DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at his mother's house in Lower Hartstonge-street, after a few days illness, Thomas, the youngest son of the late Edward Parker, Esq. of this City. The premature death of this young gentleman is a source of the deepest afflic-tion to his family, to whom he was endeared by his amiable disposition and every virtue that could adorn the Christian character.

On Sunday evening last, immediately after dinner, at his house in Clare-street, Mr. Patrick Farrell, Miller and Brewer—a strictly honest, upright, and religious man, whose awfully sudden death is deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

At Tarbert, on the 27th inst. in the prime of life, after a short and painful illness, William Hinde, Esq.—a young gentleman beloved, respected, and sincerely regretted by all who had the happiness of his acquaintance.

At Cooga, county Clare, Maria, the beloved wife of Thomas Lingard, Esq. late 25th Regt. and daughter of William Kenny, Esq. of Cragleigh. This lady enjoyed the love and esteem of all who knew her, and her death is regretted by all classes.
Her remains were interred at Ruan, followed by a large concourse of sympathising friends and relatives.

At Skreen Rectory, of a lingering illness, the Rev. William Crofton, Rector of Skreen, diocese of Killala, and which is in the gift of Trinity College.

On the 24th inst. at Kanturk, Benjamin Savage, Esq.

At Rosevale, Rathmines, Harriet Augusta, eldest daughter of the late Stephen Moore, Esq. of Salisbury, co. Tipperary.

At Drimoleague, Dora, wife of the Rev. Thomas Hickey.

At Lakeel, Cork, Charles Daly, Esq.

At Kilgarriffe, Alice, daughter of W. Bence Jones, Esq.

At Nicholas-street, Cork, Mr. Wm. Belcher, architect.

In Carrick-on-Suir, Ellen, relict of the late James Power, Esq. M.D.

Samuel Thomas Carter, Esq. Commander in Royal Navy.

At Bantry, Ellen, wife of Daniel Kirby, Esq. North Cork Militia.

At Claregalway, Walter W. Lynch, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At Belmullet, the daughter of Arthur Rose, Esq.

At Parsonstown, Susan Amelia and Frances Maude, daughters of Alfred Kelly, Esq.

Rev. James O'Connor, P.P. Ardfinnan.

At Fernoy, on the 24th inst. Mary, the beloved wife of Color Serjeant G. M. Wynne, 82d Regt. sincerely regretted.

At Castlepollard, aged 81 years, Miss Anne Ryan.

At his chambers in Trinity College, the Rev. Thomas De Vere Coneys, Professor of Irish.

In Baggot-street, Frederick Sanders, youngest son of Wm.
F. Darley, LL.D. Barrister-at-Law.

At Middle Gardiner-street, Miss Sarah Wisdom.

The Rev. A. O'Reilly, P.P. Navan.

At his house, Stephen-street, Mr. O'Neill, aged 60.

At Bengal Terrace, Finglas-road, Matilda, wife of Wm. F.
Mathewson, Esq.

At Gurvalt, county Cavan, aged 80, Mr. M. M'Gauran.

Charlotte Elizabeth, only child of Lyttleton H. Lyster, Esq.

On Sunday, quite suddenly, the Rev. Savage Hall, Rector of Loughill, Armagh.

At Augbrim-street, Teresa, eldest daughter of Mr. Superin-tendant Dundon, D division metropolitan police, aged 12.

At his residence, Charlemont-street, Henry Wade, Esq.

At Twelfth Lock, Grand Canal, Mr. Michael Murray, for 28 years Collector and Comptroller in the Grand Canal Company's service.

The son of Mr. P. Darcy.

John Stratford Saunders, Esq. of Goldenfort.

At the Glebe House, the Rev. George N. Knox, Rector of Ballynahinch, diocese of Derry.

Elizabeth Anna, wife of the Rev. John Lyle, of Knockarna, county Londonderry.

At Liverpool, Capt. George Carter, late 6th Regt.

At the Isle of Wight, Robert Moffatt, Esq. of the firm of T.
and R. Moffatt, merchants, London.
