DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, to the profound grief of his parents, after a few days illness, of jaundice, at the house of his father, Alderman Henry Watson, Tontine Buildings, in the 30th year of his age, Henry Vincent Watson, Esq. J.P. for this county, late Lieutenant H.M. 48th Regt. and on half-pay 3d, or Buffs.—A gentleman whose life, if regarded in a civil or military capacity, was ever in accordance with strict moral rectitude and unblemished private honor. In all social or domestic relations there was candor of sentiment and kindly feeling, sincere love of truth, and religious conviction, which impressed general confidence: and the memory of his departed worth will be long cherished by those intimate friends who now mourn, although not without hope, for a loss so unexpected.
