

—We beg to announce to our J E Bosanquet, miniature painter and 72, Oxford-st. London, and now of work, is about to pay us a professional and beautiful description of ivory gentleman is now on view at Mr ner, one of which comprises a portrait astings. Mr Bosanquet's last visit n 1845, having then executed several fellow-citizens. From the superior ed description of his painting we l meet with every encouragement. fishermen are outrageous against the ay bay, and Mr Grattan, MP, went eir cause before the local magistrates, w to prevent trawling.

appeared in part of last impression: CURT—Wicklow, 29th June; Wex- Waterford, 5th do; Clonmel, 9th do; o; Nonagh, 17th do. Baron Pen- ge Moore.

stian is expected to go Judge of geant O'Brien, who will be engaged r this city at the general election. n, Esq. JP, on his return to Bun- ick, this day, was injured by a runa- y, at this side of Wellesley bridge es in his effort to restrain the animal ne is a candidate for Mayo, on the est.

week, the most frightful intimidat- l in New Ross—a mob, stimulated elanders, broke the windows of the a, the respected Parish Priest—one orthiest men in the community—and her Catholic clergyman, the Rev Mr ey are opposed to the League fac- y preach exclusive dealing. The parish Priest was broken into by a we deeply grieve to say that a Catho- he town, instead of interposing to and brutalized populace, used his in- ary direction.—Evening Post.

Dublin yesterday by the Commis- Christina Taylor, lands of Ballygil- mid, Limerick, to J. Kincaid, for f Coolnehaly, &c. in Oweybeg, to n, for £2,550. In re Rev. R O f Ballycormack, in Shanid, to Hon. O. The estate of Matthew Penne- k, Tipperary, realised £22,325. The Dwyer, in Owey and Arra, to Mr. 450, and that of James D M'Namara, ar Gort, to Wm. Butler, for £900. 's troop 3d Dragoon Guards arrived erday from Kilkenny, to repress the ts there.

Ship Primrose, Capt Ferguson, from ade the passage from here to Quebec xtraordinary short space of 68 days ing, Esq. formerly of the 3d Dragoon Guards, to Mary, daughter of Charles Hamilton, Esq. Captain of Madras Cavalry.

At Edinburgh, James Lacafta, Esq. of Naples, barrister, to Maria Clavering, daughter of the late Sir Thomas Gibson Carmichael, of Skirling, bart.

At Singapore, Bengal, on the 2d April, John Mass Miller, Esq. M.D. Bengal Service, to Eliza, daughter of Richard Healy Esq. of Rochdale, Lancashire.

At Bombay, John Parsons, Esq. to Jane, daughter of the late John J. Robinson, Esq.

DEATHS.

On the 16th Inst, Margaret Arabella, youngest daughter of the late Jacob Mark, Esq., of Cork.

At the house of her brothers, Kilrush, on the 17th instant, Margaret, the beloved sister of R. and M. Foley.

On Thursday last, after a short illness, James Keating, Esq. of Galanlee Mills, near Cashel, brother of Robert Keating, Esq. M.P. most sincerely and deservedly lamented.

In Droughrea, at the residence of his brother-in-law, Wm. Coffey, Esq. County Inspector, Henry Blake Davies, Esq. son of the late Thomas Davies, of Newcastle, county Galway, Esq.

At Saligo, Henry O'Connor, Esq. J.P. ex Mayor.

At Ballina, Frances, relict of Colonel Higgins, aged 79.

At his residence, Old George's-street, Cork, Mr. Edward Millerick, aged 75 years.

At Daytown, Drogheda, Ellen Sophia, daughter of Robert Walsh, Esq. Keenogue, Duleek.

Mrs. Grace M'Namara, widow of the late Mr. Wm. M'Namara, of Clonmel.

At Marlay, Rathfarnham, Anne Caroline, widow of John David La Touche.

At Harold's-cross, Mr. Charles Robertson, many years in the constabulary, and grandson to the late Justice Bell.

At Tramore, Mrs. Hanley, of Waterford.

William Richard Stewart, Esq. of Stewart's Lodge, county Carlow.

In Cork, Mr. Orpen.

At Ballina, Kate, daughter of Mr. Mathew Devitt, aged 20.

At Frlingford, county Kilkenny, Bridget Mary, wife of John Murtagh, Esq. of Blessington-street.

At Rathmines, Margaret Mary Josephine, daughter of Edward O'Malley, Esq. R.N. St. Orans, Galway.

At his residence, Fitzwilliam-square, West, Wm. Campbell, late of Fermoy, Esq. M.D. in his 69th year.

At Upper Mount-street, Mrs. Matilda St. Leger, in the 82nd year of her age.

At his residence, New Park, county Kildare, John Pim, Esq. in his 89th year, possessor of a considerable estate in the county Limerick.

Frances, relict of Simon Mercer Graves, Esq.

At Inch, near Derry, the Rev. Samuel Amour, Presbyterian Minister.

Mary, wife of the Rev. Wm. Wallace, of Rasharkin.

Mr. Samuel Hall, Licentiate of the Aboghill Presbytery, General Assembly, and Principal of the Newry Academy.

John Monckton, Esq. Fineshade Abbey, Northamptonshire.

At Shepherd's-bush, near London, Frances Florence, daughter of Captain Ratcliff, 17th Lancers.

At Gray's-inn-square, A. Thomson, jun. Esq. of Glasgow, teacher of dancing to the Royal children.

At Chatham, Lieut. Frederick Wetherall Smith, R.N. son of the late John Smith, Esq. Vice Treasurer of Ireland.

Suddenly, at Chelmsford, W. Ridley, Esq. of Feisted.

At Hoxton, Mr. Thomas T. Taylor, the dramatic author.

Charles Wayth, Esq. late Captain 17th Dragoons, and J.P. for Kent.

At Langton House, Cheltenham, Richard Francis Alexander Freeman, Esq. formerly of Shooter's-hill, Yorkshire, aged 76.

John Howard Payne, United States Consul at Tunis, author of the celebrated song "Home sweet home."

At Hobart Town, Van Dieman's Land, Gamaliel Butler, Esq.

At Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, George, second son of Jasper Drury, Esq. Yeughan.

At Newcastle, New South Wales, Mary, wife of Major Russell, late 20th Regt. and of Beech Mount, county of Cork, and daughter of the late Samuel Tarrant, of Mallow, Esq.

At Knockenagh, near Caherconlish, Mrs. Ryan, aged 70.

At Como, in his 84th year, the Hon. and Rev. Edward Taylor, father of the member for Dublin county.

and in a given, power, s

Intends

Line

For wh publicit He ha and Two breed L Heifers forward

June

THE WE a fitting

at a Propos Candidat on the 30

Office,

THE the 3 ties willin from the Best G

" In

Tenders

join in a whole or by me up

Union C