DEATHS.

At Bruff, on the 11th inst after a short illness, almost in the prime of life, and humbly trusting in the Saviour, Robert Cary, Esq. Sub-Inspector of Constabulary, youngest and last surviving son of the late Rev. Edward Cury, Rector of Newtownbarry, county Wexford. By this sad affliction a fond wife and six young children are deprived of their only stay, a large and respectable circle of friends lose the seciety of due whom they sincerely loved, and the force is deprived of an officer whose experience, temper, tact and judgement, often prevented disturbance, and always secured prompt obedience to the laws. This was so much felt in Bruff (where Mr. Cary was stationed for 14 years) during the long period of famine, that the Relief Committee forwarded to the Government the unanimous expression of their grateful sense of his services, and an answer was returned thro' Mr. Corry Connellan, promising that so marked a testimouy in Mr. Cary's favour would be duly weighed and carefully preserved. The remains of this excellent and much-beloved officer were interred in Bruff Churchyard this afternoon, amidst a large number of sincere mourners of all classes and both persuasions.

At his residence in Cashel, on Tuesday last, Henry White, Esq. of Golden Hills, Tipperary, in the 85th year of his, age, brother-in-law of the late Robert Maunsell, Esq. of this City. At her house, in Clare street, on Wednesday might last, Catherine, widow of the late Stephen Bourke, Esq. of this City, and mother of the Rey. William Bourke, P.P. of St. John's. In the endearing relations of domestic intercourse she was exemplary as wife and mother-charitable to the poor, most kindly and sincere in all her social attachments. The remembrance of her private virtues will console the family and friends she loved. At her father's residence, in Sexton-street, on Wednesday night, Rebecca, aged 19 years, eldest daughter of Mr. John Ramsay, Wesleyan Minister. Beaford-row Chapel, sincerely regretted by a large circle of sorrowing friends. Her end was
