

Chairman drew up a report for the board, the pure informed the Grand of the Treasury for nies of Glenquin and for the purpose of board called on the ce against such a pro-
 e would be of no benefit
 e was a pier at Roynes
 e following was the ries—Remaining on 343 ; died, 3 ; ad-turday, 2,046 ; cost
 relief for the week,
 lief, £24 18s 8d ;
 297 ; paid by treasu-
 e union, £1,153.
 called a full meeting
 Spaight's just claim
 e Jessy to Quebec,
 should be left to law.
 e from 10d to 5s 6d.
 e in debt.
 11,000 to support its ng year. The new an to 5s 7d at Ard.

voluntarily took their
 is month. In Castle-
 from 4000 to 400.

ast night in honor o
 are resolved that the y home in that city.
 gress for the erection ch some of them are
 inton Masonic Hall,
 t Viceroy, who is a
 aft.
 lly's, named Sullivan,
 e Kerry Militia, was followed the thunder
 and.

J. Wilson, Esq. for six-mile-bridge :—D. J.
 ssau-st. Dublin, £1 ;
 mn Vanderkiste, £1 ;
 cond subscription, £1.

rt of last impression :
 s day for Hungary.
 of Judge Moore in

l out to-day with 234
 any will re-open at Races, and continue ces week. Miss Emma dramatic talent, inde-
 company which sup-nd a lady so au fait to comic drama, and on ecial favourite.

8th Hussars.

John Armstrong Faris, M.D. Cavan, to Matilda Susannah, daughter of the Rev. J. H. Mason, Chancellor of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin.

At Calais, Frederick Rodney, Esq. son of the Hon. Berkeley
 Rodney, to Frances Philippa, daughter of the Rev. Vesey Hamilton, Rector of Chart, Kent, and grand-daughter of the late Captain Richard Malone, Westmeath.

On the 11th June, at St. Peter's Church, New York, Samuel Alexander Young Glendenny, son of Wm. A. Glendenny, Esq, formerly of Dublin, grandson of Sir Richard Young, of Cavan, to Bridget Mary, daughter of the late John Riedy, Esq, Tallyho Lodge, county Limerick.

DEATHS.

On the 13th inst. at Grange Cottage, Lisnagry, Frances Mangan, aged 86 years. She was a lady much respected throughout a long life.

At Kilrush, Margaret, the beloved daughter of Patrick B.
 O'Brien, Esq. Her remains were interred at Crecorah.

At Peasfield, in this county, Lawrence Thomas Roche, Esq.
 P.L.G.

At his residence, Ballymullen, Tralee, Henry Stephens, Esq.
 formerly of Blennerville, aged 72 years.

At Tubrid, the seat of her brother, Henry Hilliard, Esq. late Paymaster of the 68th Regiment, Mary, fourth daughter of the late Robert Hilliard, Esq. of Listrim, county Kerry.

At Rathmiues, Walter Glascock, Esq. late Assistant Registrar of Deeds, Dublin.

At Woodgrigue, co. Wexford, aged 82, James Ennis, Esq.

At Kilkee, Mr. John Flanagan, of Cornwallis-st. Limerick, stucco decorator.

At Dublin Castle, Mr. John Reaks.

At Cohor, Bullinacollig, Mr. James Betson.

At Inchvale, Douglas, Cork, Miss Catherine Haynes.

At Athlone, Mr. Michael Brennan, draper.

At Bettystown, Nicholas Boylan, Esq. J.P. of Hilltown House, county Meath.

In Wilton-square, Matthew Fortescue, Esq., of late Lord Lieutenant's Staff.

At Hardwicke-street, Miss Waller, daughter of late Richard Waller, Esq. of Dawson-street.

At his residence in Mayor-street, in his 76th year, Mr. James Duan, for 40 years an officer of the Board of Customs.

At Ballinagh, county Cavan, Anne Eliza, wife of T. S. O'Reilly
 Esq. M.D.

At Cloughaneely, county Cavan, J. M'Gladery, Esq. Commander in the Royal Navy.

At Rosvoiland Lodge, near Donegal, Miss Hamilton, daughter of the late Capt. Hamilton, of the Coast Guard Service.

In Belfast, Miss Boyd ; Mr. John Orr.

In London, Mary Ann Shaw, aged 76, wife of Mr. David Shaw, late of Cork, and daughter of the late Mr. John Meade, of Mallow-lane.

At Upton, Essex, Sir John Henry Pelly, Bart. F.R.S. aged 75.

The Rev. John Grenside Weddell, Minister of St. George's Chapel, Battersea.

At Cockermouth Castle, James Fielding, Esq. of Deabigh House, Haslemere.

At Portland-street, Portsmouth, Sarah, widow of the late Colonel Joseph W. Crabbe, of H.E.I.C. Madras Service.

At the Parsonage, Whaplode-grove, Lincolnshire, the Rev.
 Richard Lowe, Vicar of Misterton, and Perpetual Curate of Crewkerne, Somerset, aged 75.

At Brixton, Miss Susan Horne, sister of the late William Horne, Esq. of Liverpool.

John Sweetland Dewdney, Esq. of Exeter.

At Devonport, Anna, relict of the late P. Glinn, Esq. Key-ham Point.

Harriet Lawrence, wife of Capt. Lawrence, R.N. Plymouth.

John F. P. Rasto, Esq. of Pall-mall, late of Oporto.

At Llanrwst, the Rev. S. Morgan.

At Stowmarket, the Rev. Charles Green.

At Bayswater, the Rev. John Parry.

Joseph Ady, the notorious letter-writer.

Mr. Joseph Fletcher, Inspector of British and Foreign Schools.

At the Royal Naval Hospital, Plymouth, Commander Chas.
 Goulet, R.N. late of Tenby, Pembrokeshire.

At Boon's Place, in his 83d year, John Cleverton, Esq. the oldest freeman of the borough of Plymouth.

At Cooleney, county Tipperary, John Langley, Esq. fourth son of the late Oliver Langley, Esq. of Brittas Castle, county Tipperary.

At Letterkenny, Donegal, the Rev. William Henry, D.D. of the Presbyterian Church.

JAMES WOREALL, Esq. street, Limerick ; and Mr MARSHALL, the A

Aug. 18.

Peat Guano
FOR PUBLIC ATTENTION
Flax and Potatoes

THE notice of the President,
 members of the Limerick Agri-
 the Nobility and Gentry, is resp inspect at 23, George-st. a samp
 long, grown by J R Frazer, Esq, Cloughjordan, (the late residence by the application of 2 cwt. weigh Guano to the acre, other samples exhibited at the Great National C way, on the 18th and 19th Insts.
 Exhibition in October next.

ALSO POTATOES

The gentry in the neighbourho
 licited to make a careful examina crop, connected with the follow company will feel grateful for co subject, through the public press and manager.

Maurice Hogan, a tenant farm
 Capt. H Jackson, at Fanningston 1½ cwt. of the Peat Guano, (and one quarter and 20 perches of la potatoes, that these are now pe leaves and tubers, that his brot
 the same land, with the same se manure to the quarter, and that two acres has entirely perished
 a red worm, which follows o
 two acres, but there is no appear in his land.

The Company are fully sensibl
 the great farming community is with their own in a serious and of this important statement, and public, at this early period, in o inspection of the growing crop, mation of the circumstances, as rass the public mind from all do

The Company are in posses statements from Ruan, near Enn Clare Galway, on this particular additional testimonials from Li Burke, Thornfield, Richard
 Nenagh, J R Frazer, Esq. C
 Patterson, Esq. Ballycorne
 Esq. Limerick, O'Mara,
 of the Dangan Union, John Ha
 John Robertson, Esq, Ballinah
 rous others of equal importance.
 manuscript at their office, 23, G or copies with direction for us
 from their various agents.

JOHN BER...

Manager and Secretar
 Chemical referees of the com
 Queen's College, Cork ; Edmon
 Professor W K Sullivan, M
 Dublin, whose respective analy