

authorities, consented to the presence of officers in the wine and spirit docks by the appointment of a committee for that purpose.

The old Mining and Emigration Office, has turned up a fraudulent receipt in the office are committed by taking money from country gentlemen.

It was ordered the Rev. J T Benney, near Newmarket, to hold a church on every saint's day in compliance with the request of the donors.

A Roman Catholic architect, who has been building churches, schools, &c. of a private asylum.

Mr. Bell, and Alexander Kimmond, were joined in a boating party last week.

Mr. Smithfield, master butcher, was fined.

L.—The Catholic Standard expressed openly his indignation at the conduct during this trial, and he brought the subject before the House of Commons in parliament.

Christopher Smith, who confessed to the murder of George Bush on a December last, was on Saturday to take his trial.

IN, JULY 27.

The Earl and Countess of Eglinton gave a party for the season, at the Marlborough House, on Saturday last, which was attended by the nobility and gentry. It was noted in the excellence of its cuisine and abundance of its refreshment, and the pleasure of the guests, and the music of the bands (the 52d Light Infantry) were all, which was promenaded.

The Countess of Eglinton attended divine service at the Chapel Royal. The sermon was by J Carson, DD, FRCO; and the "Tea," was chaunted.

The Opposition has gained a supporter in the person of Sir George Foster, and he has had a serious defeat in the person of Mr. Gray.

By the Nisi Prius Officers act heretofore received on the circuit, the man and judge's bailiff respectively abolished; and no fee, however small, shall be demanded or received, or claiming to exercise any office or other person attending the court office or employment.

Mr. Napier speaks much for the impartiality of the Government, that the very best patronage was in behalf of the Government.

Mr. Swift, a member of Sligo county, has been chosen by a majority of the county in Parliament, to represent the county of Sligo—his country has produced, and the value of the estates in this county.

According to the sheriff's last calculation. We understand that a greater number of professional agents engaged for the respective candidates polled for Sergeant O'Brien than for Mr. Russell, excluding from those in the interest of the hon. member his conducting agent and another gentleman who acted gratuitously on the occasion. As a matter of course, a petition against Mr. Russell's return is talked of, but without the slightest chance of a successful result; while on the other hand it is admitted that a counter petition could hardly fail of success.

Their Excellencies the Lord and Lady Lieutenant will be the guests of Lord and Lady Crofton, at their splendid mansion, Moate Park, during Roscommon races, which come off on 10th, 11th and 12th August.

The Viscountess Gort has arrived at Roxboro' house, near this city.

Miss Smyth, the heroine of the Amazon, is arrived in this city, on a visit to W J Shaw, Esq. Rose cottage.

Colonel Chatterton, K.H. and Mrs. Chatterton have arrived at Youghal.

The Hon. Frederick Chichester will shortly lead to the hymeneal altar Miss Tighe, daughter of Mr. D. and the Hon. Mrs. Tighe, of Rossana, county Wexford.

Robert Potter, Esq. M.P. has arrived in town from Stockport. Mr. Sergeant O'Brien has also arrived, and both will attend the public to-morrow, to thank the Mayor, for his temperate and firm conduct during the excitement of the City election.

We regret to state Col. Bruen, M.P. got a second attack of apoplexy on Saturday, at Carlow, which it is feared will incapacitate him for public duties.

Mr. Ball's majority at Carlow over Col. Bruen was only two! Both are returned.

Cornelius O'Brien, Esq., M.P. leaving Ennis for Birchfield, was seriously indisposed after his return for Clare, and reports in Limerick yesterday about his health were by no means favourable.

An inquest was held on yesterday at Barrington's hospital by Dr. Murphy, coroner, on the body of a man named John Colbert, a snuff grinder, who was found dead at Browne's lane on Monday morning. In the absence of evidence as to how he came by his death the inquest was adjourned until Friday.

A meeting of the Limerick Board of Conservators took place yesterday at the county court house, Eyre, Lloyd, Esq. JP, in the chair. A statement of the accounts for the past year was submitted, by which it appeared that the sum of £635 15s was received for licenses in 1851, and £49 8s 8d on account of fines. The expenditure from 1st July, 1851, to 1st July, 1852, was £666 13s 6d, leaving on hands a balance of £18 10s 2d. exclusive of this season's licence duty. The most gratifying reports were received from all parts of the district relative to the state of the fisheries and the good effects that have resulted from protection. The Conservators from the Upper Shannon stated that the spawning rivers were never known to be so abundantly stocked with salmon as at present. Mr. Alton having informed the board that the Commissioners are to hold a court at Six-mile-bridge on Friday next, to decide as to the legality of Mr. Stafford's weir at Cratloe, a discussion ensued in which Mr. John Barrington, Mr. Stafford's solicitor, took part. It was eventually decided that no special instructions should be given to Mr. Alton regarding the case, but that he was to conduct it to the best of his judgement. Great dissatisfaction was expressed at the conduct of the Commissioners a meeting of the School Board was agreed to raise a voluntary subscription, and to a year salary.

This day fifteen claims for divorce and marriage, were adjudicated at a court of claimants, at the Town Clerk, Town-hall.

Six vessels, with foreign cargo, arrived at port yesterday.

The Industry from the Continent arrived on the 12th inst. with 18

LIMERICK UNION—At a meeting of the board of guardians, held on the 26th inst. from Mr. Cleary, assistant clerk, of having been threatened by an R C chaplain, to turn him out of the house, a resolution was adopted to make a complaint to the board, and refrain from any authority not approved of by Michael Tierney was appointed Mr. John Barclay, schoolmaster in the house on the 26th inst. during week, 174; discharged, 174.

In the Limerick workhouse this month last year was 28th July, 1852.

DISTRESSED UNIONS—At a meeting of the board of guardians, held on the 30th ult for the application of the law, and for the recovery of certain distressed unions, a resolution was passed provides 'That all or part of the rate in aid for the general rate in aid for the State of Ennis workhouse, week, 22; discharged, 76; treatment, 337; remaining, 337.

A young man named George Dan Lysaght, of Ennistymon, was committed to the workhouse on Thursday last.

At the official declaration of the sheriff announced that the Power 1404; John Esmond, 1228. The Sheriff Power and John Esmond.

John George, Esq. Q.C. returned for Wexford county. Patk M'Mahon, Esq. an respectable farmer in the county has no property in Wexford.

There are more Roman Catholics to the new Parliament from the county since the Revolution.

There are 7 members of the county in Ireland, namely—Sergeant Frederick Lucas, Charles Kennedy, Patk M'Mahon.

Dr. Brady, of London, secured ten votes over the late member of Lord Leitrim. Hugh the conservative candidate at the poll.

Final result of the general election, Leslie, 1946; Foster, 189; Mr. Wm. L. Joynt, T.C.