DEATHS.

At Doulogne-Sur-Mer, Thomas William Grady, Esq. formerly of Belmont, in this county. At his residence, Cappa, county Clare, on the 13th inst. Anne, the affectionate and devoted wife of John Curtin, Esq. after a protracted illness, which her most amiable temper and truly christian spirit had prepared the virtuous sufferer to endure with perfect submission to the will of God. His all-saying precepts it was her constant study to fulfil, in faith, in hope, in charity, to the world, and from a profound love of her Saviour. The blessings of the destitute widow and orphan bore grateful testimony to their known benefactress, who, humbly hoping in boundless mercy from on high, sought no earthly reward for private benevolence; but surviving friends have the consolation to believe that her pure soul was not undeserving of that hallowed invitation, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of the Lord."—Amen.
