

of new potatoes, old potatoes 15 loads, e.

ad for the propaga-

Brewery.

Sons

having appointed W. le Agent for the sale in Limerick and the s ably given in the et—50 years success- above named Brewery stantly supplied with in lhd's, brls, and ply the Trade in any rms obtainable at the esome nature of the derate proportion of nsiderable quantity of from hops, contained preserve the tone and uce to the restoration in a state of weakness er from all other prepa- smaller amount of ex- cid and saccharine, and ion. They resemble, wine of malt rather sion, and it is very ge of such general every kind of impurity. a May, 1852.

ALE.

P. E. Agent. Office, Limerick. May 29.

Everybody.

MASON

all parts of the king- ly respectable, easy, employment, by any lize from £1 to £10 at. The well known Mason is a guarantee ke others advertised, a directed envelope ly upon receiving by formation.

eware of plausible de-

, 4, Clark's place, June 26.

Rev. Mr. Lyddy, P.P. Abbeyfeale. Andrew W. Olden, Esq. Cork, to Mary, daughter of the late B. Roberts, Esq. Annaghmore. At Muff, Donegal, Paymaster Robert Stott, 38th Regt., to Rebecca, daughter of Minchin Lloyd, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Sunday evening last, at Killarney, Mrs. Gallwey, the wife of Christopher Gallwey, Esq.
At Passage West, Jemima Eliza, wife of George Norfolk Whately, Esq. of Cork.
At Finglas Glebe, in the 81st year of his age, Rev. Robert Walsh, LL.D. Vicar of the parish of Finglas.
At Thomondgate, Samuel Benson, shipwright, a young man deeply regretted by his family.
At Powerstown, county Tipperary, at an advanced age, the Rev. Maurice Wall, thirty years Parish Priest of Powerstown and Lisronagh.
At Lakelands, Dundrum, county Dublin, Eleanor, wife of John S. Mulvany, Esq.
At his residence, Harold's-cross, John Murray, Esq. M.D. Suddenly, Christopher Sweetman, Esq.
At his residence, Ranelagh-road, Thomas M'Creery, son of James M'Creery, of Dublin.
At his house, Upper Merrion-street, Joseph Hunt, Esq. barrister-at-law.
At Upper Gardiner-st., Anthony Wills, Esq. late Assistant Barrister of the county Wexford, aged 75.
At Ballyshannon, Anne, widow of Joseph Lipsett, Esq.
At Lakepoint, Mary, wife of Philip Parke, Esq. of Castlegal, county Sligo.
At his residence, Bloomsbury, county Meath, in his 80th year, Joseph Barnewall, Esq.
At Glencar, county Sligo, Sarah, the beloved wife of Mr. Robert Boyd.
At Springhill, county Donegal, John Cochran, Esq.
At Belfast, Mrs. Fleming, widow of the late Rev. A. Fleming of Armagh, and daughter of the late William Weir, Esq.
At Uruly, county Tyrone, Hugh Knox, Esq. at the age of 85, father of the Rev. Robert Knox, of Belfast.
At Beragh, John O'Neill, Esq. M.D. aged 70 years.
Jane, wife of Francis Tohill, Esq. of the Lower Crescent, Clifton, and daughter of the late Rev. John Digby, of Newpark, county Meath.
At Barnstaple, Devon, Caroline, daughter of the late Arthur Stanley, Esq. Dublin.
On the 23d ult. Margaret Arabella, aged three days, fourth daughter of Rev. Richard Parsons, Incumbent of Paddington. In London, in his 18th year, Thomas Edward Hungerford, son of Thos. J. Hungerford, Esq. of Cork.
At Marston, Lincolnshire, aged 75 years, Mary, wife of Sir Charles Hewitt, Bart.
Of disease of the heart, at his residence, Finchley-road, St. John's-wood, Sir James Nicoll McAdam, Knight, of Tindonend, Great Stampford, Essex.
At Southampton, Jane, widow of Captain Young, of the Albany Staff, and daughter of the Rev. Dr. Frome.
The Rev. Edward Murray, Vicar of Northolt, Middlesex, son of the late Lord George Murray.
At Newcastle-on-Tyne, Noel Thomas Smith, Esq. M.D.
At Huddersfield, Dr. John Taylor,
At Kingsthorpe, Northamptonshire, Maria, daughter of the late Thomas Boddington, Esq.
At Alexander-terrace, Westbourne Park-road, Charles M'Naughton, Esq.
At Quebec, suddenly, the Rev. Jean Holmee.
At sea, on board the Earl of Hardwick, Indiaman, Frank McPherson, Ensign, 8th King's Regiment, third son of Lt.-Col. M'Pherson, 17th Regiment.
At Fort Manual, Malta, of dysentery, Anna Maria Futon, daughter of Major Gardiner, 76th Regt.
At Madras, of fever, Lieut. Horace Murray, Madras Army, sixth son of the late Rev. Sir William Murray, Bart.
Saturday, at Thomond Lodge, the residence of his brother, (Alderman Mulcahy,) Mr. Denis Mulcahy, a charitable, good citizen, sincerely regretted by his numerous friends.
At Glanmire, Archibald C. Shaw, Esq.
At Woodhill Terrace, Cork, Ann, relict of the late Nicholas G. Evans, Esq. of Carker.
At Raphoe, aged 91, Mrs. Ramsay, widow of the late Rev. Wm. Ramsay.
The Rev. Thomas Smollen, P.P. Ederney, Formanagh.

Russell is a true and sincere friend and Liberty of Conscience, shall be exercised on behalf of liberal a Candidate.

RICHARD

July 7.

Committee of P O'Brien

AT a most crowded Meeting Messrs Potter and O'Brien rally, held on Monday evening, the Rev Mathew O'Connor, PP, following resolutions were adopted: Proposed by the Rev George E unanimously, and c

Resolved—That in the present when our religion is assailed English House of Commons, den and a scandal in Government stoned and trampled in the st England, it is the bounden duty Ireland to band together for the Altars, and to return to Parlia understand and love the Catholic pared at all hazards to struggle i Proposed by the Rev James Mo by Capt Gavin, and unanim

Resolved—That we hereby re nation to return Messrs O'Brien presentatives at the approaching City, because we consider them and Religious Liberty, which we Francis Wm Russell to be, for totally unfit to represent the C Parliament at this eventful crisis.

LIMERICK, ENNIS, AND Junction Rai

NOTICE is hereby given, th "The Abandonment of Rai the Limerick, Ennis, and Killaloe Company have made application t Committee of her Majesty's Privy and Foreign Plantations, setting f rick, Ennis, and Killaloe Junction are desirous that the Railway, Br Works by "The Limerick, Ennis tion Railway Act, 1846," auth (being the whole Railway and unc Company), should be abandoned b Ennis, and Killaloe Junction Railw • Notice is hereby further given who may think themselves aggriev abandonment of the said Railway and Works, and who desire to c bring such objections before the Committee, by sending a written by post, on or before the 31st addressed to the Secretary of the Board of Trade, Whitehall, Lond

Dated this 29th day of June, I HENRY F. BERN June 30. July 7, July 14.