

Rev Mr Scanlan, PP, and Long were the sufferers. arrear at this period of the ment weather, and the sat- and from incessant rains. A and has been set apart for the great number of fields o the peasantry at £8 per and farmers, it is certain ge additional area under the sly low prices in the wheat rvest operated much against this year. Oats and barley e.

of the Tralee union is charged ev Mr Norman's silver plate The parties charged with to be tried at the Assizes. a dinner was given in the ore, to commemorate the s, which have proved so neighbourhood. The chair n Craven Carden, Bart. master, and Capt. Simmons, east of the Army and Navy, y Arthur, won the Kirkham, £100 added on Wednesday Vengeance by a length.

in part of last impression :
guardians this day signed at the great Protectionist ast December, against Free o the interests of this country. Mark, of Dame-st. tea aud ne village of Coagh, the house oollendraper, was burned to fell a victim to the flames, sons and a servant maid! &c., were also destroyed. ey are to return one member ough of Sudbury having been ough, towns in Ireland with of 500.

THE General Election Committee.
e, formed at the meeting of porters of the Earl of Arundel the 12th Inst. are requested ext, the 16th Inst. at Two wn Hall, on important busi- meet every future Monday at place.
Limerick, Feb. 14.

Hector Maclean, eldest son of Sir J. D. Maclean, of Alderston, to Anne Charlotte, widow of the late Lieut.-Col. Lewis Bird.
At Beccles, Joseph B. son of Lieut.-General Smith, to Georgina, daughter of F. W. Farr. Esq.
At Ryde, Robert Gordon, Esq. late 66th Regt. to Isabella, daughter of the late Rear Admiral Hood Christian.
In New York, Mr. John Jones, to Martha, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Williams, Esq. of Waterford.
At Paris, George Gollop, Esq. late Lieutenant 2d Queen's Royals, to Jessie Caroline, daughter of the Rev. Hugh Wolman Helyar, of Sutton Bingham, Somersetshire.
At Benares, Bengal, Lieut. Frederick Gilbert Jellicoe, 53d Regiment N.I. to Sarah Emily, daughter of the Rev. Richard Barton, Rector of Brightwalton, Berks.

DEATHS.

At Ballingoola Glebe, in this County, the residence of his father, on the 12th inst. after a protracted illness, John Fitz-Gerald, Esq. M.D.—a physician of eminence and respectability.
At Queenstown, Doctor Edward Millet, of the Army Medical Staff, many years a magistrate of the county Cork.
At his father's residence, in Cecil-street, aged 26 years, of decline, Henry, son of Mr. Robert Braxton—a young man sincerely regretted by his family and friends.
At Pembroke-road, in his 22d year, Robert Hall, eldest son of Captain Sir Robert Hagan, R.N.
At his residence, Lower Mount-street, James Wallcott Fitz-Gerald, Esq. in his 82d year.
At Springvale, county Galway, Mary, wife of Francis W. Lynch, Esq.
At Fermoy, Jonathan W. Sherlock, Solicitor.
At Tullamore, Mrs. Catherine Dann.
At Roebuck, county Dublin, Richard Watkins, Esq.
At Indiaville, Mary, wife of Charles L. Sandes, Esq.
At Lower Mount-street, Eliza Durdin, widow of the late Captain Durdin, Deputy Governor of the county of Cork, and J.P. of the county Carlow.
In Dorset-street, Anne, relict of James Litton, Esq. of Kilkoskin, and youngest daughter of the late Col. Robert Bentley, Royal Engineers.
At East Barnet, Sarah, widow of John Cheyne, Esq. M.D. Physician General to the Forces in Ireland.
At the residence of her daughter, in Devonshire, Eliza, relict of George Fairfield, Esq. late of the Coldstream Guards, and mother of Major Fairfield, of Wilton-square, Dublin.
At the Isle of Wight, the Rev. H. Marindin, brother of Captain Marindin, Royal Regt.
At Hadleigh, Suffolk, Henry Fitzherbert, son of the Very Rev. H. B. Knox.
At Ramsgate, the residence of her nephew, Major Buckley, Miss Catherine O'Reilly.
At Woodlands, near Emsworth, L. A. Burton, Esq. a magistrate of Middlesex and Hants.
On the 4th inst. at Guildford, Joseph Haydon, Esq. in the 69th year of his age.
R. C. Elwes, Esq. of Billing, Northamptonshire, aged 80.
At Dover, Emma, daughter of Lt.-Col. Everest.
Suddenly, James Brancker, Esq. brother of Sir Thomas Brancker, Liverpool.
In Charlotte-street, Portland-place, Mr. George Payne, in his 80th year.
At Milliken, county Renfrew, Sir William Miliken Napier, Bart. a deputy lieutenant and convener of the county Renfrew.
At Woburn-place, Thomas Holcroft, Esq. formerly secretary to the Asiatic Society.
In Wimpole-street, Lieut.-Colonel George Paul Le Messurier, Bombay Army.
At Clapham-common, Mary Anne, relict of the late Edmond Bellamy, Esq.
At Hasthope Rectory, the Rev. Robert Armitage, Rector of East Hope, and Incumbent of Church Preen, Hereford diocese.
At Dalston, Mr. E. Burgess, late of the Hackney-road.
In Paris, the Dowager Lady Rancliffe.
At Frankfort-on-the-Maine, Sir Alex. Mackenzie Downie, M.D. to the British Legation there.
At Grove, Stillorgan, in the 77th year of his age, John Hughes, Esq. for thirty years secretary to the barrack department of Ireland.
At Burgh-quay, H. Acland, Esq. well known in sporting circles.
At Portarlinton, Jane, wife of Mr. Henry Goff.
At Westport, the Rev. Terence O. Keane, R.C.C.

his OLD STOCK, and has no- cing the ARRIVAL OF HIS N the Finest TEAS ever impo- being determined to suppl- rick with an article in Te- mand their admiration, he- of many years in the first- ments in the united kingdo- purchase; and he feels cor- qualities, such as great str- delicious and delicate flavo- sustain and increase that- this Establishment has en- As a proof of the above, y- Tea at 4s, and compare it w- and 5s for elsewhere. You- Tea at 3s 8d and 3s 4d, w- their respective prices, and- Tea sold at much higher p- COFFEE ROASTED AND GI- DA- The Rich Old Mocha, so m- Strong Jamaica, 1s 4d. Plantation Ceylon, at 10d Sparkling Loaf Sugar, a- at 6d per lb. Baker and Co's Fancy- from 7d per lb.

James

Successor to A. 4, George-street, next Cru

CROOM

Assistant S

THE Guardians of the DAY, the 24th Febru person to fill the above of annum, with rations and The duties of the perso- pally be to instruct the fe- branches of Needle Wor- several other branches of Workhouses and other assist the Schoolmistress- larity, and will be require testimonials of her capabi- moral conduct.

A person conversant w- Education, combined wit- will be preferred. Tenders, accompanied- cimens of Needle work, & writing, will be received- Tuesday, the 24th Inst.

By O. Beard Room, Feb, 10