DEATHS.

At Odleville, in this County, on the 5th inst. in the prime of life, to the deep and inexpressible regret of her numerous friends, Elizabeth, relict of the late John O'Dell, Esq.—a lady whose many virtues endeared her to those who had the pleasure of enjoying her acquaintance. She was youngest daughter of the late Richard Power, Esq. of Munroe, county Tipperary, yesterday morning, at his country residence, Waterpark, opposite Castle-Connell, of disease of the heart, deeply and universally regretted, Catherine, the beloved wife of John Quin, Esq. of this City. She was most humane and benevolent to the poor—a liberal friend to the public charities of Limerick—and by devoted and earnest attention to religious obligations, as well as domestic duties, had prepared herself for a happy eternity, trusting in the mercy of the Lord. Her remains will be interred at Shanagolden to-morrow.

On Thursday last, at his residence, Bedford-row, of decline, Mr. Richard Wall, only son of the late Mr. R. Wall, of the Grand Parade, Cork, glover.
