TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. Sin,—Having seen in the last number of your Journal a letter calculated to cast number of your upon our Guild, we feel it our duty to fling latek the insult, and explass contempt for the author, who by a side wind, so ungenerously sought to make little of a mechanic. mechanic.

In doing this, it is right the public should know that competent Tradesmen did apply for the work, but were refused; and that what is now being done in our line by the contractor is executed—but by artisans, but by labouring men, which we consider an infringement upon our rights, and trust will be discontinued.

The Directors, being well aware of the benefit arising from Insurances, deem it unnecessary to offer any comment on its expediency and immense utility; and the great support rendered to their establishment has given a flattering earnest that the public are not unmindful of the broad basis on which, from its starting, their Society has founded its claims to support and encouragement, namely, of being intimately allied with the provident interests of the country, and aiming to give back to the assurers, in bonuses, the vast sums hitherto passed into the hands of shareholders and proprietors.

The distinguishing features of the "Hope Mutual" are-liberality in all its operations, with the most ample security. Detailed Prospectus and forms of proposal, with every other class of information, may be had from Messis, RYAN, BROTHERS, & CO. Directors' sole Correspondent at LIMENICK. DR. GELSTON, only Medical Adviser.
