GEARY TESTIMONIAL—The following letter has been received by the Rev. Mr. Brahan, P.P. from our respected City Member, John O'Brien, Esq.—
"Elmvale, 9th January, 1852,
"Corofin.

"MY DEAR DR. BRAHAN.

"Be so good as to attach my name to the subscrip- tion list for the testimonial to Doctor Geary. Let me say how gladly I pay this small tribute of respect to our excellent friend and valued fellow citizen—and whose recent appointment to official station reflects credit upon the discriminating patronage of the Government.

Believe me, my dear Doctor Brahan,
Your's in faith,
JOHN O'BRIEN.

Rev. John Brahan, P.P.

Portobello Hotel,
DUBLIN,

F. Wilkinson, Proprietor,

IN returning thanks to the Nobility and Gentry for the patronage he has so long received, begs to solicit a continuance of it. The situation of her Establishment is most desirable, it being in a very healthy and beautiful locality, and free from the noise and bustle of the town. Bed and Breakfast, with Tea or Meat, sixteen shillings per week. All other charges will be found equally moderate. Omnibuses pass the Hotel every five minutes to the Bank of Ireland and General Post Office.

DEATHS.

At Abbeyville, Mrs. Maunsell, the beloved wife of the Rev. Richard Maunsell, the Rector of Abbey, county Tipperary. This lady devoted herself, through a long life, to the service of God, by her unremitting care of the orphan, and she has departed to her eternal rest regretted by all who had the happiness of knowing her. She was Secretary to the Ladies' Patronesses of the Bazaar held in Clonmel for the benefit of the Tipperary Orphan Society.
Sunday evening last at his house in George-street, aged 27 years, Jane, the truly amiable and beloved wife of James Marshall, Esq. of this City, to the profound grief of a most devoted husband and the irreparable loss of an interesting young family, prematurely, alas, bereft of a parent whom admiring friends and relatives fondly hoped would be long spared for the happiness of that endearing domestic circle, whose joy and delight she was, until the Angel of Death marked his fair victim for a better sphere of life. Unexpected as the summons was, it did not find her unprepared, as the virtuous impressions of early years had secured their benign influence. She quietly awaited, in patient suffering, yet firm reliance upon the all-sufficient Saviour's atonement, the exchange to that everlasting kingdom, where faithful souls abide; and her pure spirit eventually took its peaceful flight, amidst the tears and prayers of that precious household so dear to her affections in this world. The remains of the lamented Mrs. Marshall were this morning interred at St. John's Church, attended by a numerous and most respectable concourse of sympathising friends.
