

... charitable and christ-
... festive occasion, ex-
... ty to the bereaved and
... n property at Aghadoe,
... trict. By distribution
... ship has made many a
... ppy.

... ly, Esq. DL, Debs-
... individuals a substantial
... distributed among them
... el for clothing.

... way town commission-
... an, said, the Midland
... cted as it ought to be,
... dverse to the interests
... arly shown at an eating
... s since, and which was ... in testimony of their
... at be." Mr. John F.
... are a wanton set of ... Ennis is on the look
... and that's the cause

... g was held in Galway,
... Native Industry. A
... t Board of Manufac-
... Messrs. Frazer, Lynch,
... n, accompanied by their
... y. Anthony O'Flaherty,

... mmittee of the Privy
... n of the Encumbered
... a judgment should be ... e.

... shaded" was the chief
... f Design, and the first
... y, John Slattery, from
... career in the fine arts
... Wilkie.

... published in London a
... posed by E White, and

... The musical score is
... ancing, and the waltzes
... tly, the first and third

... Irish gentleman, died at
... and the local tribunal
... the descendants of his
... of his half-sister.

... circular, it appears that
... erpool last year. 234
... period, and now for sale
... mers.

... rt of last impression :
... th Light Infantry leave
... ny. The military are
... lifax.

... Belfast, has succeeded to
... cle in Barbadoes.
... s port, has arrived safe

... Croom, acknowledges
... ckson, of Croom castle,
... t destitute families of

... ly acknowledges from
... and £11 10s her collec-

... of Wm. Astell, Esq. M.P.

DEATHS.

At Belmont, Castle-Connell, Margaret Mary, the eldest and beloved daughter of John White, Esq. of this City—a young lady of endearing manners and amiable disposition. Her remains were interred this morning in the family vault at St. John's Church.

At Derrahina, the seat of her nephew, Cuthbert Fetherston Haugh, Esq. at an advanced age, and in full assurance of faith, Mary, daughter of the late Andrew Welsh, Esq. of Newtown House, county Clare.

On Thursday, after a few days illness, of fever, at his house, Patrick-street, John Corbett, Esq. Town Councillor—an estimable young gentleman, taken off in the prime of life, to the deep regret of his numerous friends and extensive connexions.

On Thursday, at his seat, South Ville, near this City, John Spillane, Esq. an upright, worthy, and charitable citizen. He was esteemed and respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

In Anne-street, aged 11 years, Henry, son of the late Mr. Adam Denmeade, of this City—a most interesting boy.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, in the 89th year of his age, Sir Richard Bligh St. George, Bart. M.P. for the borough of Athlone, in the Irish parliament.

Thomas Greer, Esq. proprietor of Suir Island Mills, Clonmel. He was a young man of the strictest honor and integrity.

At her residence, Blackrock, at an advanced age, Maria, widow of the late Major Croker, of the 38th Regt.

On Monday, the 28th, at Richmond Place, Dublin, after a long illness, borne with extreme patience, Miss Mary Fitzgerald, deeply regretted.

Patrick J. Mahony, Esq. of Luffanna House, Cashel.

At Ennis, Miss Mary Lewis, of Newmarket-on-Fergus.

On the 1st inst. at Pleasant Villa, Rathgar, Robert Prescott, Esq. Secretary Dundalk and Enniskillen railway company.

At Portland-place, aged 13 years, Reuben Patterson, son of Mr. J. P. Conway.

At Parsonstown, Louisa, wife of Alfred Kelly, Esq.

At Dungah Park, Miss Evans, deeply regretted by her circle of relations and acquaintances.

At Castlerea, county Roscommon, the Very Rev. John Tighe, P.P.

At Enfield, John Ferguson, Esq. in his 82d year.

At Moore Lodge, county Antrim, Ann, daughter of the late Richard Rothe, Esq. of Mount Rothe, county Kilkenny.

Robert Blair, Esq. of Tasagh.

Robert Thompson, Esq. of Annagassan, Castleblinham.

At Cardiff, Mr. Peter Thomas, master of the brig Thistle, of Waterford, and for years in the employ of Jacob Peurose, Esq.

At Rochdale-road, Manchester, Anne, wife of Mr. John O'Coffey, late of the Irish Constabulary.

At Birmingham, James Russell, Esq. an eminent surgeon.

At Great Barr Hall, Staffordshire, Sir Edward Dolman Scott, Bart.

At Southampton, Lieut. Edward Lloyd Cooper, R.N. late of her Majesty's ships Herald and Plover, aged 37, on his return from the Arctic Expedition.

Mr. James Macdonald, of the firm of David and James Macdonald and Co. Glasgow.

Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the late W. Reece, Esq. Connaught-square.

In Brighton, the Rev. Edward Levett Thoroton, of Rowley, Yorkshire.

At the Uplands, near Bridgnorth, aged 75 years, J. F. Wyld, Esq. formerly surgeon of the 7th Dragoon Guards.

Eliza, wife of John Gallagher, Esq. Wolverhampton.

At Ratisbon, Mabella Jane, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Hawthorne, H.E.I.C. late of Belcamp House, county Dublin.

At Niagara, Canada West, George Deare, Esq. Captain Royal Canadian Rifle Regiment.

At Toronto, William FitzGerald, Esq. late of Blackfort, co. Tipperary.

At Lyttleton, Canterbury Settlement, New Zealand, Mr. Thomas Glover Hart, son of Mr. Hart, of Reigate; and the Rev. Horace Hodgkisson, son of George Hodgkisson, Esq. of Newark.

After a short illness, very much lamented, Mr. John Dobbyn of the Limerick Club.

At Baltinglass, John S. Saunders, Esq. formerly 58th Regt. son of the late General Saunders.

Mr. James Murney, Customs, Newry.

Rev. James Beatty, Presbyterian pastor, Dundalk.

Admiral Richard Barker, aged 92.

Major Butler, late 72nd.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

General—Paul Anderson, C.B. Col. 78 F.

General—C.B. K.C.H.

ties Act, I cheerfully join, as your experience, as a Guardian years, and an active member having for its object, the relief poor. You are fully qualified will be carried out so as effect at the least possible expense to Allow me further to add, much felt by the poor of your my own knowledge, I can say accommodation in that now fine Fever Hospital," the citizens are untiring exertions, and which a monument of your zeal in bel citizens.

With many wishes for you subscribe myself, my dear Doct

JOHN BARRINGTON

William J. Geary, Esq, MD

59, George-street

MY DEAR SIR—Amidst the life, there are few circumstances reflecting mind than the recogn discharge faithfully the duties entrusted; and that opinion be sured and appreciated when con once frank and kind hearted, su resolution of the board of guard as chairman, honored me.

I wish I could adequately say fit of the opportunity to acquit and acceptable duty of tenderin deep sense of gratitude with wh the invariable indulgence with during the many years of our a much of the experience for whic is due—to the business habits, gence by which the proceedings mittees were distinguished, I a for the overestimated qualitie recognise my suitability for the under the Medical Charities Ac sir, to be convinced that, whil kindness of the board, I an for the allusions embodied such a recognition of my par pvements recently made in St tal, it would be affectation not exertions of my heart and unc tered in the struggle which ever and airy building of which you mention. To little, however, I terest, can I lay claim—all else charity, and benevolent perseve of the committee under the guid by the example of their chairma Limerick, the value of whose la timated by the fact, that Forty patients were treated in that ho teen years of my attendance as Allow me to request your acc acknowledgments for the very k in which your letter is coucl yours ever sincerely,

WM.

John Barrington, Esq. 99, G

Limerick