AUCTION
 Of the Interest in the Lease of
Newport Mills,
 Stores, Offices, Dwelling Houses, Cottage Residence,
 With 4 Acres of Prime Land, &c.

JAMES MARSHALL
 HAS received instructions from the Proprietor to offer for public competition by Auction, at the Limerick Commercial Mart,
On Saturday, the 5th of June, the following valuable property in lots, as particularised, viz. :—
 Lot No. 1.
 The Mills, Stores, Kiln, Bakery, and Offices in the town of Newport, within 3 miles of the city of Limerick. They have all been very recently erected in a creditable and permanent manner; have a never failing supply of water at all seasons, capable of turning 4 pair of stones, at present at full work. They contain 3 Lofts laid down on the new plan—solid deals tongued and dowed with iron. The Machinery is of the newest and approved construction. This lot is only subject to a nominal rent of £1.3s 1d per annum, with a direct lease for ever. It is at present in the occupation of Mr W L Guest, of Roches-st. (a yearly tenant) at the annual rent of £75. He has expended over £300 in lasting improvements, clearly showing great interest in the concerns.

Lot No 2.
 Being about half an acre (be the same more or less), on which are built two slated Farm Houses, Cattle Sheds, Piggery, &c. all enclosed by a ten foot wall. This lot is not subject to any rent, being part of lot No 1, and immediately adjoining.

Lot No. 3.
 Four newly built slate Houses, situate in Chapel Lane; they pay a rent of £2 12s per annum each, and are well adapted for the Mill labourers, not at present subject to any head rent.

Lot No 4.
 A delightfully situated Modern Cottage Residence immediately opposite the Church of Newport. It contains Drawing Room, Parlour, 4 Bed Rooms, Pantry, Kitchen, Servant's Apartments, stable and Car House, Walled-in Garden. With this lot there is about 4 Irish acres of very prime land, nearly all in grass; it is subject to a head rent of £8 per annum; it is particularly adapted for the residence of a person who would work the Mill, as there is a connecting passage. The various lots can be inspected any time previous to sale, on application to the Proprietor, Mr GEORGE W. BASSETT, the Cottage, Newport, Tipperary, and all particulars as regards title &c. can be known on application to JOHN BARRINGTON, Esq. 99, George-street, or
