

own; some say that
to his back premises
a saw pit, and thus eat deal of property
of people had their
at the conflagration
had a fire at Derha
h and old grass of my gh at the time and My herder came in ed out to witness a
to anything else) fly-eeze. I faced it, but evouring element was erciful interference of e in the wind I would mountain, and in a few
would have been con-
me within 300 yards
d the mountain fence
gh rushing fields that e word in his mercy
ust now 3 or 400 acres
ck as charcoal, but I
we we get rain, which eeks,

won the steeple chase
won the Kildare hunt Roch's Prairie Bird.
won the Kildare plate
for the open stakes.
ained at Spencil-hill by e chase, who received F Fitzgerald, and £5
as a verdict of £40 da-
ny, attorney and land Esq. for trespass and
l Byrne, of Bayswell,
ted off the townlands
e union of Tuam, and
e, Esq MP.
took place on Lord
in the neighbourhood

Mayor of Derry, is ap-
ne peace for that city.
rtisement we earnestly lecture upon the allgy on Friday next, at ady we can with per-ers, holds a place in
er. of that enlightened
y a peculiar agency,
of individual character
osophical inquirers.—
ublin, Cork, and Belfast,
Mrs. Wilson's talent
ked success which has
of the science, who or select few, though

Mr. John Collard, jun. to Catherine, daughter of Mr. Wm. Allan, Cold Harbour-lane, Camberwell.
At Dominica, Lieut. Richard Warren, Royal Engineers, to Emily, sister of John Lander, Esq.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, at her house in Upper Henry-street, yesterday, of disease of the heart, Mrs. Eliza Jones. She was a young woman who, in the discharge of the relative duties of life, gained and preserved the esteem and affection of all who knew her. Kind, gentle, and amiable, an exemplary wife and devoted mother, she was summoned by a mysterious Providence from her four young children, ere they could appreciate her maternal care, or understand the irreparable loss they have sustained.

On the 9th inst. at her father's residence in Tarbert, Blanche Morony, second daughter of William George Kennedy, Esq. Surgeon. This young and interesting person has fallen a victim, at the early age of 22, to a long and painful illness, which she bore with the most perfect amiability of temper. With fortitude and patience becoming a true christian, she peacefully resigned her soul to Him who gave it.

In William-street, Hannah, aged 15 years, second daughter of the late Mr. James Gubbins, boot and shoe-maker.

At Clare-street, on Monday, of consumption, Mrs. Margaret St. Lawrence, relict of the late Mr. John St. Lawrence, pawn-broker—much regretted by her family and friends.

In Cork, aged 82, David John Berkeley, Esq. M.D.

At Philipstown, at the age of 105 years, Alicia, relict of the late Lora Kobinett, for many years Quarter Master 5th Royal Irish Dragoons.

Suddenly, in Dublin, Alicia Lynch, wife of Patrick H. Lynch Esq. of Furbo, Galway. Mrs. Lynch was the daughter of Captain Lynch, of Ballycurron Castle.

At Kingstown, Patrick Siator, Esq.

At Summerville, near Clonmel, Catherine Louisa Wall.

In Belfast, Hugh Halliday, Esq.

At his residence, Sylan, near Tuam, Daniel Donelan, Esq.

Samuel Henry Osborne, Esq. of Dardistown Castle, Meath.

At North Cumberland-street, Christopher, son of the late Thomas Donohoe, Esq. Dowdstown House, county Kildare.

At his house, Ely-place, the Hon. Robert Leeson, the youngest son of Joseph, first Earl of Miltown, aged 78 years.

At his residence, Wellington-street, Mr. George Brunker.

Mr. Patrick Brady, of Grafton-street.

James, son of Mr. M. J. Rooney, Upper Sackville street.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Lydia Florence, youngest child of Samuel Ryan, Esq.

At her father's house, in Cullen's-Wood Avenue, Ellen, second daughter of Josiah Malone, Esq.

At his residence in Fitzwilliam-square, George Atkinson Wray, Esq. aged 79 years.

Teresa, wife of Cornelius DeGroot, Bachelor's-walk.

Louisa, wife of George Callaghan, Portobello.

At Fintona, county Tyrone, the Rev. John Moore.

At Althorp, Northamptonshire, in her 19th year, Lady Georgina Spencer, daughter of Earl Spencer.

At Lowndes-street, Pimlico, the Hon. Mrs. Alfred Wodehouse, daughter of Reginald George Macdonald, Esq. and married the Hon. and Rev. Alfred Wodehouse, son of the second Baron Wodehouse. That gentleman died in 1848.

At Walworth, Mr. W. B. Corbett, of the Phoenix fire office.

At Caergelach, in the parish of Laudegfau, Anglesey, aged 108, Mrs. Mary Prichard.

At Plymouth, the Rev. Wm. Rooker, aged 79 years.

At Stonehouse, Lieut. G. H. Godden, R.N. on retired list.

At Saltash, Edmund Herring, late Major 57th Regt. B.N.I.

At Devonport, Miss A. A. L. Gilbert.

At Bodmin, Mr. John Chappell.

At Manchester, Mrs. Effield Messiter, relict of the late Rev. John Messiter, Chaplain to the Royal Artillery.

Elizabeth, wife of Robert Biddulph Phillippa, of Longworth, Herefordshire, Esq.

Patrick Kelly, Esq. of the Island of St. Christopher.

Albert Augustus, son of Josh. Feilden, Esq. of Witton-house Lancashire.

At Teigher Nardy, Devonshire, E. Day, Esq. Captain 1st Somerset Militia, in his 79th year.

James Reddie, Esq. advocate, First Town Clerk of Glasgow.

At Battle, Sussex, Napoleon Drew, Esq.

In Paris, at a very advanced age, Mrs. Catherine Lyons, late of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin.

At Manchester, the Rev. Alexander McDonnell, A.M. formerly Curate of Stourbridge, Worcestershire.

At Rome, Louisa Charlotte Bardley, daughter of the late Rev. R. Childers, aged 22.

At Philadelphia, Mr. Alexander Joseph Clendenuin, formerly of Harold's-cross, county Dublin.

and to be without intimidation an advocate for given the tion of the Vote by Ballot
Such are the leading v Parliament would be go
the earliest opportunity wh
affording personal explan
topics which cannot be co
limits of an address.

In conclusion, permit me
Representing my native Co sought. If I know myself contest, I am actuated by which seeks to become the my fellow-countrymen; to they are enduring, and the
have resulted from the mis legislation of centuries.

I have the hon

JOHN FO

Worthing, Sussex, Feb.

Theatre Royal

CEREBRAL P

Mrs. Alexan

WILL deliver One LE PHRENOLOGY,
ples and uses, and illustrat
Drawings, in the Theatre R
FRIDAY, the 16
Doors open at half past
at 8 o'clock precisely.

Tickets of

Reserved seats and Boxes
Children half price.

Tickets to be had at Mr C
medical establishment, Mr
Mr Ledger, Bookseller; M
Mr J F Goggin's; Mr Jam
street; and at all the pri Theatre on the Evening of

To give practical evid logy, Mrs. Wilson will, a Lecture, examine the Heade minute statement of the defects of any 6 persons (s choose to come forward, and examination.

Persons desirous of havin
tions of their heads, or tho require to call early upon M Limerick, will be for a very

Mrs Wilson may be cons ments, No. 4, Patrick-st. (M
may be visited at their own Fee for a written outline of nologically deduced,
For a very minute and len
of the Mental Powers,
For a Verbal statement,
In no instance does neato accurately the Chara head she examines.