

...ges, and what others pro-will realise in bona fide have opened a RETAIL to the rear of my premises a competent Clerk, who the purest and most ge-50 Fee, would be taken

ODKIN KENNEDY.
Dec. 3.

ck Infirmary.

PROVISIONS, &c
received for the supply for One Year, from 1st 1852 :
on, per lb
lb Loaves

...ties as may be required, at which they will be to the Registrar, at the y on or before 12 o'Clock which day the Contracts
mittee.
ed.
der,
M. GUEARIN,
Registrar.
2 o'Clock.
Dec. 3.

on Union.
at their Meeting, on the nders for the supply of
at--per ton,

nds,
ered at the several Worknders, on the same day,
K and TURF,
to the 1st of MAY, 1852.
ater than 1 o'Clock on
EAN,
Clerk of the Union.
Dec. 3.

Artillery, to Harriet Sophia, daughter of the late Capt. Frederrick W. Burgoyne, Royal Artillery.
At Simla, Edward James Simpson, Esq. Captain 69th Bengal
Infantry, and Assistant Commissary General to Sir William Gomm, Commander-in-Chief in India, to Ellen Theophila, daughter of Colonel George Dennis, C.B. late of the Bengal Horse Artillery.
[We are authorised to contradict the reported marriage, last post, of Charles Abbott, A.B. T.C.D. to Jane, daughter of Martin Dwyer, Summerhill, Neuagh.]

DEATHS.

On 30th Nov. at Whigsborough, King's County, John Thos.
Drought, Esq. aged 69.
At Clonrush Glebe, on the 26th ult. Ellen, fifth daughter of the Rev. Hugh Brady Haleatt. She bore a long illness with fortitude and resignation, trusting in the finished salvation of her Redeemer. Her death is deeply regretted by her family and friends, and most of all by the poor of her father's parish in whose wants she sincerely sympathised, and endeavoured to the utmost of her power to relieve them.
At his residence, Newcastle, of typhus fever, in the 28th year of his age, Mr. Timothy O'Shaughnessy, who was conducting business in that town for Henry Lyons, Esq. of Croom.
He is universally regretted.
At an advanced age, at Altavilla, Queen's County, Mrs.
Luther, relict of Anthony Guy Luther, Esq. late of Clonmel.
At Tullamore, Margaret Mary, eldest daughter of the late Robert Boylan, Esq. of Anna Villa, North Circular-road.
At her house, George's-place, Dublin, Anna Maria, relict of the late Christophilus Clinch, Esq. of Pearmount, co. Dublin, and sister of the late Sir Duke Giffard, Bart. in her 93d year.
At Malahide, Anna Maria, wife of Captain Sir Thomas Ross, R.N. and daughter of George French, Esq. Mountjoy-square.
Thomas, son of the late Henry Barry, Esq. of Rainsford-st.
At Millbrook, Claremorris, Michael Glyan, Esq.
In Sligo, Anne, daughter of the late David Oulbertson, Esq.
At Muff Glebe, near Cookstown, Jane, relict of the late Capt
William Boyes, 76th Regt. aged 83 years.
At Fort View, Wexford, Captain Frederick Browne Sandwich, H.P. 38th Regt.
At Ellenfield, Drumcondra, Ellen, wife of Alderman Farrell.
At Brookborough, aged 96, Serjeant Thomas Murphy, a brave soldier of Major Sterne's regiment the 82d.
At the residence of his father in Wexford, Caesar Augustus Kidd, Esq.
Elizabeth, relict of the late Francis Saul, Esq. Spittalfields.
George Ogle, Esq. Solicitor, Newry.
At Coleraine, Robert Heusten, jun. Esq. Surgeon.
At Dover, the Hon. Sarah Newnham Collingwood, eldest daughter of the late Cuthbert Lord Collingwood, and relict of the late George Lewis Newnham Collingwood, Esq.
At Durham, Eliza Sophia, wife of the Rev. George Stanley Faber, Master of Sherburn Hospital.
At Hastings, Robert Horatio, son of Robert M. Westmacott
Esq. late of the 4th (King's Own), and grandson of Sir Richd.
Westmacott.
At Brighton, Charles Berner, only remaining child of John Thomas Ansell, Esq. of her Majesty's Customs, Shoreham.
At Eynesbury, Huntingdonshire, the Rev. William Palmer, Prebendary of Lincoln, and 43 years Rector of Eynesbury.
At Penzance, Lieut. William Stevens, late of the Royal Sappers and Miners. He served in the battle of Waterloo.
At Canons Ashby, Northamptonshire, Dame Elizabeth Dryden, widow of the Rev. Sir Henry Dryden, Bart.
At Beverley, Rear Admiral Henry Gage Morris, aged 82.
At Rothsay, Isle of Bute, Mary, wife of the Very Rev. Samuel Hood, Dean of Argyle and the Isle.
At Madrid, the Hon. Urania Caroline, widow of the Hon.
Lieut. General John Melde, and daughter of the late Hon.
Edward and Lady Arabella Ward.
Of cholera, at Kentucky, Mr. Andrew Fawl, soap and tallow chandler, formerly of this City.

Richard Dobbyn,
Edward Grange,
John Andrews,
Patrick Fitzgerald, me
John Tarrant,
Morgan O'Connell, Tip
Thomas Harney,
William King,
Michael Mullally,
James England, mercha
Patrick Conroy, do
John Bradshaw, do
James Carley, do
Thomas Byrne, do
James Kennedy, do
William O'Leary, do
Richard Sadleir, do
Patrick Coman, do
Timothy Kelly, do
John Lanphier, auction
John Conroy, coach bu

*Magistrates, Gentlemen
Town and Neigh*

GENTLEMEN,

THE highly flattering fying address with pleased to present me, I deepfelt gratitude. Wo ings. I came amongst me doubly feel the oblig considering me worthy o
and approbation of my c
I endeavoured to do r ability without offence t enough to believe that I such strong expressions fore attribute them to rather than to any merit
as long as GOD spares m and lively sense of the h
well as a dear remembr evinced towards me by and neighbourhood of T residence amongst them.
The handsome prese
address, is a further t favour, and increases (if my obligations to you, a life, and every prosper afford,

I hav

Your most obl