory, formerly of East Arran-street, aged 74.
 At his residence, Rathmines-road, Mr. James Swift.
 At Killiney, county Dublin, Mary, wife of Matt. H. Sankey, Esq. of Brookeboro'.
 In Clanbrasil-street, Mr. Joseph Mackey.
 At Middle Mountjoy-street, Richard, only son of John Moore, Esq. Inspector of Police.
 Mr. Thomas Wm. Marsh, late of the Post-office, Victoria, Hong Kong.
 At Newtownlimavady, aged 97 years, Mr. Mathew Patterson, one of the last of the Volunteers of 1782.
 At Guernsey, aged 23 years, Syney Carden, Esq. Lieutenant Royal Artillery, the beloved son of R. M. Carden, Esq. of Fishmoynce, county Tipperary.
 At Frognell, Hampstead, in the 40th year of his age, the Rev. Thomas G. O'Sullivan, P.P. late of Killarney.
 At East Heath Lodge, Berks, John Benjamin, only son of Sir Benjamin Smith.
 Capt. Tomkins, late 35th Regt.
 At Clarence Villa, the Vale, Ramsgate, Samuel Gibbs, Esq.
 At Brighton, Sylvia Sophia, eldest daughter of Haffez Mence Esq. H.P. 32d Regiment.
 At Audenshaw, Manchester, Thomas Henry, son of the Rev. Thomas T. Eagar.
 At Burlingham Hall, Norfolk, Jane, wife of Henry Negus Burroughes, Esq. M.P.
 At Salisbury, North Carolina, Colonel Robert Macnamara, a native of Callan, county Kilkenny.
 At Bytown, the Hon. Mrs. Dynely, wife of Colonel Dynely, C.B. and sister of Lord Ellenborough.
 In Quebec, Mr. William Moffatt, Printer; Mr. James Skil-len, Printer.
 At Montreal, Mr. John Hoey, a native of Dublin.

rated can
 House
 of Mr. S ing been apart fro
 office, an
 Also a has many Applic Island, or

Four
THIS

and can o

It is an fote, be fo
 brought fr

SID

the Custom
 tion of 3d.
 Agents
 Chocolate.

THE B
 Wedn
 tenders for

for the Par
 the 29th Se Printed I
 the probabl
 months, car
 received.

The tend having been will be retu
 them, on m

Office, Oc