

The school is drants, Level and the use of which constructed.

the greatest social their docility and esteem—corporeal
ound necessary.—
religious principles portment, the Pu reful attention and ES; and they are ster, whose affecexperience even in exercises and in

ed by Half Yearly
OUNT DONERAILE,
thers, kindly give Diligence and Im-

for breakfast and twice on Sundays;
n at one; dinner

ning and Station-if required, and necessary attention,
al charge whatever,
FOUR POUNDS per
e young gentleman
ointments are re-pected. Payments dvance, and One removal of a Pupil.
y, and then but for acquainted with Mr.

his School, and his Instructing, and active and efficient n a sound extensive strongly recommend ne Public, and we
of Mr. JAMES as in of Lismore, Drumcannon,

rk.
Tramore,
Limerick.
Kilkenny,
ector of Youghal, Ballybroody,
ector of Gowran,
, Glandore,
ol. Fethard,
Waterford,"
March 31.

At Newcastle-on-Tyne, Capt. Richard Clement Moody, Royal Engineers, to Mary Susanna, eldest daughter of Joseph Hawks Esq. Jesmond House, Northumberland.
Richard Morgan Hall, Esq. Lieutenant 48th Regt. to Louisa Maria, daughter of Henry John Mant, Esq. of Bath.
At St. John's, Paddington, the Rev. John Cruger Murray Aynsley, Rector of Walton-in-Gordano, Somerset, to Harriet, daughter of the late Rev. Frederick Manners Sutton.
At Wareham, the Rev. Robert Wheeler Bush, M.A. head master of the Islington Proprietary School, to Mary Anne, daughter of the late Captain Clendon, I.N.
At Storrington, Sussex, the Rev. Edward Gray, to Sidney, daughter of the late Colonel Edward Wilmot.
At Toronto, Walter Gibson Cassels, Esq. Manager of the Bank of British North America, to Adelaide Victoria, daughter of Larratt Smith, of Southampton, Hants.
The Hon. and Rev. Augustus Byron, son of Lord Byron, to Frederica, daughter of Lieut. General Sir Thomas M'Mahon.
Walter Drummond, Esq. to Mary, daughter of the late Lionel Hervey, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Aherla, the Rev. John Henry Madras, Vicar of Aglish, in his 79th year.
At Temple Lawn, Blackrock, Cork, Patrick M. Kelly, Esq. On Monday morning, Alice Charlotte, the beloved child of George Sampson, Esq. Knopogue Castle, county Clare.
Mr. Edward Coote, of the Custom House, Dublin.
At the Presentation Convent, Cashel, Mrs. Mary Joseph Collins.
At Duncannon Fort, Anne, wife of the Rev. John Lymberg. Joseph Patten, Esq. of the Law Exchequer office.
In Boyle, of water on the brain; Emily, daughter of Adjutant Johnston, of the 41st Regt.
Julia, relict of the late Terence M'Dermot, Esq. of Boyle.
At his residence, Mohill, John Duke, Esq. M.D. Assistant Surgeon of the Leitrim Militia. His remains were followed to the grave by Lord Viscount Clements and the staff of the Leitrim Militia, in full uniform.
Suddenly, at Mountrath, Mr. Patrick Bergan, undertaker.
At Dublin, Mr. James Waddell, reporter.
At Currysishan, Mary Ann, relict of the late Mr. Robert M'Affee, aged 82 years.
At Londonderry, Mr. Samuel Milligan, master printer, also Miss Phipps.
At Bayswater, Anna, wife of Richard D. Boylan, Esq. and daughter of the late William Johnson, Esq. of Fortfield, co. Antrim.
On the 11th inst. General the Hon. Robert Meade, Colonel of the 12th Infantry.
William Page Kingdom, Esq. Alderman, of Exeter, of which city he was Mayor in 1842-43.
At Bridworth, near Halsted, Essex, Elizabeth, relict of John Simcocks, Esq. late Major 5th Regiment of Infantry.
At Northampton, John Alston, Esq.
At Myton-crescent, near Warwick, aged 76, Benjamin Sadler, Esq. brother of the late Michael Thos. Sadler, Esq. M.P.
At Bristol, Mr. Henry H. Harvey, aged 83, formerly of H.M. Customs in that city.
At Liverpool, Mr. Duke, governor of the borough gaol.
At East Looe, Anne, wife of James Nicholas, Captain R.N.
At Falmouth, suddenly, Mrs. Pascoe, widow of the late Mr. E. R. Pascoe, R.N.
At Dover, Capt. Molyneux, late of 37th Regt. son of the late General Sir Thomas Molyneux, Bart. of Castle Dillon, county Armagh.
In Baltimore, U.S. John Mactavish, Esq. her Majesty's Consul for the State of Maryland.
Suddenly, at Lachine, on the 11th ult. Michael Coghlan, Esq. merchant, Aylmer, Ottawa. The deceased was most extensive in the lumber trade, and a native of Six-mile-bridge, co. Clare.
At Malta, Dr. Charles Underwood, of Wye-terrace House, Herefordshire.
At Cape Town, Cape of Good Hope, Pieter Gerhard Brink, Esq. late Auditor General of that colony.
At Trelawny, Jamaica, the Rev. Dr. Magrath.
Saturday, in Lower Hartstonge-street, to the deep affliction of his family and friends, Henry, second son of the late Thomas William Monsell, Esq. Solicitor, of this City, aged 15.

nating patronage. Its use, common having, for some time, engaged the of the Agricultural Public—differing from Peruvian Guano, which can be a cost of £9 to 10 guineas per ton. be equally or more efficacious, o amount of pure Carbon it contains, portions of sulphate of Lime and fi der it as a powerful exhilarant, more costly and imported rival.

The real utility of the Peat Guano well tested, its recognition as a val follows; it is confidently recommen FOR TURNIP—On account of its qualities, thereby preserving this im the ravage of the Fly, whilst its car nents evidence its benefit to the Lar permanent Manure, 5 cwt., well in applied, is sufficient for an Acre.

FOR CLOVER—In this case its questioned. The large proportion sulphate of Lime) contained in produces the greatest beneficial effe this Crop is more dependant on ea salts than any other. 6 cwt. sown mowing, and before rain, will be of service.

WINTER VETCHES—Here the gr Peat Guano first became apparent, directions of General Sir R. Burke, K was as abundant as compared to the tion of Farm Yard Manure. This for the scythe, and will prove the un and merit of the Peat Guano to the and unacquainted.

The locality of this crop
National school of Ahane, on the pr Sfr R Burke, KCB, Thornfield, w communicate the result of this inter

FOR THE KITCHEN GARDEN—Its this purpose, well mixed with dry L has been productive of the best effe

FOR FLOWERS—The attention o quested to the peculiar results atten the Peat Guano. The wood forms plants exhibit more vigour, the petal are more abundant. It deepens, some cases, changes every colour, ex ing a more defined brilliancy to this Nature's inanimate, but expressive

It may be obtained (PRICE £3 PE respectable Seeds Merchant in Lime

JOHN
23,

Country Agents charge the carriage
It may be worth while noting th spectable and influential references Mr. GEORGE W. BASSETT is the Agent for this Company.