

quoted the opinion of Judge Moore, general, that the magistrate when an order, was imperatively required having any such steps as Mr Garven.

tended that the reading of the act as he had put forward, and he called to read the 162 sec. of the grand which a magistrate was required to being satisfied that the requisite be got elsewhere.

We left the case to arbitration. that should have been before the ker—I assure you, Mr Garvey, that in my hand 7 days before I gave it. I was forced to do it.

You should have kept it in your hands in it at all.

is not fair to say, Mr Garvey, that decided this case, or that it was called

. The bench were a long time did not adjudicate on it till after n. It was called on according to the it stood in the book.

the magistrate who gave the order is the foot path for his own family not take such interest in it 4 or 5 will not be put down by you, Mr acting in the discharge of my duty, that kind.

the order should not have been given out the authority first shown.

Your own man admitted that the im.

the adjudication, I repeat was hastily cannot allow that. Parties who witness this Court admit that there is not which - shows such patience in in- most trivial cases, and it is not fair imputation, or allege that the case d.

am still of opinion that the case was

-I, as one of the magistrates who say that it is not courteous to assert was hastily given.

think it very wrong for one man to decision by six magistrates is come to. I must say it is pre-

(with emphasis)—It is gross imperti- v that.

here must be order observed here. the other business.

s been forwarded to the Government exhibition.]

chequer has overruled with costs, the Midland railway to the declaration, attorney and shareholder, suing can has disallowed the claim of the £2,658 against the estate of der Clendening, bankrupts, balance and agents.

DEATHS.

On Sunday night, at his house, in Cecil-street, after a short illness, Patrick O'Gorman, Esq. Alderman and Poor Law Guardian, Patrick-st. ward, Life Commissioner of St. Michael's Parish, and Trustee to the new Limerick Market Bill—a gentleman of the most friendly deportment and affable disposition. He was beloved and respected by an extended acquaintance, and his death is deservedly regretted. His remains were interred this morning in the family vault at St. Michael's church-yard, attended by the Mayor and Corporation (who were attired in crape and black gloves), and a numerous circle of relatives and friends.

At Rathmines, on yesterday morning, after a lingering illness, to the deep regret of his family and numerous friends, James Barry, Esq. of this City, Attorney-at-Law, and Sessional Crown Solicitor for the County and City Limerick—a gentleman of high repute in his profession, and in private life universally esteemed for his many engaging qualities.

In Glenworth-street, on Sunday last, of jaundice, Sarah, widow of the late John Piercy, Esq. deeply lamented by her family and friends.

On Sunday, the 18th inst. at Mountrath, the beloved wife of Dr. Thomas Finn, leaving an affectionate husband and eight young children.

At the advanced age of 86 years, Mrs. Legge, for 60 years a respectable inhabitant of Clonmel.

At Northesk, Cork, Thomas Brisbane, son of James Isaac Carnegie, Esq.

At his residence at Kilbarry, John Bryan, Esq. late of Inohoney, at the age of 96.

Catherine, daughter of the late George Daunt, Esq. M.D. Cork.

At Sea View Lodge, Spa, (shortly after she had given birth to a son,) Kate, wife of Samuel J. Collis, Esq.

At Rathkeale, sincerely regretted by his friends and the inhabitants of the town, Mr. Kennedy Carey, conducting clerk of the concerns of Mr. Michael Ryan.

At Cappoquin, Mary, eldest daughter of the late Stephen Hill, Esq. of Clonmel.

At Leinster-road, Rathmines, Mrs. Harriet Goggin, in her 85th year.

At Ballygunner Castle, Mrs. Mary Steward Phelan.

At Tralee, Kate Mary, daughter of the late Mr. P. Tynon.

At the Glebe, Anne, wife of the Rev. Haus Caulfield, Prebendary of Kilmanagh.

At Castle Neynoe, county Sligo, Emmeline Pedder, daughter of Henry Griffith, Esq. D.L.

At Como Lodge, county Wexford, John Freke Jones, Esq.

At Windsor Terrace, Kingstown, Hester, wife of William Rice, and eldest daughter of John Classon, Esq.

At the residence of his son-in-law, Rathmines, Joseph Lenehan, Esq.

Mr. Anthony Lee.

Mary, wife of Mr. Christopher Carroll, of Barrack-street.

At the Rectory, Ahabog, county Monaghan, Elizabeth Jane daughter of the Rev. William Story.

Theophilus Edward Lucas Clements, Esq. of Rahenny, co. Cavan, J.P.

At Bushmills, Antrim, Mr. Herbert Reeder, Inland Revenue Officer.

At Brighton, Frederica, wife of Captain Bagot, R.N. and daughter of the late Rt. Hon. Sir Charles Bagot, G.C.B.

At Harwood House, Cheltenham, Lieut.-Col. Watson, C.B.

At Brixton, Emily Frederica, eldest daughter of Lieut. Richard Bowen, R.N.

George, eldest son of Lieut. T. Scriven, R.N. Admiralty agent.

At Wilton-crescent, the Hon. Ann Dundas.

William Courtney, Esq. of Oxford Terrace, Hyde Park.

Edmund Bacon, Esq. son of Sir Edmund Bacon, Bart. of Ravingham, Norfolk.

Abel Chapman, of Whitby, in his 95th year.

At Bromley, Kent, the Rev. Clement Strong.

At the house of his son-in-law, Mr. Sidon, veterinary surgeon, Pitcairn-green, Perthshire, Mr. John M'Naughton.

At Sedgberg, Yorkshire, Martha, relict of the late Jeremiah Mayne, Esq. Royal Marines.

At Paris, Henry O'Connor, Esq. formerly of Barronstown, Westmeath.

At Bordeaux, Robert, eldest son of Mr. Henry Banks, of Carlow.

At the College of St. Mary, Montreal, the Rev. Charles Scheansky, of the Society of Jesus.

At Quebec, Mr. James Switzer.

At Madras, Lieut. M'Bean, 94th Regt.

land, and which namely, the Auction by Commission, with that unfairness from the heavy of the amount bid by this as being the fact that persons have in addition supposed to bid the

Hartigan feels find out that sales ved principle will sold under his super or in any other pa

In the Court of Incum

COURT

In the Matter of t

of the Rev.

COPLIN LANGFORD

Miltown Malba

County of Clare

Owner;

Exparte

JOHN LANGFORD

Esq.

Petitioner

Fee farm, situate in

Glin, Electoral Div

COURT

containing 455A, 1

ducing a clear ye

annum.

Dated this 15

SAMUEL F. A

This estate is hel

1605, paying the s

The lands are situa

port of Foynes, on

rably circumstanced

equalities of soil.

Mr. Whitty's va

order of the Comm

the Poor Law valua

A survey and val

lately made, and m

Solicitor having the receive proposals for

Private Contract, u

day of sale, and sub

their approval.

For Rentals and

the Office of the Co

street, Dublin; or

SAMUEL F.

Petitioner

No. 25,

or to

JOHN IRW

neer and street, I