

George Owston Newton, Esq. of Croxton Park, Cambridge-shire, to Mary, eldest daughter of Wyndham Berkeley Portman, Esq. of Hare Park.

At Exeter, the Rev. W. F. Grey, Rector of Cornwood, Devonshire, to Constance Frances Phillpotts, youngest daughter of the Lord Bishop of Exeter.

James Tait, son of Adam Black, Esq. to Charlotte, daughter of Maurice Lothian, Esq. Procurator Fiscal for Edinburgh.

At Boston, U.S. the Hon. Edward T. B. Twisleton, to Ellen, daughter of the late Hon. Edmund Dwight, of the State of Massachusetts.

At the Mauritius, on the 16th March, Henry John Chads, Esq. 5th Fusileers, eldest son of Lieut.-Col. Chads, Governor of Tortola, to Annie Elizabeth, daughter of Assistant Commissary General de Smidt.

At Brighton, George Leslie, Esq. 77th Regt. son of Major-General Leslie, to Eliza, daughter of the late Wm Beebe, Esq.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at his lodgings in William-street, Mr. John Willcock, Surgeon Dentist.

Wednesday night last, at 16 Cecil-street, after a short illness, to the deep regret of her family and friends, Miss Stephenson.

On the 7th, at his father's residence, Tralee, Hugh Richard Kirwan, late of the 38th Regt. second son of John Kirby, Esq. Henrietta, youngest daughter of the Rev. Edward Nangle, aged 19 years.

At his father's house in Cashel, Mr. Bayly Upton, the eighth and last surviving son of Wm. Bayly Upton, Esq.

In Carrick-on-Suir, William Power, Esq. At the Parsonage, Newtownards, Anne Henrietta, wife of the Rev. Townley Blackwood Price, and daughter of the Hon. and Rev. Henry Ward.

At Achill Island, county Mayo, Theobald Fetherstonhaugh, son of John Barlow, Esq.

At Galway, Mr. Henry Cahill. Bridget, daughter of Peter Hoey, of Dublin.

William Power, brother to John Power, Esq. of Mount-richard.

At Athboy, Jane, wife of R. M'Dermott, Esq. Surgeon, and daughter of Frederick Stock, Esq. of Ballina.

At Portaferry, Hugh Wilson, Esq. Henry Hamilton, Esq. M.D. late Surgeon of the 13th Light Infantry.

Dixie Clement, Esq. of Enniskeen, county Monaghan. At Avonrath, county Derry, Thomas, son of the late Joseph Dawson, Esq. Governor of Cape Coast Castle.

At Allerton Hall, aged 78 years, Mrs. Bradish, relict of Joseph Bradish, Esq. of Kilkenny.

Georgiana Mary, daughter of the Hon. George and Lady Georgiana Cathcart, aged 23 years.

In her 90th year, Mrs. Susanna Paumier, relict of the late John Paumier, Esq.

At Cliffe Hall, Wilts, Louisa, widow of Vice Admiral the Hon. D. Pleydell Bouverie.

At Conisbrough, Emma Lady Francis, widow of Sir Philip Francis, and daughter of the late Rev. Henry Watkins.

At Yatesbury Rectory, Wilts, the Rev. James Stoughton Money Kyrle, M.A. rector of the parish.

At Eaton-square, Henry H. Darling, aged 21, son of the late Major General H. C. Darling, Lieut.-Governor of Tobago.

At Wimbledon, aged 19, Gentleman Cadet John Longley, son of the late Brigadier Raynsford, of H. H. the Nizam's service.

At Antigua, Wm. Percival, son of Capt. Porter, 67th Regt.

At Sierra Leone, Captain John Julius MacDonnell, commanding H.M. brig Crane, son of the late Colonel Macdonnell, and grandson of the late Sir John Johnson, Bart.

Of cholera, taken during his attentions to the sick and wounded at the operations at Martaban and Rangoon, the Rev. Thomas Turner Baker, B.A. Chaplain of H.M.S. Fox.

Whilst bathing at Bhoj, India, in the 22d year of his age, Edward Tracy, of the Bombay Artillery, eldest son of the late Martin Tracy, Esq. of Stoke Newington, great grandson of the Hon. Robert Tracy.

Matilda, widow of the late Heyward St. Leger, Esq. of Cork.

At her son's, Fitzwilliam-place, aged 89, Anne, widow of the late William Watson, Esq.

seed—can be used with little labour; early crops, free from loss by the Fly as his undoubted English testimonials. The Manufacturer respectfully solicits trial of his Turnip Manure this season with the best Guano or Farm Manure. Four cwt. per acre is a full dressing. £6 15s per ton, cash, bags included; any Railroad Terminus or Port in Ire. For a supply, testimonials, or sample Agents,

Messrs. J. & G. I.
SEEDSMEN,

WILLIAM-STREET, LIMERICK.

Mr W Hayes, Coal Merchant, Clonmel.
Messrs T Henesy & Co, Merchants, Clonmel.
Mr Wm Looby, Seedsman, Templemore.
Mr L Hewston, Railway Hotel, Kilkenny.
Mr J Watson, Druggist, Carlow.

Gill's

PATENT MANURE STORE

6, LISBURN-STREET, LINEN-HALL

Gill's Patent Corn Manure, for Town and Country Sowing, will be for sale in the present season.

Cork Exhibition of the County of Ireland

Anniversary of the Battle of Veroon
Picture Exhibitions in London

On SATURDAY next, June 19, 1852, at the THEATRE ROYAL, THREE LARGE SHEETS

of the
Illustrated London

Price One Shilling.

CONTAINING Descriptions (with the Important and Interesting
Manufactures, and Materials, opened Thursday last, by his Excellency the Governor, with Pictures of Articles Exhibited, of the Opening Ceremonial, and the
the Earl of Eglinton. Also, Portraits Officers who attend the Duke of Wellington at Apsley House; with a Variety of the News of the Week.

Another sheet will contain several Engravings of the finest Pictures in now open in London.

At the same time will be published English Songs and Melodies, by the Music by Sir H K Bishop, com-Battle of Waterloo," "The Dream of Names on the Beech Tree," and "The each song beautifully illustrated.

On this occasion the "Illustrated will consist of a Number and three all Three Whole Sheets, price one shilling Office, 198, Strand.