

...to their
...their
...considerable
...COAL, in
...Office) p
...north
...limited
...Berth f
...expressly
...domestic u
...Capt
...Price, 1
...apply to
...Loche's-st
...Wallace
...March 24
...intelligen
...experienc
...and Stat
...red sover
...can pro
...these fe
...to refer to
...with whom
...March 24
...552
...Quart
...City
...commence
...at Ten
...Market Juris
...for Spirit
...disposed of
...WEDNESDAY
...of the Peace
...Months, sub
...Premise
...ate in Mary
...March 20
...side out of this
...in all her
...them always
...fitted up and
...quality, which
...rojoage.
...the Captain on
...Ship and Emi-
...of the under-
...Philip Wm
...Cornelius
...March 24
...and weather
...NGER SHIP
...as a favourite
...Port, remarka-
...her landing her
...his spacious and
...entilation. She
...with Fuel,
...Tea, Sugar, &c.
...most comfortably
...Passengers.
...about the
...Owners,
...Co.,
...rick, March 8.

DEATHS.
Yesterday, in the fullness of years and honor, at his house in George-street, aged 85, universally esteemed and regretted, James Tandy Wilkinson, Esq. M.D. senior Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, senior of his professional brethren in this City and County, and of the Medical and Surgical faculty of the province of Munster. Dr. Wilkinson was connected with most of the public Institutions, literary, scientific, or charitable, in Limerick, from their infancy, and for considerably more than half a century he enjoyed most extensive private practice, with the fullest confidence and respect of every rank in our large community. He was for 45 years Surgeon of the County Infirmary and County Gaol, and the oldest life member in existence of the Royal Irish Academy, having been admitted four years only after its incorporation in 1786. The memory of this venerated gentleman will be long cherished by his beloved wife, a devoted family, and numerous friends. In the social or professional circle every virtue emblematic of pure benevolence, manly candor, sincere truth, genuine goodness of heart, combined with unblemished integrity of character, might be found in the person of Dr. James Tandy Wilkinson—a spontaneous tribute to moral excellence, which we record on the part of our fellow-citizens. His remains are to be interred in the family vault at Abington, in this County, on Friday next.
At his residence, Killyera, near Dublin, on the 18th inst. at the advanced age of 87, John Sealy Townsend, Myross Wood, county Cork, Esq. The cotemporary and competitor of Plunket, he entered Trinity College in the year 1779, and was called to the bar in 1787. He filled the office of law adviser at the Castle for 20 years, and was made Master in Chancery in the year 1826, and continued until the year 1846, when he retired. He survived all his children but one, a daughter, and is succeeded in his estates by his grandson, John Hancock Townsend, Esq.
On Monday last, at his residence in Queen-st., Mr. John Harshorn, brother of Capt. Harshorn, 24th Regt.
On the 19th inst. at Ballymoyne Glebe, the Rev. Robert Meade, aged 83, for 54 years Rector of the parish of Ballymoyne, in the gift of Trinity College, Dublin.
In Dominick-street, Honora, wife of Mr. John Byres, Cabinet-maker, and mother of the late Mr. John Byres, of this City, a distinguished science graduate and medalist of Trinity College, Dublin.
At No. 3, Tontine Buildings, Mrs. Margaret Hallinan, a most faithful and devoted domestic, for the long period of 44 years, in the family of Mrs. D. G. Maloney.
At his residence, Silverton, Rathbarney, Colonel William Miller, C.B. K.H. half-pay Artillery, and late Deputy Inspector General of Cavalry, aged 84, Margaret Coote, relict of Captain George Coote, 24th Regt. and grandmother of Sir Wm. Coote. Captain Coote was the descendant of General Sir Eyre Coote, who distinguished himself in India.
At Abbeville, Caher, Lilly, wife of John B. Lane, Esq. and daughter of John D. Waters, Esq.
At Lota View, Blackrock, Sarah Haughton, youngest child of Thomas Manly, Esq.
At the Abbey Convent, Galway, the Rev. Patrick Burke, O.S.F. in the 53rd year of his age.
At Knocknass, Kerry, the residence of his late father, Denis D. Duggan, Esq. J.P. Daniel Collins, Esq.
At Castle Eyre, the wife of Wm. Louth, Esq.
At his lodgings in Cornwalis-street, Mr. John O'Keefe, of Cashel, woollen draper.
At Castle Connell, Mr. John White, shopkeeper.
At Callinaburgh Mayo, at an advanced age, Peter Tuohy, Esq. of Loughrea, Anne, wife of Thomas Macklin, Esq. T.C.
At Ballina, Mayo, Mr. Henry Joynt, sen.
James M. Lynch, Esq. of Loughrea.
John Murray, Esq. aged 52 years, nephew to the late Most Rev. Dr. Murray, and for many years he held an important situation in the Hibernian Bank.
At Howth, in his 73d year, Michael Sweetman, Esq. of Longzawa House, county Kildare.
At Kingstown, Christopher Balfe, Esq.
At Great Charles-street, Mrs. Elizabeth Foley.
Elizabeth, wife of Robert Simpson Esq. Rutland-square.
At the Harwicke Hospital, Constable Michael Keating, of the Dublin Metropolitan Police, a native of Thurles.
In Jervis-street, on the 21st inst. J. De Jean Frazier, a working upholsterer, and poetic contributor to the Nation.
At his father's residence in Cork, Mr. John Hallissey, for many years Reporter of the Nenagh Guardian.
In Tralee, the daughter of Richard Blennerhassett, Esq. J.P. At his residence, Kingstown, Mr. Wm. Keegan.
Joseph M'Allister, Esq. formerly Surgeon of 4th Battalion Canadian Militia, son of the late John M'Allister, Esq. of Cumberland-creech.
At Millvale, Cusheadall, Mr. John M'Brade, aged 87 years.
At Crumlin, Elizabeth, relict of the Rev. Nathaniel Alexander, and daughter of the late Rev. John Bankhead, Ballycarry, Bernard Ward, Esq. of Tralee, near Downpatrick, one of the owners of the county Down.
At Ballyvaughan, Mr. James Fisher, aged 73.
At Redemptio, Alfred Augustus, son of Lucius Carey, Esq. At Dunsingre, Ann, relict of the late Mr. William Christie, at the advanced age of 80 years.
At Crumlin, in his 92nd year, Michael Dowdall, Esq. late of Corroendo, county Galway.
On the 14th inst. at Manchester, Mr. John Halahan, formerly a respectable grocer and spirit merchant of this city.
In London, aged 76 years, John Purcell Fitzgibbon, Esq. of Little Island, county Waterford, and brother of the late Peter Purcell, Esq.
At Richmond, Theresa, daughter of the late James Dease, of Turbiton, Westmeath, Esq. and the relict of the Rev. John Irvine, British Consular Chaplain, Genoa.
The Rev. Philip Hanham, M.A. Rector of Hinton Martel, Dorsetshire, son of the late Rev. Sir James Hanham, Bart.
At Gogar-hank, near Edinburgh, in her 86th year, the Hon. Elizabeth Dundas, widow of the Right Hon. Robert Dundas, of Arnisdon, Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and daughter of Henry, 1st Viscount Melville.
At St. James's Palace, aged 74, Major General Sir Henry Wheatley, Bart. late of King William the 4th's household.
At Ushaw College, near Durham, William Valentine, only son of John Errington, Esq. High Warden, Northumberland.
At West Cowes, Isle of Wight, Maria Clara, relict of Col. George Robertson, and daughter of J. Cuthbert, Esq.
At Lyndhurst, Hants, John Frederick Breton, Esq. late of the Royal Horse Artillery.
At London-road, St. John's-wood, C. Morrison, Esq. late of Cayton.
At Drove, Sussex, Caroline Sophia, wife of Capt. Kingscote.
John Harry, Esq. M.D. formerly private physician to her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess of Oldenbourg.
At Paris, Mrs. O'Connor, widow of Hugh O'Connor, Esq. and daughter of the late Charles Brown Mostyn, Esq.
At New York, Mr. James Pike, cabinet-maker, of Clonmel.
At Bangalore, Captain William Gilbert Don, Commandant of the Hill Rangers.
Lost, on the Coast of Africa, in a captured slave, Gilbert Elliot, Lieut. R.N. son of the Dean of Bristol.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

PROTESTANT ORPHAN SOCIETY.—DEATH OF JOHN MAUDE, ESQ.
On the 10th inst. at Moor House, near Wakefield, in the 81st year of his age, JOHN MAUDE, Esq. D.L. and Vice Patron of the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society, ceased to be mortal. The deep sorrow that pervades a large community, on learning the departure of this public benefactor, demonstrates the vast and surpassing, because Divinely appointed, superiority of truly Christian beneficence in ameliorating, as one man, the great mass of society. Mr. Maude contributed to the Famine, £550 5s. to the relief of our Protestant orphans, as this sum may appear to many, it was but a fragment compared with his other charities, and given without effort. For, knowing and trusting in "the great atoning sacrifice" of CHRIST, and for all made upon the cross, his favorite hope, and having abundant means, his want being few and fast, in the most spiritual, he only yielded to the power of that constraining love of God, which provided that atonement and bestows the greatest of all blessings, even eternal life, as a free gift! This grateful love, for such undeserved and unrestricted goodness, acted as a lever in uprooting miserly selfishness, and in substituting, for that barren or poisonous seed, the heavenly plant of Christian charity. No former spirit that Mr. Maude's benefactions, in amount and spirit, reflected the origin and became larger the nearer he advanced towards Home. As the outward man decayed the inner became stronger, and near did "his light shine so brightly before men to glorify his Father which is in heaven," as when the earthly tabernacle was crumbling to dust. A few days only before his departure, the last fruit of his benevolence, in a letter, which he had once showed to his high and noble spirit, and which he had long and bravely, in the same spirit, which preserved so long, honored and loved, and which he had provided. Only may grace be given to the conduct of this Charity to maintain, in spirit and in letter, the noble principle so blessed of God and approved by His people.

...to their
...their
...considerable
...COAL, in
...Office) p
...north
...limited
...Berth f
...expressly
...domestic u
...Capt
...Price, 1
...apply to
...Loche's-st
...Wallace
...March 24
...intelligen
...experienc
...and Stat
...red sover
...can pro
...these fe
...to refer to
...with whom
...March 24
...552
...Quart
...City
...commence
...at Ten
...Market Juris
...for Spirit
...disposed of
...WEDNESDAY
...of the Peace
...Months, sub
...Premise
...ate in Mary
...March 20
...side out of this
...in all her
...them always
...fitted up and
...quality, which
...rojoage.
...the Captain on
...Ship and Emi-
...of the under-
...Philip Wm
...Cornelius
...March 24
...and weather
...NGER SHIP
...as a favourite
...Port, remarka-
...her landing her
...his spacious and
...entilation. She
...with Fuel,
...Tea, Sugar, &c.
...most comfortably
...Passengers.
...about the
...Owners,
...Co.,
...rick, March 8.

Theatre Royal, Limerick.
FOR FOUR NIGHTS ONLY.
THURSDAY EVENING, 25TH MARCH,
Most positively the Last Night.
HENRY RUSSELL,
Composer of "Woodman, Spare that Tree," "I'm Ahoat," "The Maniac," &c. &c.
WILL present his Two New Entertainments, entitled THE FAR WEST, The Emigrants Progress from the Old World to the New, which will consist of Families leaving Liverpool—Crossing the Atlantic—Arrival at New York—The Falls of Niagara—The Felling of the Forest—The Inundation—The Rolling Prairies—The Genesee Falls—A Winter in the Forest—The Sleigh Ride—Interior of an American Hotel, &c. &c. and in Slavery, Showing the aboriginal state of Negroes in Africa, and also their state of slavery.

Henry Russell will introduce the following new Songs:—
The Parting Tea, Parted have we been Farewell, my country Gaily goes the Ship as the Cheer, Boys, Cheer Wind blows fair
Land, Land, Land, to the The Falls of Niagara
West, the Land of the The African Village
Free, The Chase
Far, far upon the sea The Slave sale

And on each evening, Henry Russell will sing one or two of the following selection of his established favorites:—"Life on the Ocean wave," "The Gambler's Wife," "The Ship on Fire," "The Ivy Green," "The Maniac," &c.
Reserved seats, 3s; Boxes, 2s; Pit, 1s; Gallery, 6d.
Doors open at 7 past 7 to commence at 8 o'clock.
Tickets to be had at Corbett & Sons, Music Warehouse, 109, George-st.; and James D. Goggin, Printer to the Theatre Royal, 37, Patrick-st.
March 24.

Deafness, Noises in the Ears and DISEASES of the HEAD and NERVOUSNESS.
Dr. Saunders' and Bennett's
Consulting Rooms, in Limerick at CRUISE'S HOTEL AND
28, SOUTH MALL, CORK
THE new and extraordinary method of curing Deafness without Operations or use of Instrument by which sufferers, in one visit, are enabled to hear common conversation, which persons previously could scarcely be made to hear by loud speaking through an Ear Trumpet.
NOTICE FOR CORK AND LIMERICK,
Drs SAUNDERS and BENNETT, MD, MRCS, consulting Physicians to the Royal Dispensary for Diseases of the Ear, London, have arrived in Cork, and may be consulted by Patients.
By this recent providential discovery in Aural surgery, known and practised only by Drs SAUNDERS and BENNETT, guarantees to restore the hearing of persons of all ages and either sex, who may have been totally deaf for 40 or 50 years. Failure is proved to be next to impossible. Instances occurring daily at the consulting rooms. Patients applying quite deaf being enabled to hear a watch tick instantly the means have been applied. In its application it is free from pain or danger even to an infant.
Hundreds, weekly, have been cured, suffering in all the varied phases of the disease, from childhood to senility, in all parts of England, Scotland and Ireland.
In Cork upwards of Forty Patients, many of whom were totally deaf, have been cured within the space of Three Weeks, at their Consulting Rooms as above. Cases had been pronounced incurable by the old treatment, having tried every available means, and consulted many eminent members of the medical profession, but by all doomed to continual suffering, till rescued by Dr. SAUNDERS' visit to Ireland.
At the Dispensary for the Cure of Deafness, which Dr. SAUNDERS has the management of in London, 400 patients suffering from confirmed Deafness were subjected to his method, out of which only 20 cases remained uncured. A correspondent states:—"We have seen several instances of the cures of Deafness lately effected by Dr. SAUNDERS, the eminent Surgeon. The relief given is most magical. It completely baffles the most inveterate symptoms of the Disease; and really the worst case of Deafness must yield to the method resorted to."
February 23rd, 1852.
Mind Complaints, Head & Nervous Sufferers' Nervousness, and all its attendant miseries, A Certain Cure Guaranteed.
March 24.

LIMERICK UNION.
THE Board of Guardians, at their meeting upon Wednesday, the 31st of March inst. will receive Tenders for erection of
A WATER CLOSET
off the Passage leading from the Yard to the Board-room.
Tenders will be received by me up to 11 o'clock on the 31st inst.
By order,
CARROL NAISH,
Clerk of Union.
Office, March 23.

To Builders.
Mitchelstown Union.
THE Guardians of the above Union will, at their meeting to be held on TUESDAY, the 13th April, receive and consider Tenders for building a Boundary Wall around the ground of the new Workhouse.
The wall will be about 2,800 feet in length, and 9 feet high.
The specifications can be seen at my office, and any information required will be afforded on the grounds by the Clerk of Works.
Sealed Tenders, addressed to the chairman, giving the names of two solvent sureties, willing to join in a bond of £300, for the performance of the work, will be received by me, up to 11 o'clock on the above day.
By order,
NUGENT BULKELEY,
Clerk of the Union.
Poor Law Office, March 23. March 24.

JAMES MARSHALL
HAS RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM ROBERT M'MURRAY, ESQ.
(Who has set the above and adjoining Farms),
TO sell by strictly Unreserved Auction, on THURSDAY, the 1st of April, at Ballyanrahan
Demesne, within 4 miles of Limerick, the following choice Stock, &c.:-
25 Very good half-bred Heifers, 3 at May.
21 Well-bred Yearling Heifers.
61 High-bred Ewes, in Lamb, or with Lambs
at foot.
64 Two-year old Widders, most of which are fat.
1 Handsome two-year old Ram, from Mr. Holmes' flock.
21 Fat and forward Store Pigs.
6 Strong, fresh, young Farm Horses.
1 Handsome Bay Harness Horse, 5 years old.
THE FARMING IMPLEMENTS are of an improved kind, and in good order: they consist of:-
Iron Ploughs and Tackling, Harrows, Barrows, Carts, Drays, Harness, Turnip Cutter, Hay Chopper, Winnowing Machines, Beam, Scales, and Weights, Troughs, Ladders, Oat Bin, Seives, Riddles, Sacks, Tubs, Farm Bell, Hoes, Forks, &c. &c.
SALE AT TWELVE O'CLOCK.
Terms Cash. The usual commission of five per cent payable by purchasers.
As the Tenant requires immediate possession, all purchasers must be paid for and removed on the evening of sale.
JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer,
96, George-street.
March 24.

SALE OF VERY DESIRABLE PROPERTY,
SCHOONER, SLOOP, and TURF-BOAT,
Late the Property of Mr GEORGE WHELAN,
JAMES MARSHALL
WILL offer for unreserved auction, at the Limerick Commercial Mart, on Saturday, the 27th March inst. at 2 o'clock, the Interest in the Lease of 14 new Building Houses,
Known as Osington Terrace, situate opposite the Treaty Stone, Thomond Gate.
They are all at present occupied (and likely to be so) by respectable Tenants, and yield a clear Profit Rent of £120 annually. Also,
The Schooner Catherine, 57 Tons Register,
The Sloop Eliza, 27 " "
The Tuff Boat Michael, 23 " "
These Vessels have lately undergone thorough repair, are well found in rigging, spare, anchors, cables, sails, and all quite new.
For other information apply to Francis Spaight, Esq., at his office, Bedford-row.
Terms at Sale.
JAMES MARSHALL,
Auctioneer.
March 13.

Superior In-Calf Heifers.
JAMES MARSHALL
HAS received instructions from Wm. Riggs, Esq. (who is about changing his system of Farming), to sell by completely Unreserved Auction, on TUESDAY, the 6th of April, at Brackvone Farm
South Turnpike, BRUFF, Winter
80 Very Prime HEIFERS, In-Calf,
Most of which are well bred, and all in good condition, having been particularly well selected. They will be calving from about the 15th April to the middle of May, and will be sold singly with engagements. They are at present on the lands of Tullybrackey and Uregare, where they can be inspected any time prior to sale.
Sale at 12 o'clock, as all must be sold, settled for, and taken away in one day. Terms Cash. The usual commission of 5 per cent. payable by purchasers.
JAMES MARSHALL, Auctioneer.
March 24.

SALE IN LIMERICK.
In the Court of the Commissioners for Sale of INCUMBERED ESTATES In Ireland.
TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION.
In the matter of the Estate of THOMAS HARVEY TODD, HUNTER, and MICHAEL MURPHY, Assignee of RICHARD HOWARD, a Bankrupt, and Petitioner. BY direction of the Commissioners on Friday, the 26th day of March next, at the hour of One o'clock in the afternoon, by Mr. JAS. MARSHALL, at the Limerick Commercial Mart, Brunswick-street, Limerick, the following Houses and Premises situate in Cecil-street, in the City of Limerick, viz.:-
Lot 1.
The Plot of Ground, part of South Prior's Land whereon are built the House and Premises situate in Cecil-street, now in the possession of Mr. John L. Worrall, and one other House situate in Cecil-street, aforesaid now unset, together with a lot of Building Ground, held under a lease of Lives renewable for ever, subject to £26 per annum head rent, and a renewal fine of 6d on the fall of each life.
The House set to Mr. Worrall produces £25 per annum—the unset House is estimated at the same value.
2.
A Plot of Ground, part of South Prior's Land, with the Dwelling House and Premises built thereon, situate in Cecil-street, now unset, held under a lease for lives renewable for ever, subject to £4 10s per annum head rent, and a renewal fine of 6d on the fall of each life. The estimated value of the house is £20 per annum.
The Biddings will be submitted, without further notice to any person, to Mr. Commissioner Hargreave, at his Office, No. 14, Henrietta-street, Dublin, on Monday, the 29th day of March, 1852, and if approved of, the purchaser will be declared.
Dated this 28th day of February 1852.
HENRY CAREY,
Secretary.
For Rentals and further particulars, apply at the Office of the Commissioners, No. 14, Henrietta-street, Dublin, or to James Dillon Meldon, Solicitor for the Owners and Petitioners, having the Carriage of the Sale, No 14, Upper Ormond-Quay; or to Henry O'Shea, Solicitor for John Norris Russell, Limerick.
March 6.

...to their
...their
...considerable
...COAL, in
...Office) p
...north
...limited
...Berth f
...expressly
...domestic u
...Capt
...Price, 1
...apply to
...Loche's-st
...Wallace
...March 24
...intelligen
...experienc
...and Stat
...red sover
...can pro
...these fe
...to refer to
...with whom
...March 24
...552
...Quart
...City
...commence
...at Ten
...Market Juris
...for Spirit
...disposed of
...WEDNESDAY
...of the Peace
...Months, sub
...Premise
...ate in Mary
...March 20
...side out of this
...in all her
...them always
...fitted up and
...quality, which
...rojoage.
...the Captain on
...Ship and Emi-
...of the under-
...Philip Wm
...Cornelius
...March 24
...and weather
...NGER SHIP
...as a favourite
...Port, remarka-
...her landing her
...his spacious and
...entilation. She
...with Fuel,
...Tea, Sugar, &c.
...most comfortably
...Passengers.
...about the
...Owners,
...Co.,
...rick, March 8.

Sheriff's Sale.
By virtue of her Majesty's writ of Fieri Facias to me in this cause directed I will, on THURSDAY, the 26th day of March inst. at 12 o'clock noon, set up and sell by public Auction, "Marshall's Repository" in George-st., the following Goods and Chattels of the Defendant, seized by me under said writ, viz.:- A pair of well matched Brown Carriage Horses, 17 hands high, Old Brothers, g by Priam of Cigar's Dam, 6 and 7 years old, trained to single and double harness—they have beautiful high action, and are in fine hard condition; 2 Saddle Bridles.
Dated this 22d day of March, 1852.
WILLIAM GABBETT, Sheriff of the County of Limerick,
R. R. G. } the City of Limerick
JAMES MARSHALL,
Auctioneer.
March 24. D. Gelston

Attractive Auction.
AT the General Auction Mart, 5, Charlotte's-quay on THURSDAY, the 25th Inst.
P. COLEMAN will sell by completely unreserved Auction, on THURSDAY, the 25th Inst. at the General Auction Mart, 5, Charlotte's Quay, a vast collection of Household Furniture, both modern, useful, and ornamental, being removed from Clonru Cottage, for the convenience of sale, and well worth the attention of parties furnishing.
FOR THE DRAWING-ROOM.
Large Carpet, Rug, and Crumb Cloth; Fender; Fire Irons, Chimney Ornaments, crimson Meri Hangings and Blinds, pair of Loungers, Pier a Chimney Glasses; 8 rosewood Balloon Chairs, crimson damask; double-arm Sofa, in springs, a richly carved; Sofa Tables, Card and Work Cabinet, some Shells; few valuable Art Union Engravings, proof impressions; Book Case and secretary, 100 volumes of Books, handsome Dealon Cent Table, Ceiling Spirit Lamp, Sideboard, Venetian and Lawn Blinds, &c.
FOR THE DINING-ROOM AND ENTRY.
Handsome set of modern Tables, square, cent pillar, and claw do; Pedestal Sideboard, Gardevi and Tea Store; 12 chairs, in hair cloth; 6 Sw. Balloon do., 2 Easy Chairs, Ottoman-stool, Reading stand, Kidderminster Carpet and Rug, Brass Fender and Irons, Tarpaulin; 8 day Clock, by Robert Latwarranted a good timekeeper; set of Dinner Wa Morning and Evening China, Rummers, Wines, Decafers, Butter Coolers, Celery stand, Weather Glass Champagne, Ale, and Finger Glasses; Table Cutler Bottle Jack and Filterer, &c.
FOR THE SLEEPING APARTMENTS.
Nine Feather Beds; 5 Hair Mattresses, of the best quality; 14 Bedsteads, of various sizes; 3 mahoga German beds, 1 state do., 8 Elliptic roof do. of bir and mahogany; 1 elliptic roof portable iron do. 4 1/2 x 6; 1 very handsome portable open-worked Mahogany, large and small house Presses, Wardrobes, Cottage Sideboards, Toilet Glasses, Dressing Cases, Dro ing Tables, Basin stands, Bidets, Bed-room Fender and Irons, Carpeting, 40 yards stair do. and ro Window Blinds; Portable Camp Bedstead, and H Mattress to match; curious carved Side Table, Off Fixtures, and 2 first rate Sofa Beds, &c.
MISCELLANEOUS.
Lady's Gold Watch and Venetian Chain, 2 Vertic and 1 silver Lever do., 3 Gentlemen's Rings, pe set Brooch and Locket; patent portable Mangle, Watt & Co; 5 dozen of rich old Port Wine; capi Outside Car, Harness, and Tilbury Gig; patent acting Shower Bath, plain do., slipper do., 2 Gu richly plated Cruet Stands, &c; Writing Desks, K chen Requisites, and Box of Tools, &c.
Sale at 12 o'clock sharp, as all must be sold in o day.
P. COLEMAN, Auctioneer,
5, Charlotte's-quay.
P.S.—This sale is well worth the attention of parties purchasing extensively, as P. C. will take payments to be made within a fortnight.
March 20

Just Published,
The Tipperary Polka,
BY HENRY ALBERT LEE.
P. Corbett,
APOLLO MUSIC WAREHOUSE, 28, GEORGE-STREET
A superior selection of new and second hand Pianofortes for sale and hire.
March 20

Rathkeale Union.
Notice of Rates having been made for the purpose of the Irish Poor Relief Act.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the Rates have been duly made on the property situated in under mentioned Electoral Divisions in the Rathkeale Union, rateable under the provisions of the Acts for the relief of the destitute poor in Ireland, namely Electoral Division of Rate of Askeaton East 1s 7d In the West 2s 6d
Aughanish, 1s 0d
Ballyallinan 1s 2d
Ballinacarriga 1s 4d
Craggs, 1s 5d
Castletown 1s 8d
Croagh 1s 7d
Dromard 1s 5d
Iveruss 2s 0d
Kilcornan 1s 6d
Kildimo 1s 5d
Riddletown 1s 3d
Kilscannell 1s 2d
Lismakeery 1s 8d
Nanteenan 1s 7d
Pallaskerry 1s 8d
Rathkeale 2s 8d
And the Rate Books are now in my Custody, and may be inspected by any person affected thereby at the Board-room of the Rathkeale Workhouse, on any day except Sunday, between the hours of Ten o'clock in the forenoon, and Four in the afternoon, and said rates will be payable from and after the publication of this Notice.
Signed this 19th day of March, 1852.
MICHAEL FITZGILBON,
March 24. Clerk of the Union